MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT
FROM: JIM CANNON ~~W~~
SUBJECT: H.R. 11016 - Renegotiation Act Extension

Attached for your consideration is H.R. 11016, sponsored by Representative Minish and thirteen others, which would extend the Renegotiation Act of 1951 through September 30, 1976. The Act is due to expire on December 31, 1975, and this nine-month extension will allow the Congress additional time to consider the Administration's legislation to extend the Act for five years and to make a number of substantive changes in the Board's authorities.

Additional information is provided in OMB's enrolled bill report at Tab A.

OMB, Max Friedersdorf, Counsel's Office (Lazarus) and I recommend approval of the enrolled bill.

RECOMMENDATION

That you sign H.R. 11016 at Tab B.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Subject: Enrolled Bill H.R. 11016 - Renegotiation Act extension
Sponsor - Rep. Minish (D) New Jersey and 13 others

Last Day for Action

December 31, 1975 - Wednesday

Purpose

To extend the Renegotiation Act for nine months.

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget Approval

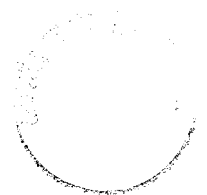

Renegotiation Board Approval

Discussion

The Renegotiation Act of 1951 provides for the review by the Renegotiation Board of total profits derived from Federal defense and space-related contracts if a contractor's total renegotiable sales exceed $1 million annually. If the Board determines, in accordance with certain statutory criteria, that a contractor's profits are excessive, it is empowered to return those profits to the Federal Government. The Act is due to expire on December 31, 1975.

The enrolled bill would extend the Act for nine months through September 30, 1976.

The Administration has submitted legislation to the Congress to extend the Renegotiation Act for five years and to make a number of substantive changes in the Board's authorities.

No final action has yet been taken by the Congress on this proposal. The Renegotiation Act must be extended until action on the pending legislation has been completed since, under existing law, defense and space-related contracts entered into after December 31, 1975, are not subject to renegotiation.

Re: Enrolled Bill Request
H.R. 11016

Dear Mr. Frey:

Reference is made to your memorandum dated December 19, 1975 requesting the Renegotiation Board's views and recommendations on enrolled bill H.R. 11016.

The Board approves this bill which would extend the applicability of the Renegotiation Act of 1951, as amended, to September 30, 1976. The Renegotiation Act of 1951, as amended, is due to expire December 31, 1975 and this nine-month extension will allow Congress the additional time it needs to complete its work on a comprehensive review to strengthen and reinvigorate the renegotiation process.

It is therefore recommended that the President sign the bill.

Sincerely,

R. C. Holmquist
Chairman
