CHARTER

President's Advisory Committee on Refugees

Purpose

Executive Order 11860, dated May 19, 1975, established the President's Advisory Committee on Refugees for the purpose of advising the President and the heads of appropriate Federal agencies concerning the expeditious and coordinated resettlement of refugees from Southeast Asia.

Authority

Executive Order 11860, dated May 19, 1975. The Committee is governed by the provisions of 5 USC Appendix I, which sets forth standards for the formation and use of advisory committees.

Function

The President's Advisory Committee on Refugees shall advise the President and the heads of appropriate Federal agencies on the full range of the study directed by the Executive Order, including:

- (a) health and environmental matters related to resettlement;
- (b) the interrelationship of the governmental and volunteer roles in the resettlement;
- (c) educational and cultural adjustments required by these efforts;

- (d) the general well-being of resettled refugees and their families in their new American communities; and
- (e) such other related concerns as the President may, from time to time, specify.

The Committee shall also seek to facilitate the location, solicitation and channeling of private resources for these resettlement efforts, and to establish lines of communication with all concerned governmental agencies, relevant voluntary agencies, the Vietnamese-American community and the American public at large.

Structure

The President's Advisory Committee on Refugees shall be composed of such citizens from private life as the President may, from time to time, appoint. The President shall designate one member of the Committee to serve as chairman. Members shall be invited to serve for the duration of the Committee. The chairman will designate a full-time federal employee to serve as executive secretary.

Meetings

Meetings shall be held as often as necessary at the call of the chairman, with the advance approval of a Government official. A Government official shall be present at all meetings. Meetings shall be open to the public except as determined otherwise by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare; notice of all meetings shall be given to the public. Meetings shall be conducted and records of the proceedings kept as required by applicable laws.

Compensation

Members of the Committee shall receive no compensation from the United States by reason of service on the Committee but may, to the extent permitted by law, be allowed travel expenses including per diem in lieu of subsistence, as authorized by law (5 USC 5703).

Annual Cost Estimate

Estimated annual cost for operating the Committee, including travel expenses for members, is $50,000. Estimate of annual manyears of staff support required is 2.0 at an estimated annual cost of $46,388.

Reports

In addition to such other reports as the President may require, the Committee shall submit to the President prior to its expiration a written report which shall contain as a minimum a list of members and their business addresses, the Committee's functions, dates and places of meetings, and a summary of the Committee's activities and recommendations. A copy of all reports shall be provided to the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

Termination

The Committee will terminate no later than May 18, 1976.

SPONSORS, your refugees look to you —

You are the link for them between their old life and their new.
Your Christian concern makes it possible for them to come.

WHO ARE THE REFUGEES?

They represent all types of people from all walks of life. Many of them are victims of oppression or calamity—who, like our own ancestors, seek a new life of freedom, opportunity and purpose in America.

SELECTION

Your church is represented through Church World Service and the World Council of Churches in a score of overseas countries where there are refugees with but one hope: a permanent home. Competent World Council of Churches staff members counsel these refugees and, where possible, help them prepare the considerable documentation required by our government from prospective immigrants. The CWS office in New York receives a dossier with background information and photograph on each applicant. These dossiers are carefully distributed among our cooperating national Protestant and Eastern Orthodox resettlement offices, which, in turn, arrange local sponsorships across the U.S.A. Each denominational resettlement office or its regional branch renders the very personal service which the "matching" of refugee and sponsor entails.

DO ENOUGH BUT NOT TOO MUCH

Once you know that a refugee or refugee family will be coming through your sponsorship, the biggest thing you can do is to help these people become established again so they can make their own decisions, make their own way, and make their own contribution in their new community.

THEY ARE PEOPLE OF DIGNITY AND WORTH

You can find at your public library books on the achievements, the heroes, the customs, the literature, the religious practices of the heritage to which your new arrivals belong. They, too, have been reading about life in the United States, our climate, geography, customs and churches.

Both you and they will be making realistic adjustments in the expectations of each other based on what you thought in advance and what they had dreamed about for so many years. With vision, imagination, strength, and patience you will achieve mutual understanding which is the key to successful resettlement.

PLANS FOR ARRIVAL

You will receive notice from CWS or your denominational headquarters giving expected date of arrival at port of entry and asking for inland transportation funds to be advanced at that time in order that all arrangements for their transportation can be made before they arrive. This notice usually reaches you two to four weeks in advance. Sometimes the refugees may write the good news to you before CWS is able to get it to you.

CWS will meet your people at the port of arrival (usually New York City for those coming from Europe and San Francisco for those coming from the Far East). Plan to meet them at your own local station. The arrivals from Europe usually speak their own language and frequently some German and a little English. If you can take someone with you to the station who can speak their native language, so much the better. Watch for their CWS badge. Learn to greet them by their names.

Boats and planes usually land in the morning. It often takes half the day to complete immigration formalities. If possible, CWS will put your new arrival on the train or bus the same day. To avoid an expensive stopover in New York, you therefore may be inconvenienced by an early morning or late night arrival.

