RE: Reagan's $90 Billion Plan

The single most radical and probably most detrimental aspect of his proposal is the total elimination of General Revenue Sharing. He is vulnerable on several fronts with this element of the plan.

1. The "miscalculation" pointed out in the recent Washington Post article by Richard Stout is symptomatic of the thoughtlessness or at best lack of care in projecting budget savings. It states that Reagan's Backgrounder One claimed a $7.2 Billion annual savings. This is just a "careless" $1 Billion error. The program is funded at $6 Billion per annum.

2. While Reagan was not out in front in 1971 he did support enactment of General Revenue Sharing and because population is a major formula factor its loss would be greatest in his home state California.

3. The elimination of the program would have immediate and severe effects in New Hampshire. To illustrate:

COPY TO RICHARD OGILVIE

Dear Dave:

I was pleased to learn that you are working for Ford instead of Reagan.

Enclosed is some information that may indicate Illinois Reagan people are about to violate campaign fund-raising laws later this week. My only hard information is the enclosed announcement of a 3-day, 75-dollar symposium at the Sheraton Oak Brook. However, the program description ("moral philosophy...methods of communicating") could also apply to a rip-roaring session to fire up Reagan campaign workers.

To illuminate the situation, I pose these questions:

(A) Why is the ICU doing this now, instead of gearing up the Reagan organization? I understand the ICU has been inactive the last few years but the American Conservative Union is strongly for Reagan. ACU may have lots of talent in Illinois now to "get ICU moving again."

(B) If some generous donor offered to purchase several hundred tickets that were not used, would his request be honored and if so, who would get the money?

(C) Given the distinction between hard political dollars, which only individuals may legally give to candidates, as opposed to soft political dollars that corporations may freely give to encourage economic and political education, might not this conference be an ideal vehicle for quietly converting soft corporate money into hard partisan Reagan money, in clear violation of law?

(D) How many individuals would really pay $75.00 for such a symposium, and what publicity effort has there actually been to maximize individual participation? I couldn't find any of the names in the symposium announcement in the phone book, but other sources indicate the ICU is at that Lombard address with the number 629-4300.

If we Ford people are able to prove hanky-panky it could be Watergate all over again for Reagan. In this situation the greatest thing working against the people putting on the symposium could be the relative inexperience of the ICU people, which may create tense relations between them and the national ACU professionals. Fast action by Ford people may be extremely important because all I have ever read about fund-raising events says to take the money and run, meaning proceeds will be disbursed and records may start to disappear the day after the conference. Hope that they use double entry book-keeping and leave behind a complete set of books for Ford people to audit.

Right or wrong about this Oak Brook meeting, I am eager to help President Ford, particularly in precinct organization. I expect you will start such work soon, and I hope to be in on it from the very beginning, including the training that you give to new precinct workers. Just as early money is important in campaigns, I believe early volunteers are also important--so I hope to become one.

I can be reached during the day at (312)-375-4310-xt.285 and after 6:30 PM at 965-1195.

Sincerely,

Mark H. Johnson

Conservative Forum

The national Conservative Political Action Conference, now an annual event co-sponsored by the American Conservative Union and Young Americans for Freedom, is looming on the horizon. The 1976 version of CPAC is scheduled for February 13-16 at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D.C. Conservative leaders from many fields will be participating in what promises to be a most important gathering for conservatives.

In keeping with an anti-inflationary policy, registration costs will remain at $65 for pre-registration and $75 after the first of February. There will also be a special student rate of $35. The number of attendees necessarily will be limited due to space limitations in the hotel. Consequently, interested persons are encouraged to register promptly. Send your name and registration fee to: '76 CPAC, 422 First Street, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20003.

Arizona Sen. Paul J. Fannin, the 68-year-old conservative Republican, announced last week that he will not seek re-election. He became the sixth senator to announce his retirement at the end of the current term. The others are: Philip Hart (D.-Mich.), Stuart Symington (D.-Mo.), John Pastore (D.-R.I.), Roman Hruska (R.-Neb.) and Hugh Scott (R.-Pa.).

FANNIN

Fannin, a three-term former governor of Arizona, succeeded Barry Goldwater when he resigned from the Senate to seek the presidency in 1964. He then went on to win a second term in 1970. Fannin is considered by many to be a leader among the conservatives in the Senate.

STEIGER

He cited the health of his wife, Elma, as a factor in his decision.

The retirement of Fannin is expected to set off a heated Republican primary fight between fellow conservatives Rep. John Conlan and Rep. Sam Steiger.

