

Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library and Museum

www.fordlibrarymuseum.gov

Library: 1000 Beal Ave., Ann Arbor, MI 48109
Museum: 303 Pearl Street, NW, Grand Rapids, MI 49504

(734) 205-0555 fax (734) 205-0571
(616) 254-0400 fax (616) 254-0386

Sarah Meiners Wins 2021 Gerald R. Ford Scholar Award in Honor of Robert M. Teeter

The Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library is proud to announce that Sarah Meiners has been chosen as the 2021 winner of the Gerald R. Ford Scholar Award in Honor of Robert M. Teeter. Ms. Meiners, a doctoral student in History at Cornell University, is completing her dissertation, Whose Children? The Making of the United States' Cold War Child Refugee Policy. This dissertation historically analyzes the United States' child refugee policy from approximately 1945 to 1995 by examining various child refugee populations from Europe, Asia, and the Caribbean.

This annual award of $5,000 is given to a doctoral student conducting dissertation research and writing on an aspect of the United States political process during the latter part of the 20th century. It was established in 2005 to honor the life and work of Robert Teeter. Mr. Teeter spent over thirty years as a leader in public opinion analysis and campaign strategy, including the 1976 campaign of President Gerald R. Ford. The majority of written materials from Mr. Teeter's career are part of the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library collection. This award has been made possible by the generous support of the Teeter family and friends, and his colleagues on the United Parcel Service Board of Directors.

The application deadline for next year's award is March 31, 2022. For more information, please visit the Ford Library's website at: <http://www.fordlibrarymuseum.gov/library/fsa.asp> or contact the Library at (734) 205-0555 or at ford.library@nara.gov.

Previous Recipients:

2020 – David Evans, University of Connecticut, Hunger for Rights: The Human Right to Food in the Post-War Era

2019 – Christian Ruth, University of Albany- SUNY, The Bitter World: Famine, Foreign Aid, and Development in the Cold War.

2018 - Kimberly Probolus, George Washington University, Separate and Unequal: The Rise of Gifted and Talented Programs in Boston, 1950-2000.

2017 – Susan Colbourn, University of Toronto, Defining Détente: NATO's Struggle for Identity, 1975-1984.

2016 – Timothy Crimmins, University of Chicago, The Fall of the Rehabilitative Ideal and Its Aftermath: Social Science, Penal Policy, and Mass Imprisonment after 1970.

2015 – Charles Halvorson, Columbia University, Pricing the Environment: Privileged Costs and the Legacy of Regulatory Reform.

2014 – Amanda Demmer, University of New Hampshire, 'The Last Chapter of the Vietnam War': Normalization, Non-governmental Actors and the Politics of Human Rights, 1975-1995.

2013 – Amanda Hughett, Duke University, Beyond the Prison Gates: Grassroots Activism and Criminal Justice Politics in North Carolina, 1968-1994.

2012 – Victor McFarland, Yale University, The Oil Crisis of the 1970s: An International History.

2011 – Brent Cebul, University of Virginia, Freedom From: Small Government, Big Government Policies, and the Rise of Blue Collar Republicans, 1970-1994.

2010 – Josh Mound, University of Michigan, Inflated Hopes, Taxing Times: The Politics of Economic Crisis in the Long 1970s.

2009 – Candace Sobers, University of Toronto, The Crisis of Decolonization, the Challenge of Intervention: Revolutionary Angola, 1968-1976.

2008 – Adam M. Saunders, University of Oxford, Power and the Welfare State: The Political Economy of American and British Unemployment Insurance Reform, 1964-1986.

2007 - Vanessa P. Walker, University of Wisconsin-Madison, Ambivalent Allies: Advocates, Diplomats, and the Struggle for Human Rights in Latin America.

2006 - Benjamin C. Waterhouse, Harvard University, Corporate Leaders and the Pro-Business Agenda in Modern American Politics.

2005 - Erika Franklin Fowler, University of Wisconsin-Madison, Party Images, Public Opinion, and Political Change.