Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Budget Review File, 1975-77.

(Boxes A1-A16, 7 linear feet)

This series contains memorandums, letters, spreadsheets, and other budget planning documents. The series documents the budget review process of the OMB during the two budget planning cycles of the Gerald R. Ford administration. The documents include materials related to the four main steps in the budget review process (Spring Planning Review, Director's Review, Presidential Review, and Budget Appeal). Not all departments and agencies are represented within this series. Also, some smaller agencies are grouped under the budget analyst's name, for example, ♦O'Neill's Small Agencies.

Arranged chronologically by fiscal year, thereunder by budget process step, thereunder alphabetically by department / agency name.

Chronological Correspondence File, 1974-77.

(Boxes C1-C19, 8.3 linear feet)

This series contains memorandums and letters compiled primarily during James

Lynn's service as Director of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). Correspondents in this series include the President, OMB colleagues, representatives of Federal agencies, Members of Congress, business leaders, and the press. The series includes memorandums to President Ford advising him on enrolled bills and proposed policy statements. Also included in the series are letters to Members of Congress and Federal agencies on OMB policies and legislation affecting the budget, often in response to the correspondent's requests for information on a specific topic. Copies of reports requested by the correspondents are sometimes attached to the correspondence.

Arranged chronologically.

1976 Presidential Campaign File, (1974) 1975-76.

(Boxes E1-E4, 1.8 linear feet)

This series contains material concerning the 1976 Presidential campaigns of Gerald Ford and Jimmy Carter. The bulk of the series consists of speech transcripts, press releases, campaign research statistics, and policy statements (with a slight emphasis on the economy), as well as background material and news clippings on both major candidates. A small amount of material relates to Republican primary candidate Ronald Reagan. Some of the material related to Carter was annotated to indicate that a cost estimate was to be supplied to the Ford Campaign to be used in Ford campaign speeches.

Arranged alphabetically by title.