CONLAN

The Illinois Conservative Union, the Illinois affiliate of the American Conservative Union, and Mainspring are presenting a FEE seminar January 16-18, 1976, at the Sheraton Oak Brook in Oak Brook, Ill. The program is a symposium on the dynamics of the individual and the free market and will feature discussion of economic, political and moral philosophy as well as methods of communicating ideas. Registration is limited and the fee of $75 should be sent to Mrs. James R. Evans, 325 Eisenhower Lane, Lombard, Ill. 60148.

The United Conservatives of Ohio, ACU's Buckeye State affiliate, recently announced plans for an awards dinner to honor those members of the Ohio General Assembly who scored 80 per cent or higher on the 1975 legislative rating compiled by UCO. Scheduled for January 22 in Columbus, the featured speaker will be GOP Rep. Steve Symms of Idaho. Congressmen John Ashbrook and Tom Kindness, both Republicans of Ohio, will also be attending and hosting a special reception just prior to the dinner. Further details are available from UCO Executive Director Donald G. Thibaut, 83 S. High St., Suite 206, Columbus, Ohio, 43215.

William Rickenbacker and Lewis Uhler have formed a committee to work with citizen groups in the states to activate constitutional tax limitation. The National Tax Limitation Committee is a direct outgrowth of the Proposition One campaign in California. The committee will not support candidates nor take a partisan position but will work toward enacting constitutional tax limitations in the states.

The founders of the committee represent many of the finest minds in the conservative movement: Robert Carleson, former U.S. commissioner of welfare; George Champion, former chairman of the board of Chase Manhattan Bank; M. Stanton Evans, author and columnist; Milton Friedman, the well-known economist; Clare Boothe Luce, author; Frank Shakespeare, former director of the U.S. Information Agency; and Gen. Albert Wedemeyer, U.S. Army (Ret.). (National Tax Limitation Committee, 555 Capital Mall, Suite 703 Sacramento, Calif. 95814 or Box 1000, Briarcliff Manor, N.Y. 10510).

Liberal banker and newspaper magnate Joe L. Allbritton was granted the right by the Federal Communications Commission to purchase the Washington Star Communications Inc., its troubled newspaper and its lucrative broadcast properties.

Many thanks for your note.

I've turned this over to Bob Visser, our General Counsel, who works very closely with the F.E.C. as they are definitely on the look-out for this type of thing. However, I think we both know the answer.

Dear Mimi:

During 1973, Mike Deaver's public relations firm in Los Angeles spent thousands of dollars to compile a GOP profile in each state with special interest in delegate selection.

It would be very interesting to find out if that expenditure appears on Reagan's finance reports, especially the expenditure in New Hampshire.

[Feb. 1976?]

One of the biggest myths in American politics is the image of Ronald Reagan as a tight-fisted fiscal conservative.

In reality, Reagan was the biggest taxpayer and spender of any governor in California's history.

Lou Cannon, a political writer for the Washington Post and author of a Reagan biography, wrote in a recent article:

"At times Reagan seems to be the various things his advocates and his adversaries say about him. What Reagan says and what Reagan does are frequently contradictory. And he left a conflicting legacy after two four-year terms in the governorship."

Nowhere are the Reagan rhetoric and the Reagan record in more conflict than in the field of fiscal policy.

Let's compare the rhetoric and the record.

A letter from Sen. Paul Laxalt, R-Nevada, who is chairman of Citizens for Reagan, set the theme of the campaign.

The senator said Reagan would tell the American people "that as governor of California he was successful in:

--creating and returning an $850 million surplus to the California taxpayers.

--keeping the size of the California state government constant.

--originating and signing a massive tax relief bill which resulted in a $378 million saving to California's property owners and a $110 million saving to renters."

That's the rhetoric. In detail, let's look at the record.

Q. What about the Reagan campaign claim that as governor, he created and returned an $850 million surplus to the California taxpayers?"

A. The $850 million surplus was not the result of any savings in state government. Rather, it was a serious miscalculation. In 1967, Reagan, in effect, 'overtaxed' Californians through an enormous $943 million tax increase. While the tax increase was permanent, the rebate was a one-shot temporary form of relief in 1969 -- the year preceding his bid for reelection.

Q. And the claim of a "massive tax relief bill which resulted in a $378 million saving to property owners and a $110 million saving to renters?"

A. This was in no way the result of sound management of the state. The property tax relief was achieved by other federal and state revenues. Specifically, they were a federal revenue sharing surplus, a major increase in the state sales tax and a strong business climate.

Q. What about the Reagan campaign boast that he kept "the size of California state government constant?"

A. Under Reagan, the state budget more than doubled in eight years from $4.6 billion to $10.2 billion. The number of state employees increased from 113,779 in 1967 to 127,929 in 1975.

Q. Yes, but don't inflation and the growth of California's population contribute to that budget increase?

A. Doubtless they do. But it is significant to note that under Reagan the state budget increased an average of 12.2% yearly. Under his successor, Edmund G. Brown, Jr., the increase has been 6%. And while California's population grew 1% a year during Reagan's eight-year administration, it grew 3% a year during the 14 preceding years under Governors Edmund G. Brown, Sr. and Goodwin J. Knight.

