Dear Freddy:

I'm afraid our boat missed connections again, at least we didn't get together and I'm not sure who is to blame. I suppose I should have broken my other date, but you didn't let me know you were coming until Thurs. and I had several dates by that time. If you'd written earlier things could have been arranged, but I got no word until Friday so what was I to do. You weren't at the Alpha Phi house after the game or at dinner time, so I couldn't get in touch with you. All in all, it was a badly fumbled week-end so much in fact that I'm still trying to collect myself. So many guests at the house here that I didn't get any bed Sat. night and Sunday the sofa was the best I could do. Wasn't a bad game, too many people, I think everyone was afraid of their own shadow.

Leave for Chicago Friday and stay there until Sunday afternoon. Maybe I'll get a chance to see the "fair", but already some of the boys are planning a celebration party and I'm sure I'll have to partake so "Sally Rand" will have to wait.

Central sort of took South, but Tech got their revenge so the Hilltoppers can't say a great deal themselves. I still think South has the best team,
h. h.

I don't get your crack about Jack Bedwith one word is rather puzzling. ~~It~~ Take care.
Love,
L. J. Lewis
