MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM:

BO CALLAWAY

SUBJECT:

Weekly Report #24, Week Ending January 10, 1976

GENERAL CAMPAIGN ORGANIZATION

A meeting was held on Friday with PFC Chairmen. 37 States were represented with a total of 64 people in attendance, including ten members of the Advisory Committee. Reports on the meeting were excellent, and we believe the timing was good as a kick-off for the election year. Comments following the meeting and reception at the White House were very good and we all appreciate the personal attention and time you and Betty gave to the group.

The major complaint surfacing at the meeting, although mostly in individual conversations and not at the general session, was over the state's budgets. Most understand the necessity of putting emphasis now in the first five primary states and two convention states, but on the other hand, all want a minimum amount NOW to spend on headquarters, mailings, etc. We will try to free up some money for limited spending, but it is important that everyone hold a tight line on this and any complaints received at the White House should be referred back to us or the information passed on to us for follow up.

STATE CAMPAIGN ORGANIZATIONS

The appointment of Chairmen in North Dakota and Utah brings to 42 the number of organizations with Chairmen or Steering Committees in operation. A current list of Chairmen is attached at TAB A.

FLORIDA - Reagan's visit there on January 9-11 was met with more questions on his $90 billion boondoggle. Senate Minority Whip James Glisson held a press conference in Tallahassee prior to Reagan's arrival asking him to better explain his tax cut and how it would specifically affect Florida. Initial press accounts in Florida showed Reagan being met by large, enthusiastic crowds. However, Reagan leaders are beginning to back off from their 2 to 1 victory projections.

PFC telephone operations are scheduled to begin on January 23 at 12 telephone centers in 9 cities.

ILLINOIS - Wednesday is the deadline for delegate filing. The PFC strategy is to have only four name people running as Ford delegates in each of the 24 Districts so as not to diffuse the vote, and with a couple exceptions, this is being successful. The Reagan Committee tried to push the idea of having uncommitted delegates in order to "keep Party unity", with the PFC's answer being that it was the Reagan candidacy threatening Party unity, not committed delegates. We're seeing this in other states where we are very strong. (See Reagan Strategy).

All 24 Districts have PFC Chairmen, and eight paid field coordinators will be on board by mid-January. Also 14 regional headquarters will be open by the 15th, along with 13 storefront operations.

IOWA - Although the concentration is on Precinct Chairmen, 50 of the 99 counties have PFC Chairmen, which includes all of the key and secondary counties, with 12 volunteer field coordinators. Prior to the January 19 precinct caucuses, three Advocates will be in the State -- Francine Neff, Earl Butz, and Rog Morton.

All three networks will be covering the caucuses, and although we feel we are in good organizational strength, we are more concerned about the perception of the outcome as opposed to the actual results. Approximately 12,000 delegates will be elected at these precinct caucuses with none of the delegates pledged or committed so a specific trend will not be evident (as opposed to the Democrats). However, should the networks zero in on key Reagan precincts, the interpretation could be bad. We are trying to get as much information on the network coverage in advance as possible.

MASSACHUSETTS - A poll recently conducted by the Boston Globe showed Ford 40%, Reagan 30%, undecided 30%, which Dick Mastrangelo feels is fairly accurate. With Mathias' announcement on Friday, all candidates names are off the ballot except you and Reagan.

An official Reagan organization is non-existent, but pro-Reagan forces are working through a Republican organization called Regro (to rebuild a Republican Party). This is a very conservative group and using it as an umbrella, Reagan does not need an organization which will definitely work to Reagan's advantage as he can claim victory with as little as 15% of the vote (he will get more). We will win, but could lose psychologically. The election of Republican Party Committeemen is on the same day as the primary, which will additionally help Reagan by turning out the ultra-conservative vote.

The PFC organization is slower than we'd like, but a good game plan has been approved. The organization will be concentrated in precincts showing a high "moderate" voting history, based on statistics from the last two primary elections. A telephone operation is scheduled to begin in early February using six phone centers. Results will be coordinated with a pre-primary mailing.

NEW HAMPSHIRE - The Reagan visit to New Hampshire last week added momentum to our organization and we believe had a ripple effect throughout the country, as witnessed in news reports.