Q. How did Reagan balance the state budget during those years that it more than doubled? By practicing fiscal economies?

A. By no means. Under Reagan, there were three huge tax increases totalling more than $2 billion. In 1967, there was an increase of $967 million -- the largest state tax hike in the nation's history. Of this, $280 million went for a one-time deficit payment and future property tax relief. In 1971, the increase was $488 million with $150 million for property tax relief. In 1972, the increase was $682 million with $650 million for property tax relief. Much of this property tax relief was short term. But the overall tax increases were permanent.

Q. How was this money raised?

A. By all sorts of taxes. State personal income tax revenues went from $500 million to $2.5 billion, a 500% increase. Top bracket levies were increased from 7% to 11%. The size of the brackets was reduced so that taxpayers reached the highest bracket more quickly. And personal exemptions were reduced. Finally, after adamantly denying he would ever do so, the governor agreed to a system of withholding state income taxes.

Bank and corporation taxes went up 100%. The state sales tax rose from 4% to 6%. The tax on cigarettes went up 7 cents a pack and the liquor tax rose 50 cents per gallon. Inheritance tax rates also were increased and collections more than doubled.

Q. But didn't taxpayers benefit from local property tax relief?

A. Hardly. Under Reagan, the average tax rate for each $100 of assessed valuation rose from $8.84 to $11.15. Under predecessor Pat Brown the increase was much less in dollars and percentage -- from $6.96 to $8.84. And in the six years of Republican Knight's administration it was still less -- from $5.94 to $6.96. One reason for the big increase under Reagan -- from $3.7 billion to $8.3 billion -- is that the state paid a steadily smaller percentage of school costs -- one of the biggest reasons for local property taxes.

Despite periodic efforts to provide relief, there has been a substantial increase in the burden carried by most property owners. Inflation and higher assessments have helped wipe out any savings. Only $855 million of the record $10.2 billion budget in Reagan's final year was for tax relief for homeowners and renters.

Q. What did Reagan have to say about all this spending?

A. Nothing very consistent. In his first inaugural message on January 5, 1967, he said "we are going to squeeze and cut and trim until we reduce the cost of government."

On July 9, 1967, he said in a televised speech that as long as California grows in population and as long as the country is in an inflationary spiral "we will have a record breaking budget every year....and that is roughly 8%."

On Oct. 2, 1967, Reagan was asked in Milwaukee about his comment that he balanced the budget without new taxes. He replied: "We raised the old ones about $1 billion."

Q. Many of Reagan's supporters claim that the reason for the huge budget increases in his administration was because of increases in assistance to local governments?

A. That's true. And under the same logic, we could eliminate about $60 billion from the federal budget spent for assistance to the states. Extending that bookkeeping system to foreign aid and assistance to individuals, nearly three-fourths of the federal budget could be disregarded. If Reagan is going to continue to criticize the growth of the federal budget, he has to accept similar criticism on the growth of California's budget while he was governor. He can't have it both ways.

Bob:

A lot of Reagan's material has on it simply, "Paid for by Citizens for Reagan - Chairman, Senator Paul Laxalt." We have a much longer disclaimer.

Also, there's a great deal of information that he has going out that has no disclaimer at all.

I think it would be good for you to get a copy of some of these and see if there is any legitimate grounds for a strong complaint.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION SHOWS FAVORITISM TO REAGAN: Two days after it was announced that Rogers C. Morton was leaving his cabinet post to become a leader of President Ford's campaign, Commission Chairman Thomas B. Curtis announced that Ford would be in violation of Federal Election Commission guidelines if Morton remains on the federal payroll. Two days??? FIVE MONTHS AGO we submitted charges to the FEC against Ronald Reagan. The commission answered that they forwarded the complaint to the Reagan Campaign, and they had ten days to answer. The Commission would keep us informed of the action they were taking. We have never heard another word!! Does Ronald Reagan control former Republican Congressman Thomas B. Curtis and the other members of the Federal Election Commission???

We charged that sponsors of his daily radio program were actually donating to Reagan's Presidential campaign, and also the dollars spent for air time should be charged against his allowable campaign expenditures.

TELEVISION STATION KCET, CHANNEL 28, is sending out a letter over the signature of one Colin Barraclough soliciting fifteen dollars for the station and offering some rather interesting reasons for so doing. Mr. Barraclough starts off by saying "of all the television stations in the area, one belongs to you." In case one is still in doubt, he points out the station in question is none other than KCET and as there are no "commercial sponsors" the station belong to "its viewing public."

