Existing law (20 U.S.C. 42) provides that the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution be composed of the Vice President, the Chief of Justice of the United States, three Members of the Senate, three Members of the House of Representatives, and nine other persons, other than Members of Congress. The nine citizen regents are to be appointed by joint resolution of Congress for six-year terms.

Pursuant to that law, the Board of Regents voted unanimously to request Congressional members of the Board to introduce legislation to provide for the reappointments of Drs. William A.M. Burden and Caryl P. Haskins and the appointment of Dr. Murray Gell-Mann to a position vacated by Dr. Crawford H. Greenewalt on May 30, 1974.

These enrolled joint resolutions carry out the Board of Regents recommendations. The biographies of the three citizen regents concerned are set forth in the Committee reports.
