MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: RICHARD B. CHENEY
FROM: DOUGLAS P. BENNETT DPB
SUBJECT: Delegation to the Funeral of Generalissimo Franco and the Swearing-In Ceremony of Prince Juan Carlos

This memorandum seeks your approval of the designation of a delegation to the funeral of Generalissimo Francisco Franco of Spain and the swearing-in ceremony of Prince Juan Carlos as Head of State.

It is expected that the two ceremonies will be held November 22 and 23. The delegation will be limited to only three people due to the small space in which certain ceremonies will be held. It is expected that an investiture ceremony will be held approximately one week later which will be a very festive occasion to which we would also send a larger, higher-level delegation.

I recommend the following delegation to the funeral of Generalissimo Franco and the swearing-in of Prince Juan Carlos, and the State Department and the NSC concur.

A. Head of Delegation and Personal Representative of the President

The NSC and the State Department suggest that the head of the delegation be a member of the Cabinet. Since we expect to send a higher-level head of delegation to the investiture ceremony the following week, I suggest any of the following as appropriate heads of delegation:

- (1) Rogers C. B. Morton, the Secretary of Commerce
- (2) Thomas Kleppe, the Secretary of Interior

Decision: Select Morton _____

 Select Kleppe _____

V.P.

B. Members of the Delegation with the Personal Rank of Ambassador

(1) The U.S. Ambassador, Wells Stabler, should definitely be included as a member of the delegation.

WCS Approve _____ Disapprove

(2) Admiral James Holloway, the Chief of Naval Operations has been suggested as an appropriate member of the delegation. Admiral Holloway's membership on the delegation would indicate our continuing interest in Defense matters with Spain.

THROUGH: DONALD RUMSFELD
FROM: WILLIAM N. WALKER Walker
SUBJECT: U. S. Delegation to the Funeral of the President of Ireland

The funeral of President Erskine Childers of Ireland has been scheduled for Thursday, November 21, 1974 and the State Department is preparing to send a four member U.S. Delegation including our Ambassador to Ireland, John Moore. Set forth below is a proposed Delegation. This proposal has been discussed with Bill Timmons, Bill Baroody's office, Dean Burch's office and Dick Kennedy, NSC.

1. Head of Delegation. In order of preference our suggestions are: 1. Chief Justice Warren Burger; 2. Associate Justice William Brennan; 3. Secretary of the Army, Howard Calloway.

2. Congressional Representative. Senator James Buckley. Senator Buckley is now in London and advises that he would be prepared to attend if selected.

3. Ambassador Moore.

4. In order of preference our suggestions are: 1. George Meany; 2. Thomas Murphy, President of the Brick Layers Union; 3. Joe Powers, General President of the Plasters Union; 4. Thomas Gleason, President of the East Coast Long Shoremen.