Those giving money to KCET are called "members" by the station and as such have the right to give fifteen dollars or more each and every year and to keep their mouths shut as far as station policy and programing are concerned. For what Mr. Barraclough fails to point out is the "members" of Channel 28 are no more than donors to a charity, if that. The station's board of directors is chosen by a process known only to themselves. The programing they provide is what might be called middle-brow arts and crafts.

KCET presents no regular evening news. Live or tape coverage from such places as Southern California city councils, boards of supervisors, school boards, and legislative committees is almost unheard of. Even national public affairs programing is canceled if the station is conducting one of its interminable auctions. This in spite of the fact that the Watergate hearings brought to the station its largest audience. What KCET has in the way of entertainment comes from the British Broadcasting Corporation or the Independent Television (I.T.V.) commercial network of England by way of Boston. Locally, when was the last time the Philharmonic or one of the many local symphony orchestras performed on Channel 28?

Any viewer, save one who is non compos mentis, knows what the words Mobile, Exxon, and Atlantic-Richfield mean and if these are not "commercial sponsors" the words have lost all meaning. The time has come for the spoon-fed culture vultures who control KCET to level with the people they ask to donate to their station. How about broadcasting in full the meetings of the board of directors? Why not choose the board at public meetings of the "membership"? What about the station trying to take over one of the local Very High Frequency (V.H.F.) channels--numbers two through thirteen--and becoming truly public in every sense of the word?

A NEW BOOK ABOUT J. EDGAR HOOVER indicates that not every U.S. President shared Hoover's outrage over the sexual transgressions of administration figures.

Ovid Demares, in his book The Director, quotes President John Kennedy's appointments secretary, Kenneth O'Donnell, on one Hoover incident.

According to O'Donnell, Hoover repeatedly tried to interest J.F.K. in the fact that

Mr. & Mrs. Edward F. Fry
5315 First St. N.W.
Washington, D. C. 20011

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Fry:

I asked Congressman Vander Jagt, Chairman of the National Republican Congressional Committee if I could write to you today about a serious and urgent matter.

Frankly, the Republican Party needs your renewed financial support in the 1976 Congressional elections as never before.

Make no mistake about it. Liberal Democratic candidates and their political allies such as the AFL-CIO's COPE, are already amassing a huge war chest in D. C. and across the nation for their drive to maintain their 2 to 1 control of Congress.

Union reports filed in Washington show big labor has already raised over $4,000,000 in ready cash. When their "official" election fundraising drive begins later this year, they expect to amass 29 millions of additional dollars. Most of which will be used against conservative Republican candidates.

I don't believe we can break this liberal Democratic stranglehold unless you help the Committee in it's effort to elect responsible candidates who stand up for fiscal sanity, the free market system and a strong U. S. military defense.

As you know, Democrats have controlled Congress lock, stock, and barrel for 40 of the past 44 years. There isn't one penny spent by your government that hasn't been mandated by the Democrat majority. No bureaucrat has been hired, no rule or regulation has been issued without approval by the Democrat majority in Congress.

They have caused galloping inflation which wipes out your savings and your buying power. They have enthusiastically voted for every spending bill that has produced the highest Federal budget deficits in our history.

In 1975, the Democrats introduced bills to nationalize our oil industry, to allocate our energy supply and to sharply reduce our military defenses that, in my opinion, would jeopardize the very safety of this country.

Mr. & Mrs. Edward F. Fry

In order to return control of Congress to the Republicans, the Congressional Committee has established a comprehensive program and launched a special emergency fund drive.

The immediate need for funds is critical because the Committee must raise a minimum of $750,000 in early money to make cash contributions to candidates and fund political action programs Republican candidates need for victory in 1976.

This emergency fund, if raised, will be used to defeat entrenched Democrats in Congress and to elect and reelect Republicans who will support the programs designed to stop inflation and recession.

I know from talking with hundreds of Republicans at meetings across the country, that the Committee's support is invaluable. There are many Republicans sitting in Congress today who owe their election to the efforts of this important and hard-hitting Committee.

It's time for a fundamental change in Washington that can only come from a Republican Congress.

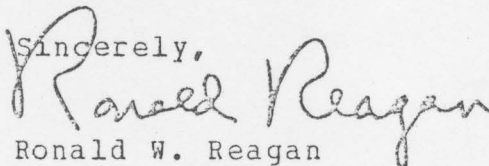

Thanks to the Democrats, welfare, like government spending, has gotten out of hand; programs such as food stamps have become a national disgrace; a bloated government bureaucracy, with its endless rules and regulations, harasses our citizens and threatens to bury business in a sea of red tape.

The situation in Washington is critical. But no change can, or will, be made without your financial help and support.

I hope, therefore, you will respond today to my special appeal by sending a contribution for as much as $25 or more.

