1. Between 1968 and 1973 the AFL Maritime Trade sponsored Wednesday afternoon cocktail luncheons at which various congressmen spoke. Was Gerald Ford one of them? How many times did he speak? How much money did he receive for each speech? Did he list these fees on his IRS report? Did he write his own speeches on each occasion or were they written by the Union?

2. Did the President receive contributions from an illegal fund set up by Seafarers International Union in 1962? According to a Justice Department indictment against the Union and its officials which was delivered in 1970 certain congressmen received a total of $750,000 from that fund between 1964 and 1968. Was Gerald Ford one of them? case dismissed in 1972 343

F. Supp 774 SPAD

3. In 1970 President Ford was named as one of those who received illegal contributions from American President Lines and Pacific Far East Lines. Can you confirm that the President did in fact receive such contributions? Did the President have those contributions delivered to him in the form of checks in person? Was he aware that the contributions were illegal?

A STUDY OF FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS BY ORGANIZED LABOR TO THE 1970 HOUSE CAMPAIGNS

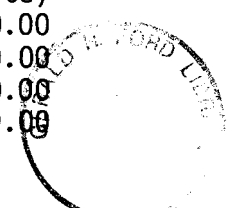

The figures below represent organized labor's financial contributions to U. S. House candidates in the 1970 Elections.

They do not at all reflect the Union's total financial effort in the U. S. House campaign -- they are only those recorded.

These individual and total contributions were compiled by Americans for Constitutional Action's (ACA) research staff from records at the Clerk of the United States House of Representatives and Secretary of the Senate, Washington, D. C. and various State and County offices throughout the country where recording laws require such disclosure to incumbents and candidates for the office of the United States House of Representatives.

Contributions under $5,000 to incumbents	$297,712.50
Contributions under $5,000 to incumbent candidates	$174,897.56

Grand Total $1,521,939.92

A financial breakdown by party labels show the Democrats received $1,439,189.40 and the Republicans $82,750.52.

It is interesting to note that some incumbents received large contributions although they did not have serious opposition in general or primary campaigns, i.e., Garmatz of Maryland - no general election opposition; Meeds of Washington - received 72.7% of the vote.

(NOTE: Because of the similarity in names such as Anderson of California and Anderson of Tennessee, we did not insert exact figures. From the available information, however, they fall in the range indicated. The minimum amount of money in each range was included in the total figures presented.)
