President Gerald Ford
The White House
Washington, 25 D. C.

Dear Mr President

I know that you are a very busy man, but I hope you will read this letter. I think it was wrong of you to give a full pardon to Mr. Nixon. He resigned because he would have been impeached if he didn't resign. He admitted that he made many mistakes.

I think that Mr. Nixon should have been brought to trial. All people in our country should be able to look up to the President.

I am 11½ years old and I think that it is wrong for any one to cheat, steal or lie, especially people who run the country. Who can I look up to? You now make me feel that if I do wrong I should be excused also even if I am guilty of a crime.

Sincerely
Robert B. Zedvin