If the Committee can reach this goal, it will help us defeat entrenched liberal Democrats and elect Republicans who will oppose the shocking abuses I have mentioned.

If you want to help offset union domination of the upcoming Congressional election, I strongly urge you to support the Committee's fund-raising effort.

Sincerely,

Ronald W. Reagan

P.S.

At my request Congressman Vander Jagt enclosed a contribution form and a reply envelope for your use, Mr. & Mrs. Fry. I have asked him to give me a list of donors who respond and I certainly hope your name is on this list.

I want to help . . .

Attached are the Citizens for Reagan Report of Receipts and Expenditures, Detailed Summary Schedule of Receipts and Expenditures and Allocation of Primary Expenditures by State (covering 1/1--1/31/76).

These reports indicate that Reagan raised $882,946.99 * during the month of January. At the time of his last report, December 31, 1975, the Reagan Committee had $416,723.48 on hand. During the month of January, the Reagan Committee spent $1,250,123.84 and had accrued debts of $635,418.39. Accordingly, the Reagan Committee indicates that cash on hand for January 31, 1976 was $53,156.63. However, when viewed in the perspective of debts and obligations owed by the Reagan Committee, they are approximately $550,000 in debt.

It is obvious that the Reagan Committee is spending money based on its matching funds submissions. Thus, Reagan has submitted $663,000 for matching payments. As of this date, none of these funds have been verified by the Audit and Investigation Division of the FEC. This leads one to believe that the Reagan Committee's accounting procedures and its method of submitting matching funds to the FEC leaves something to be desired.

* The Reagan Report indicates that this sum includes $100,000 of matching funds.

RE: REAGAN ACTIVITY -- NEW HAMPSHIRE

The following facts, based on a review of Reagan's FEC reports, lead us to believe that Reagan may be close to his New Hampshire expenditure limits:

- | | | |
|----|---------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| 1. | Itemized expenses to N.H. addresses in 1975 Reports | $ 58,617.22 |
| 2. | Itemized expenses to N.H. addresses in Jan. 1976 Report | 20,157.00 |
| 3. | Allocated Primary expenditures listed for N.H. in Jan., 1976 Report | 49,623.47 |

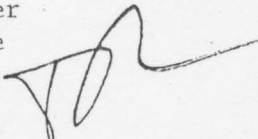

Accordingly, Reagan's allocated January expenses in New Hampshire were $2\frac{1}{2}$ times the itemized January expenditures (\$20,157 compared to \$49,633). Using this same ratio for pre-January expenses, which may not be a viable assumption, it would appear that Reagan's allocated 1975 expenses in New Hampshire were approximately \$144,000. Thus, based on these facts and the assumption that the same ratio existed pre-January for Reagan expenditures, it appears that as of January 31, 1976, Citizens for Reagan had spent approximately 190,000 for its New Hampshire campaign.

FROM: Tim Ryan

RE: REAGAN ACTIVITY -- NEW HAMPSHIRE

The following facts, based on a review of Reagan's FEC reports, lead us to believe that Reagan may be close to his New Hampshire expenditure limits:

- | | | |
|----|---------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| 1. | Itemized expenses to N.H. addresses in 1975 Reports | $ 58,617.22 |
| 2. | Itemized expenses to N.H. addresses in Jan. 1976 Report | 20,157.00 |
| 3. | Allocated Primary expenditures listed for N.H. in Jan., 1976 Report | 49,623.47 |

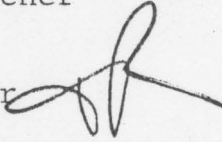

Accordingly, Reagan's allocated January expenses in New Hampshire were 2½ times the itemized January expenditures ($20,157 compared to $49,633). Using this same ratio for pre-January expenses, which may not be a viable assumption, it would appear that Reagan's allocated 1975 expenses in New Hampshire were approximately $144,000. Thus, based on these facts and the assumption that the same ratio existed pre-January for Reagan expenditures, it appears that as of January 31, 1976, Citizens for Reagan had spent approximately 190,000 for its New Hampshire campaign.

RE: REAGAN -- January 31, 1976 FEC Report

Attached are the Citizens for Reagan Report of Receipts and Expenditures, Detailed Summary Schedule of Receipts and Expenditures and Allocation of Primary Expenditures by State (covering 1/1--1/31/76).

These reports indicate that Reagan raised $882,946.99 * during the month of January. At the time of his last report, December 31, 1975, the Reagan Committee had $416,723.48 on hand. During the month of January, the Reagan Committee spent $1,250,123.84 and had accrued debts of $635,418.39. Accordingly, the Reagan Committee indicates that cash on hand for January 31, 1976 was $53,156.63. However, when viewed in the perspective of debts and obligations owed by the Reagan Committee, they are approximately $550,000 in debt.

