From: L. William Seidman

I. PURPOSE

- A. To discuss overall strategy for the International Economic Summit Conference.
- B. To review issues, objectives, and U.S. position on the major subject areas for discussion at the Summit.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS, AND PRESS PLAN

A. Background: Working groups, composed of members of the EPB and NSC, have prepared briefing materials on the major subject areas for discussion at the Summit. The papers were drafted through an interagency clearance process. The most recent drafts are in your book of briefing materials. Some minor changes will continue to be made in light of ongoing developments, particularly on monetary issues and energy.

This meeting is designed to discuss the overall strategy and posture the United States should take at the Summit as well as to review policy positions in each of the subject areas.

- B. Participants: Henry A. Kissinger, William E. Simon, L. William Seidman, Alan Greenspan, Brent Scowcroft, Arthur F. Burns, Frank G. Zarb
- C. Press Plan: White House Press Corps photo opportunity.
