FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APRIL , 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today declared an emergency for the State of North Dakota because of the impact of severe flooding beginning about March 20, 1976. The President's action will permit the use of Federal funds in the provision of temporary housing for those families who have lost their homes as a result of the severe flooding.

Federal relief activities in North Dakota will be coordinated by the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration, Department of Housing and Urban Development, under the direction of Administrator Thomas P. Dunne. Mr. Dunne will designate the specific areas within the State eligible for Federal assistance, based upon Federal and State damage assessments.

Mr. Donald G. Eddy, Regional Director of the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration, HUD Region VIII, will be designated as the Federal Coordinating Officer to work with the State in providing Federal emergency assistance under the Disaster Relief Act of 1974, Public Law 93-288.

Nancy Kennedy called at 11:00 to tell me that this disaster notification had to be done today. However, the President was planning to announce it today in Oregon at 1:00 p.m. our time. Rep. Won Pat also had to be notified before he left for Guam today. I told her that I hesitated to make any notification before the President and she agreed. She put me on hold and checked with Max.

She said Max said to make this notification beginning at 1:00 p.m. I then brought this to the attention of Pat and told him of the situation so he would be informed.

the congressman
At 1:05 I called the Congressman's office and spoke with Mike Kuhlman who gave me his home phone number (588-6005). The Number was busy and at 1:10 p.m. I reached the Congressman and gave him the information. He asked if I would call Mike Kuhlman back and I did. Mike mentioned that he had been called at 1:00 p.m. by Mr. Hannum, of the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration, with the same information.

The President today declared an emergency for the State of South Dakota because of the impact of a drought. The President's action will permit the use of Federal funds in relief and recovery efforts in designated areas of the State.

The emergency situation has resulted from severe drought conditions that have affected widespread portions of the State. The drought has impacted heavily on livestock, as the pastures in the State have died out because of the lack of moisture. The President's declaration of an emergency will provide a Federal program of hay transportation by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, to assist cattlemen and dairy farmers with transportation costs of hay needed to maintain the herds in the State.

Federal relief and recovery activities in South Dakota will be coordinated by the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration, Department of Housing and Urban Development, under the direction of Administrator Thomas P. The President today declared a major disaster for the State of New York as a result of flash flooding beginning about June 19, 1976, which caused extensive public and private damage. The President's action will permit the use of Federal funds in relief and recovery efforts in designated areas of the State.

Federal assistance from the President's Disaster Relief Fund will consist primarily of debris removal, and the repair or restoration of damaged or destroyed streets, roads, and bridges. Low-interest rate disaster loans will be made available by the Small Business Administration, and emergency loan assistance will be made available by the Farmers Home Administration.

Federal relief activities in New York will be coordinated by the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration, Department of Housing and Urban Development, under the direction of Administrator Thomas P. Dunne. Mr. Dunne will designate the specific areas within the State eligible for Federal assistance, based upon Federal and State damage assessments.

Mr. Thomas R. Casey, Regional Director of the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration, HUD Region II, will be designated as the Federal Coordinating Officer to work with the State in providing Federal disaster assistance under the Disaster Relief Act of 1974, Public Law 93-288.

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today declared an emergency for the State of North Dakota because of the impact of a drought. The President's action will permit the use of Federal funds in relief and recovery efforts in designated areas of the State.

The emergency situation has resulted from severe drought conditions that have affected widespread portions of the State. The drought has impacted heavily on livestock, as the pastures in the State have died out because of the lack of moisture. The President's declaration of an emergency will provide a Federal program of hay transportation by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, to assist cattlemen and dairy farmers with transportation costs of hay needed to maintain the herds in the State. Emergency credit from the Department of Agriculture will be provided through the Farmers Home Administration.

Federal relief and recovery activities in North Dakota will be coordinated by the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration, Department of Housing and Urban Development, under the direction of Administrator Thomas P. Dunne. Mr. Dunne will designate the specific areas within the State eligible for Federal assistance. Mr. Donald G. Eddy, Regional Director of the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration, Region VIII, will be designated as the Federal Coordinating Officer to work with the State in providing Federal assistance under the Disaster Relief Act of 1974, Public Law 93-288.