It is obvious that the Reagan Committee is spending money based on its matching funds submissions. Thus, Reagan has submitted $663,000 for matching payments. As of this date, none of these funds have been verified by the Audit and Investigation Division of the FEC. This leads one to believe that the Reagan Committee's accounting procedures and its method of submitting matching funds to the FEC leaves something to be desired.

* The Reagan Report indicates that this sum includes $100,000 of matching funds.

TO: BO CALLAWAY
FROM: BRUCE WAGNER
SUBJECT: REAGAN MEDIA SPENDING

We have estimated Ronald Reagan's media spending for New Hampshire and Florida(attached).

A couple of observations:

1. Reagan is outspending the PFC in both states by a 2:1 dollar ratio.
2. Generally speaking, he is running his paid schedules longer at significantly higher levels of pressure.
3. The primary difference appears in the use of television -- although Reagan is spending more than the PFC in radio, the biggest difference is in the area of his television weight.

Although these data are strictly estimates based on conversations with station representatives, I think it's fair to say that the Reagan paid media effort is just about twice the dollar value of what we are executing on behalf of the President.

Although these estimates will not be specifically relevant to state spending limitation questions (because they are only estimates), these data indicate things to watch for as the formal spending reports are filed.

Please let me know if you wish to discuss.

open to the public? As drafted, the regulation requires a closed hearing unless the respondent requests that it be open.

2. If a hearing requested by a respondent in a compliance action is closed, should the complainant be present at the closed hearing? No provision is currently made for this contingency.

3. Should there be public disclosure of the results of an investigation after the investigation has terminated? Section 115.14 of the regulations sets forth a procedure for informing the public of the results of an investigation and of any ensuing Commission action. The disclosure is in summary form, and does not identify the parties involved. Consideration should be given to whether or not a more detailed description can and should be made after the close of the investigatory process. Comment should be directed to the legality of such disclosure and, assuming its legality, the manner and timing of such disclosure.

Hearings on the proposed regulations will be held on Wednesday, February 11, 1976, at 10:00 a.m. at the Federal Election Commission, 1325 K Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20463. Persons interested in testifying should call Susan King at (202) 382-5338.

All comments on the proposed regulations should be addressed to the Rule-making Section, Federal Election Commission, 1325 K Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20463.

§ 115.2 Filing.

Any person who believes that a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. § 431, et seq., or 18 U.S.C. §§ 608, 610, 611, 613, 614, 615, 616, or 617, or 26 U.S.C., Chapters 95 and 96 of Title 11, has occurred may file a complaint with the Federal Election Commission, 1325 K Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20463.

- (3) Include his or her business or residential address and telephone number in the complaint.

(b) Each complaint shall:

- (1) Name the person complained against (hereinafter respondent);
- (2) Describe in detail the alleged violation or violations; and
- (3) Be submitted together with copies of evidence available to the complainant.

§ 115.4 Initial review of complaint.

(a) If the Assistant Staff Director for Disclosure and Compliance, or the Assistant Staff Director's designee, determines that the complaint lacks sufficient information, the complainant shall be so notified and shall be given 15 days to amend the complaint.

(b) If the Assistant General Counsel and the Assistant Staff Director determine that a complaint is not within the Commission's jurisdiction, the action shall be dismissed or referred to another Government agency whichever is appropriate. The complainant shall be notified of such determination.

(c) If the complainant fails to request review of a determination by the Commission under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section within 15 days after receiving notice as to the Commission's determination, stating why the complainant believes the determination is incorrect, the complaint shall be dismissed or referred as appropriate.

(d) If the complainant does so advise the Commission the Staff Director and the General Counsel shall review the initial decision. If they believe the initial decision is in error, the Assistant Staff Director will investigate the matter in accordance with the procedures set forth herein. If they rule the initial decision correct the matter will be referred to the Commission.

(e) The Commission shall: (1) Affirm the dismissal or referral, as appropriate;

(2) Remand the complaint to the Staff Director and the General Counsel for further consideration.

(f) The Commission shall notify the complainant in writing after the disposition of the matter on review.

reasonable period after a valid complaint is received. The respondent shall also be notified of his/her right to a hearing.

(b) Notification of discovery of possible violation. In all other cases, the Commission, when it receives sufficient evidence to justify a belief that a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. § 431, et seq., or 18 U.S.C. §§ 608, 610, 611, 613, 614, 615, 616 or 617 or of 26 U.S.C., Chapters 95 and 96 of Title 11, has occurred, the Commission shall send the respondents a "Notice of Possible Violation" by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested. At the same time, the respondent will be notified of his/her right to a hearing.

(c) Any notification or investigation made under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section shall not be made public until the respondent expressly gives written permission.

§ 115.6 Reply by respondent.