An orientation meeting for phone bank coordinators is scheduled for the 21st, with actual phoning to start ten days later and continue up to Election Day. The phoning will be keyed to targetted mailings.

Our delegate slate was filed on Friday and a copy is attached for your information. We understand the Reagan list was incomplete and, in fact, the Governor is not on his slate, although the Governor's son is listed. They have until 5:00 p.m. this evening to complete the slate, although any additions after Friday must be submitted by the individual in person to the Secretary of State.

NEW MEXICO - Manny Lujan has done an outstanding job in the State and has really stuck his neck out among his constituency in supporting you. Pete Domenici also has been a big help and the early Reagan momentum seems to be completely defused. (If anything, our people are worried because they can't find any significant Reagan activity.)

All 32 counties have Chairmen in addition to four volunteer regional coordinators. A copy of a letter recently sent in the State over Lujan's and Domenici's signatures is attached at TAB A.

NORTH CAROLINA - The Reagan Committee is pouring both money and people into the State and at present have 15 paid staffers. However, Reagan's visit there last week got poor coverage, due mainly to his ignoring the press on arrival, even though the areas he visited are his strongholds.

A recent poll taken by the Reagan Committee showed Reagan 41% to your 40%. In the same poll, a head-to-head was asked on Holshouser vs Helms, with the Governor getting 47% to Helms' 28%. In job rating, Holshouser got 85% fair and above.

NORTH DAKOTA - Warner Litten, a former State Senator from Fargo was recommended by the State GOP and has accepted the position. This was just finalized on Friday, so no additional organization has been named.

OKLAHOMA - Henry Bellmon has really gone off the deep end but in the long run this could help us. At a Republican meeting last week where he was speaker, he spent the entire time criticizing you and the Administration. Ron Horton, who was Dewey Bartlett's campaign chairman, stood up and said he hadn't come to a GOP organization meeting to hear a Republican Senator castigate the President and left the meeting. Six other people joined him. Bellmon apparently is supporting Connally, so his remarks have backfired in the Reagan camp also.

TENNESSEE - Both Ann Tuck of Nashville and Kyle Testerman of Knoxville have accepted as Regional Co-Chairmen in Tennessee, but Jack Craddock declined. Senator Baker is working on a Co-Chairman for the Memphis area.

UTAH - State Senator Warren Pugh of Salt Lake City and Myrene Brewer of Ogden have accepted the PFC Chairmanship. Both are extremely well-respected, but it will be necessary for us to get a good political type to actually run our organization. Jake Garn was instrumental in getting them to accept, although he publicly is keeping a low profile.

Dick Richards, the GOP Chairman, is definitely for Reagan, although publicly he says he is neutral. The Reagan Committee is having problems as common situs was their key issue, which has been taken away.

VERMONT - The State Legislature passed on Friday a State Primary Law. The Primary will be held on March 2. The GOP Chairman has indicated he wants neither you or Reagan on the ballot. We will have a recommendation to you by Friday.

WYOMING - Diemer True and four members of his Advisory Committee resigned in reaction to the energy legislation but have done so quietly so as to avoid any embarrassment to you. Diemer, himself, says he'll still support you and we believe he resigned in respect to his father's wishes as opposed to being personally upset. John Wold and Stan Hathaway have agreed to pick up the ball and Hathaway, in fact, will probably be named Chairman.

LEGAL

The Federal Election Commission approved proposed allocation regulations which permit great flexibility in the PFC's allocation of expenditures regarding Presidential travel, the Advocates Program, and the like.

In addition, the FEC's proposed disclosure regulations have taken a broad view toward the independent expenditure provision of the campaign laws which provides that any person may expend up to $1,000 supporting their candidate. This expenditure is in addition to the individual's $1,000 contribution limitation so long as the expenditure is not requested nor authorized by the candidate's campaign committee. In its proposed regulation, the FEC has decided that a group of individuals may act in concert for a single expenditure in a single transaction if the following tests are met: (a) They must spend only personal funds; (b) the activity must not be authorized by a candidate or his principal campaign committee; (c) no solicitation effort on behalf of a candidate is involved; and (d) the individuals may not continue to act together for the purpose of influencing a federal election after the specific transaction is completed. Such persons must, however, file a report with the FEC if such expenditures exceed $100 in a calendar year.

