ME
Dear Mr. President:

Thank you for your kind note regarding my re-election.

You certainly should take great pride in the record you have established during your administration. History undoubtedly will reflect that you brought integrity and forthrightness to your task and restored public trust in the government during a very difficult time for our country.

We both are faced now with the important task of expanding the Republican Party. I look forward to working toward this goal with you in the years ahead.

Warmest regards.

Sincerely,