(a) The respondent will be allowed 10 days after receiving the "Notice of Alleged Violation" or "Notice of Possible Violation" to respond in writing to the allegations in the compliance action (complaint or notification under § 115.5 (a) or (b)). The respondent may request an extension of time by filing a timely written request with the Commission. The Commission may, on its own motion in an exceptional case, upon appropriate notice to the respondent, shorten the time period for response.

(b) The response to the compliance action shall be addressed to the Assistant Staff Director for Disclosure and Compliance at the Federal Election Commission, 1325 K Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20463; and

(c) The respondent or the authorized representative thereof shall sign and notarize the response.

(d) Any hearing requested shall, at the conclusion of any appropriate investigation, be scheduled for a date to be determined by the Commission.

§ 115.7 Dismissal before hearing; review of dismissals.

(a) If, after reviewing the complaint and response, the Assistant Staff Director with the advice of the Assistant General Counsel determines that the compliance action is without merit, the complainant shall be notified of such a determination, and of the right to review under paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) If the complainant fails to request a review of a determination as set out in paragraph (a) of this section by writing to the Commission within 15 days after receiving notice of dismissal, and stating why the complainant believes the determination was incorrect, the complaint shall be dismissed.

(c) If the complainant does so advise the Commission, the Staff Director and the General Counsel shall review the initial decision. If they believe the initial decision is in error, they will direct the Assistant Staff Director to investigate the matter in accordance with the procedures set forth below. If they believe the initial decision to be correct, the matter will be referred to the Commission.

(d) The Commission shall: (1) Affirm the dismissal; or

(2) Remand the complaint to the Staff Director and the General Counsel for further consideration.

(e) The Commission shall notify the complainant and respondent in writing as to the disposition of the matter on review.

§ 115.8 Referrals to Attorney General.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(2)(A) the Commission, in appropriate cases, upon receiving information regarding a possible violation of the Act, whether by formal complaint or otherwise, may report such possible violation to the Attorney General.

§ 115.9 Investigations.

(a) Appropriate inquiry will be initiated by the Commission with respect to each compliance action, including any complaint not dismissed under § 115.7.

(b) If a complaint is filed under § 115.2 and § 115.3 above by another candidate, the investigation shall include an investigation of the reports and statements filed by the complainant-candidate and his or her authorized committees.

(c) Each inquiry under paragraph (a) of this section may be conducted with regard to each candidate for the Federal office sought by the respondent.

§ 115.10 Post-investigation Commission action.

(a) If the respondent has not requested a hearing, the Commission shall appoint a panel of two Commissioners not affiliated with the same political party to review the investigative report, including any communications from the respondent, and to determine whether there is sufficient evidence to justify the belief that an apparent violation has occurred. Where the panel finds there is insufficient evidence, the panel shall recommend to the full Commission that the compliance action be closed. In those cases where the panel determines that there is evidence sufficient to justify the belief that an apparent violation has occurred, the panel may direct the staff to attempt to correct the apparent violation by informal methods of conferences, conciliation and persuasion. These informal corrective endeavors shall be pursued confidentially.

(b) Where a settlement cannot be concluded to the satisfaction of the Commission the bipartisan panel may, after giving notice to the full Commission:

(1) Refer the matter to the Department of Justice;

(2) Direct the General Counsel to seek compliance in an appropriate Federal court.

(c) No panel directive under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section will be effective until 48 hours after the panel notifies the full Commission, unless the Commission meets and affirmatively adopts the recommendation. If any Commissioner objects to the directive within 48 hours after being so notified, the matter shall be placed on the agenda for discussion at the next meeting of the full Commission.

(d) If a panel is unable to reach a decision under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section, the matter shall be referred to the full Commission for consideration at its next meeting.

§ 115.11 Procedure at close of hearing.

(a) If the respondent requests a hearing under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4), the hearing shall take place before:

(1) The full Commission; or

(2) A designated panel of two Commissioners not affiliated with the same political party; or

(3) A single hearing officer, as the Commission considers appropriate. (Collectively referred to as the presiding officer.)

(b) The hearings shall be considered investigatory and not adjudicatory, and, in keeping with the Act's confidentiality requirement regarding investigations, shall not be open to the public without the written consent of the respondent.

(c) The hearings shall be conducted consistent with the concepts of fairness embodied in the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. § 551 et seq., with regard to adjudicatory hearings.

(d) A verbatim transcript of the hearing will be made. The record of the hearings shall consist of the transcript and any written statements or materials submitted during the hearing.

(e) Each witness shall testify only under oath.

§ 115.12 Post hearing procedure.

(a) In exercising its discretion as to whether there is reasonable cause to believe that an apparent violation has been established, and, if so, what further action regarding the apparent violation should be taken, the presiding officer shall consider all matters contained in the record.