SOMETHING OLD — SOMETHING NEW

New arrivals generally are mature people with considerable successful experience. They bring with them quite firm ideas about satisfying life's daily needs. You, too, know a great deal about meeting the problems of daily life in this country. Maybe all the solutions the new arrivals bring along are not appropriate or practical for new conditions in this country. In the main, it is wise to let them find this out for themselves. Encourage them to weigh and test. Maybe you, too, will learn new ways to do things, how to cook a tasty dish, or how to decorate a room with charm. They may at first appear to be "slow" only because of a language barrier.

LET THEM CONTRIBUTE

Your newcomers will have really "arrived" only when they have begun to contribute themselves. This means not only in their jobs, but also in the community. Find out if they have talents to use in a folk festival, a holiday celebration, a musical, dancing, culinary skills, arts and crafts, the life of the church.

HUMAN FACTORS

Sometimes, although not often, sponsors find that some advance information on their case was in error. This probably happened only because someone unintentionally misinterpreted what was said overseas.

Occasionally a newcomer family may wish to go to another city to be with relatives or friends. There is no way, of course, in which they can be held against their will. The sponsorship accepted by them is not a contract. But before encouraging them to move, it will be well for you to cooperate with them by finding out from a minister, a family service agency, or a Council of Churches in that locality whether there really is a place and a job for them. If they go to a new sponsor, you are immediately relieved of your own responsibilities. We suggest that if you are able to do more, you offer to take a substitute from your denominational refugee committee. Make the adjustment in a way fair to yourself as well as to your refugees.

Keep your temper, your humor, your love!

EMPLOYMENT

Help your new arrivals get their Social Security numbers. The address of your nearest Social Security office can be secured from the Post Office, or from the telephone book under: "U.S. Government, Department of Health, Education and Welfare."

Go with them, by public transportation, to their new jobs, explaining carefully and slowly about bus names, numbers, and letters, fares and transfers, starting and stopping points both coming and going. Write down on a slip of paper the location of job, bus route, address and phone where you can be reached.

Explain carefully their duties, hours, wages, pay-days, pay roll deductions, and everything pertinent to the job. They will want to know if they can join a company health insurance plan.

JOB PROMISE IS NOT A CONTRACT

Your new refugees have accepted the moral obligation to try their best to fulfill the jobs found for them. But they are free, by law, to improve their lot by accepting more favorable employment. Employers, too, by law, are free to hire or fire new arrivals under exactly the same conditions as any other employee.

CHURCH ATTENDANCE

Some new arrivals would like to attend your church, especially if it may be the only Protestant church in the vicinity. Take them with you. Invite them to group meetings at church. They may feel too shy at first to attend by themselves.

If they are members of a church not your own, make a definite appointment to take them to their own church. They should feel free to join the church of their own choice.

LEGAL FACTORS

The newcomers need to know their rights, privileges, and obligations, and how and when they may become citizens.

They have been furnished some information about their responsibilities to report addresses, register for the draft, carry alien registration cards if over 18 years. In routine matters, the nearest office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service of the U.S. Department of Justice may be consulted. Wherever helpful, suggest that people consult an immigrant welfare agency, like International Institutes, Foreign Secretaries of YWCA's or YMCA's, or write to your denominational headquarters which will consult with Church World Service. Explain our tax laws and procedures. There are laws in many states restricting aliens' rights to certain kinds of employment or public assistance. But, in many places, public spirited groups have worked to secure equal rights for citizens and aliens alike. We suggest you secure a copy of "How to Become a Citizen of the United States," American Council for Nationalities Service, 20 West 40 Street, New York, New York 10018.

SOCIAL SERVICES

If problems emerge, we suggest you consult your minister, or your Council of Churches, or Council of Social Welfare Agencies about local or nearby organizations which offer guidance and help to new arrivals.

Explain about medical services in the community and about health and hospitalization insurance.

EDUCATION

Help your new people enter the children at school; explain about school lunches. Help the adults find opportunity to learn English or improve their knowledge of it. Your public schools, YWCA or YMCA, or International Institute probably have classes. Your State University sometimes has correspondence courses in citizenship. And, of course, they should learn about libraries, museums, free lectures, etc. You will want to counsel and cooperate with your people about educational and vocational training, and other ways of improving themselves in this new land of freedom and opportunity.

Many sponsors and churches have found that working with and for a newcomer has brought real blessings and a broadening experience to the church and to the community. We are confident it will to you.

Persons or congregations desiring further information or wishing to explore the possibility of undertaking sponsorship of refugees should communicate with their National Denominational Resettlement Office.

Mr. Ingersoll asked that I pass
Mrs. Ferst's name along to you for consideration if any such presidential advisory committee is being formed.

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY
SECRETARY OF STATE

4/25

Mr. Ingersoll

Mrs. Robert Ferst (Jeanne Ferst), who said she met you in Atlanta, called this morning. She was in DC for a meeting of the Advisory Cmte on Voluntary Foreign Aid at AID and wanted to pop in to see you.

Her message is to say hello, but also to offer her services for any voluntary advisory committee which she understands may be formed for aid to VN refugees, or VN relief. She says she served on the Presidential advisory committee for aid to So. Asian relief (Bangladesh, I presume) and is "hooked" and would like to be of service in anyway possible.
