MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Subject: Enrolled Joint Resolution H.J.Res. 1104 - Export Administration Act Extension
Sponsor - Rep. Ashley (D) Ohio

*Posted 8/14
To Archives 8/15*

Last Day for Action

Recommend action as soon as possible because the basic law has expired.

Purpose

Extends until September 30, 1974 the authority of the Export Administration Act of 1969, which expired July 30, 1974.

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget

Approval

Department of Commerce

Approval (informally)

Discussion

The basic authority of the Export Administration Act, which is administered by the Department of Commerce and authorizes certain controls over exports from the United States, expired on June 30, 1974. This authority was temporarily extended by an earlier resolution until July 30, 1974 to provide Congress with further time to consider extension of the Act and any necessary amendments. Since Congress has not completed this latter effort, the present resolution provides for a further temporary extension until September 30, 1974.