(b) (1) If the full Commission conducts the hearing and determines that no apparent violation has been established, the Commission shall issue an order dismissing the compliance action and shall notify the respondent.

(2) If the full Commission conducts the hearing and concludes that a violation has occurred or is about to occur, the Commission shall direct the staff to attempt to correct the situation by informal methods of conference, conciliation and persuasion. Where a settlement cannot be concluded to the satisfaction of the Commission, the Commission shall:

(i) Direct the General Counsel to seek compliance in the appropriate Federal court; or

(ii) Refer the matter to the Department of Justice for civil or criminal prosecution.

(c) If the hearing has been conducted by a two Commissioner panel as set forth in § 115.10 or by a hearing officer, a recommendation for further Commission action, including dismissal of the compliance action, shall be transmitted as soon as practicable to the full Commission. A copy of the recommendation shall be simultaneously transmitted to the respondent.

§ 115.13 Review of hearing held before administrative law judge or bipartisan panel of Commissioners.

(a) Within 7 working days after receipt by the Commission of the recommendation under § 115.12(c), the respondent may petition the Commission for review of the recommendation. The respondent may request an extension of time by filing a timely written request with the Commission. The Commission shall notify the respondent within 2 working days as to whether the extension is granted. The Commission may, on its own motion in exceptional cases, upon appropriate notification, shorten the time period for filing a petition for review.

(b) If a respondent petitions for review, the Commission shall review the record of proceeding within a reasonable time. The Commission may affirm, reverse, or modify the recommendation as, in its opinion, the evidence indicates, and issue an appropriate directive to the Commission staff.

(c) If the respondent does not file a petition for review and if no Commissioner requests a Commission meeting to discuss the recommendation made by the two Commissioner panel or hearing officer, the recommendation so made becomes final at the close of the period in paragraph (a) of this section. The staff shall thereupon implement the recommendation.

§ 115.14 Public disclosure.

(a) Within 45 days after the Commission has closed a compliance action, a summary of the compliance action shall be released to the public. The summary shall not disclose the identities of the parties initiating the action or the parties with respect to whom the investigation was made, without the written consent of the party to be identified.

(b) Disclosure will not be made with respect to cases referred to the United States Department of Justice until such time as the Department initiates appropriate court action or determines the case does not merit prosecution.

Reagan is supposed to make full financial disclosure on Tuesday. We should look it over carefully and quickly to:

1. See if it matches detail of the President's.
2. Determine weak spots such as his income from radio and TV and lecture fees, tax loopholes, and discrepancies with campaign financial statements.

We can get something out, but only after someone runs this stuff down.

MEMORANDUM

February 27, 1976

TO: Bo Callaway
Stu Spencer
Peter Kaye

FROM: Tim Ryan

RE: Financial Disclosure Statement Issued by Ronald Reagan

Lawyers in the Tax Department of my ex-firm have analyzed Reagan's financial disclosure statement, copy attached.

Generally, they have determined, if the financial statement is correct, Mr. Reagan is paying taxes typical or higher than persons in his income bracket would normally pay when represented by adequate tax counsel. However, after reviewing his real estate, trust, bond and common stock assets, they believe that his total adjusted gross income per Federal returns plus non-taxable income during the years 1970 through 1974, and in particular, 1970 and 1971, are extraordinarily low for a man with his financial background and assets. They suggest that Mr. Reagan most likely has a number of irrevocable trusts for his children. In that way, income derived from such trusts would not be reported by Mr. Reagan but would be reported by his children on their tax returns. Their final remark in this regard was, "We'd love to see his kids' tax returns".

Notwithstanding the above, and realizing the obvious political benefits, the lawyers stated that with some assurance they feel comfortable in noting that Reagan paid less than 20 percent of his total income in taxes during the years 1970 through 1974. In 1975, his estimated tax is substantially higher than that percentage. In fact, if the $119,332 estimate for taxes paid in 1975 is accurate, he will pay this year almost as much in taxes on an income of $282,253 as he paid in the four previous years on income of $528,518.

In addition, the tax lawyers have noted that if their understanding of Mr. Reagan's 1970 State tax returns is correct, that is, no State taxes paid that year, they believe that in that year he most likely paid no Federal taxes because the same tax base is used for Federal taxes ~~because~~ used for California taxes. If this is of great interest, more in-depth research of the California State income taxes should be done immediately.

Finally, utilizing the same form as used in the president's income and tax information disclosure statement, the following total tax paid as a percentage of the total adjusted gross income plus non-taxable income exists for the President and Mr. Reagan:

Year	All Taxes As Percentage of Gross Income
	Ronald Reagan	Gerald R. Ford
1970	16%	41%
1971	19	34-1/2
1972	24	36
1973	25	39
1974	36	42