Campaign '76 Media Communications, Inc., has been incorporated as a non-profit D.C. corporation to act as the advertising agency for the campaign.

An inquiry regarding the alleged "fund raising" aspects of the of the Gramshammer dinner in Vail, Colorado, has been received by the FEC. Bob Visser is hopeful that this incident can be handled as a "matter under review" by the FEC, without the necessity for formal compliance proceedings.

REAGAN STRATEGY

Based on conversations with our Regional Coordinators, several things are beginning to emerge nationally, which pretty much fits in with what we expected.

1. All money is being focused in New Hampshire, Florida and North Carolina, apparently on the theory that you'll drop out if he wins in these States and, therefore, they don't need to be careful in allocating funds.
2. In states where an activist is willing to come forward and head up a Committee we see some activity, but even here there's no indication that any money is being spent.
3. In our strong states, efforts are being made to "share" the delegates or have uncommitted delegates in the name of "Party Unity". This approach has been tried in Illinois, Ohio, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Obviously, similar offers are not made in their strong states such as South Carolina or Louisiana. We're staying on top of this and our PFC people are well aware that we're after every delegate we can get.

ISSUES

Agriculture - General feeling seems to be that your speech to the American Farm Bureau was neither a plus nor a minus. Farmers wanted a tougher speech and some assurances against future embargoes. Secretary Butz is extremely well liked and they wanted to be assured that he has the lead in negotiating export sales, not State. The tobacco subsidy is important psychologically in a number of key states, especially North Carolina and Kentucky. It should be left in the budget if possible. It's been recommended that you meet and consult with a few key Republican farmers at the White House. This may be cosmetic, but the word will get around.

Crime - Definitely a key issue. Your program should become a major talking point for Advocates and clearly spelled out and defined.

Common Situs - A big plus for us organizationally. The construction industry has done a good job of pointing out the courage of your veto and editorials have been favorable. If Dunlop leaves, there will be some negative reactions to another Cabinet change, but this would be quickly countered by a good replacement. Industry feels that Dunlop has now proved to be so much a pawn of labor that he can no longer be effective in bringing labor and management together.

New York City - Bob Douglass believes things are quieting down. However, we should monitor closely. If they default or if SEC comes out with a bad report, we could get right back into the middle of a hot issue.

TREASURER'S REPORT

$97,407 was raised during the week for a total of $1,785,531.
$162,041 was expended. The complete Treasurer's Report is attached at TAB B.

President Ford Committee

1828 L STREET, N.W., SUITE 250, WASHINGTON, D.C. 20036 (202) 457-6400

November 22, 1975

Dear Fellow Republican:

President Ford has personally asked us to be honorary co-chairmen of his election efforts in New Mexico. We have agreed to do so and are in the process of working with New Mexico Republican Party leaders in efforts to put together a team for the President's campaign.

We are pleased that State Representative Bob Grant and Karen Peterson have agreed to be co-chairmen of the New Mexico campaign for the President and that former Governor Tom Bolack will be the State Finance Chairman. Many other Republican leaders have also indicated their interest in joining us. You will hear further from Bob and Karen on the progress of the campaign.

Bob and Karen have assembled an excellent core team in a very short time. State Representative Collin McMillan of Roswell will head up the work in the South-east and Reyes Padilla of Santa Fe will head up the effort in the North.

The Republican primary elections will be healthy this election year, with a full opportunity for discussion and debate of the issues the nation faces. Contested elections are a sign of vigor and the new health our party enjoys.

We need a Republican President in 1976. This upcoming election is critical to our party and the Nation. We believe that President Ford's record in Congress and as President amply demonstrate his chances for election are excellent and that he will run well throughout the Nation.

We will hold a press conference Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. in Albuquerque to announce our decision. We wanted personally to let you know prior to the press conference as a courtesy to you and as an invitation to join us if you share our goals.

Warmest personal regards.

Pete V. Domenici
