RE: Pat Delaney - SEC

Bennett's office (McPhearson) reports that he is definitely a candidate - the Speaker is for him, and Delaney would like the job.

There are however three other candidates who have good qualifications and a good bit of support. Personnel office is in the process of having these people interviewed around the White House. Personnel identifies them as Raymond Troubh, an investment broker from New York; Kenneth Bialkin, a lawyer from New York; and John Corcoran, an investment broker from New York.

A memorandum of recommendation to the President will be ready in a couple of weeks.
