III. TALKING POINTS

1. Good afternoon. I am very happy today to be signing two bills -- the Equal Credit Opportunity Amendments of 1976 and the Consumer Leasing Act of 1976.
2. The Equal Credit Opportunity Amendments of 1976 would amend Title VII of the Consumer Credit Protection Act, which banned credit discrimination because of sex or marital status, to include discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin and age.
3. This Administration is very committed to the goal of equal opportunity in every area of our society.
4. Last November 20th in a statement directed at discriminatory conduct against Americans that might arise from foreign boycott practices, I stated my support for legislation to amend the Consumer Credit Protection Act. Today it is a great pleasure for me to sign this bill.
5. Leasing of automobiles and other durable goods for consumer use as an alternative to installment credit is on the rise. The Consumer Leasing Act of 1976 would amend the 1968 Truth in Lending Act to extend to lease contracts the disclosure and protection requirements imposed on credit transactions.
6. An important goal of this Administration is to make the Federal government more responsive to the needs of the American consumer.
7. In line with this, almost one year ago I directed the seventeen Federal departments and agencies to examine the efforts they were making to represent the consumer in their agencies' decisions and activities and to draw up Consumer Representation Plans, which are now in their final stages.
8. Last July I met with the Commissioners of the ten independent regulatory commissions to discuss the importance of regulatory reform and to urge the commissions to increase the representation of consumer interests in the agency proceedings.
9. I have also endorsed and signed into law legislation to repeal the "fair trade" laws; signed into law the extension of the Council on Wage and Price Stability through Fiscal Year 1977; signed into law the Securities Act Amendments of 1975; submitted and signed into law the Railroad Revitalization and Regulatory Reform Act of 1976; submitted the Aviation Act and the Motor Carrier Reform Act; and resubmitted the Financial Institutions Act.
10. These bills add to a growing list of steps this Administration has taken in the last year to help give all consumers a fairer shake -- to make our country a more equitable, a more just place to live for all Americans.

Dear Mr. President,

The Joint Committee on Arrangements is planning ceremonies to commemorate the contributions of Thomas Jefferson to our social and political systems. A Joint Meeting of the House and Senate has been planned, and we hope that several distinguished scholars will address the two Bodies.

We understand that you may participate in some type of activity at the Jefferson Memorial on the same day, April 13. If so, the Joint Committee wishes to suggest that, if appropriate, this ceremony be coordinated with the signing of the proposed legislation that would designate the Library of Congress Annex, the "Library of Congress Thomas Jefferson Building."

Your interest in Thomas Jefferson is well known, and we feel that the signing of this Bill on April 13, would be very appropriate. If this is a possibility, the Joint Committee will encourage the appropriate Committees to expedite consideration of the legislation, S. 2920.

Sincerely,

Lindy
