MEMORANDUM FOR: H. James Field, Jr.
FROM: Richard E. Mastrangelo
SUBJECT: Briefing - New York
DATE: July 20, 1976

Following an extensive review of the New York delegation with State Chairman Richard Rosenbaum, we have identified the following persons who should receive special attention at the New York Delegation meeting with the President on July 22:

Honorable
Malcolm Wilson
24 Winsor Road
Scarsdale, New York 10583

Dear Malcolm:
914/WH 8-4700
GR 2-2344

1. Former Governor of New York who succeeded Vice President Rockefeller on December 18, 1973.
2. Served as Lt. Governor of the State of New York for nearly fifteen years -- from January 1, 1959 until he became Governor.
3. Served in the New York State Assembly for twenty years.
4. Officially carried as uncommitted but leaning for the President.
5. Very conservative
6. Needs special attention because of his status as defeated gubernatorial candidate in the Vice President's home state.

Mr.
Leonard P. Markert, Jr.
12 Old East Dyke Way
Manlius, New York 13104

Dear Len:

1. Very conservative, but close to Dick Rosenbaum who feels we will have him for the President.
2. Did not attend the delegation meeting so his alternate voted for him.
3. Probably will not attend the White House meeting.

Honorable
Jame White
163 Mulberry Street
Rochester, New York 14620

Dear Jim:
716/454-2060
271-8397

1. Former New York State Assemblyman
2. Attorney; Commissioner of the local regional transportation authority
3. formally uncommitted; should be for the President but was absent from the delegation meeting and his alternate voted.

TAB A

MEMORANDUM FOR : H. James Field
FROM: Richard E. Mastrangelo
RE: New York Congressional Delegation
DATE: July 21, 1976

The following Members of the New York Congressional delegation have accepted the invitation to attend the delegation reception on Thursday, July 22:

Senator Jacob Javits

Representative Norman F. Lent
Representative John W. Wydler
Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr.
Representative Benjamin A. Gilman
Representative Robert C. McEwen
Representative Donald J. Mitchell
Representative William F. Walsh
Representative Frank Horton
Representative Barber B. Conable, Jr.
Representative Jack Kemp

The following persons were invited but are unable to attend:

Senator James L. Buckley

Representative Peter A. Peyser

TAB B

Honorable
Fred J. Eckert
101 Sherri Ann Lane
Rochester, New York 14626

Dear Fred:
716/225-6567
518/472-2537

1. State Senator since 1973.
Former Town Supervisor, 1970-73
2. Did not attend the delegation meeting and listed as uncommitted although his alternate voted for the President.
3. Dick Rosenbaum expects him to be for the President.

Mr.
Ralph DeBlasio
Sixth Avenue
New York, New York 10304

Dear Ralph:

1. Considered a very volatile commodity
2. Listed as uncommitted and likes it that way although he is expected to support the President in the final analysis.
3. Asked for and received several tickets for the tall ships
-- for a nephew who has bone cancer. The fact he received them made the papers when DeBlasio said that they were for
"VIPs and I'm a VIP."
4. Probably not coming to the White House reception but could decide at the last minute to arrive.

Mr.
Monroe Seifer
80-81st Street
Brooklyn, New York 11209

Dear Monroe:
212/748-6867

1. Cannot attend due to a scheduling commitment but trying to work it out.
2. High up in Holiday Inns Corporation.
3. Truly uncommitted
4. Fairly conservative - from Brooklyn

Mr.
Terrence Flynn
548 Beach 131st Street
Belle Harbor, New York 11694

Dear Terry:
212/474-4809
520-3143

1. Republican State Committeeman
2. Has LL.M. from Brooklyn Law School who serves as Law Clerk for a New York Supreme Court (highest trial court) Judge.
3. Uncommitted.

Honorable
Perry B. Duryea
Old Montauk, New York

Dear Perry
516/668-2121
516/668-2463

1. Present Minority leader and former Speaker of the New York Assembly
2. Comes from a very conservative area and is under some pressure although he supports the President.
3. Deserves special attention from the President due to his position and his ideogical bent.

Mrs.
Adele C. Haines
269 Kingsland Avenue
Brooklyn, New York 11222

Dear Adele:
212/389-6067

1. Very Conservative - part of the Brooklyn delegation which Dick Rosenbaum feels we may be able to crack.
2. At first was not going to attend the reception but has changed her mind and was very interested.
3. She is considered a soft Reagan vote

Mr.
Frank X. Garguilo
203 Huntington Street
Brooklyn, New York 11231

Dear Frank:
212/MA 5-6327

1. Member, New York Republican State Committee 1966-1972
2. Chairman, Kings County (Brooklyn) Republican Committee since 1956
3. Supports Reagan but Rosenbaum feels he is soft and we can get his support
4. Had indicated he would not be able to attend but has changed his mind and will be at the White House

Honorable
Joseph M. Sussillo
437 75th Street
Brooklyn, New York 11209

Dear Joe:
212/836-6312
745-5850

1. Legislative Assistant to the Minority Leader of the New York City Council
Counsel, New York State Commission on Culteral Resources
2. Member, New York State Banking Committee
3. Part of the Brooklyn delegation which supports Reagan but is believed switchable to the President.

-4-

Mrs.
Eunice Whittlesey
118 Acorn Drive
Scotia, New York 12302

Dear Eunice:
518/462-2601
393-4368

1. Mrs. Whittlesey is Dick Rseonbaum's Vice Chairman and did an outstanding job in coordinating the delegation's visit to the White House.
2. New York State Chairman, Women for Rockefeller, 1970
3. President, State University of New York at Albany Alumni Association
4. Strongly supports the President.
