BEVERLY SILLS

is one of the leading performers in world opera today. Besides starring with the New York City Opera and other prominent American companies, she has won applause in major opera houses abroad. Miss Sills is also much sought after as a recording artist as well as recitalist and orchestral soloist.

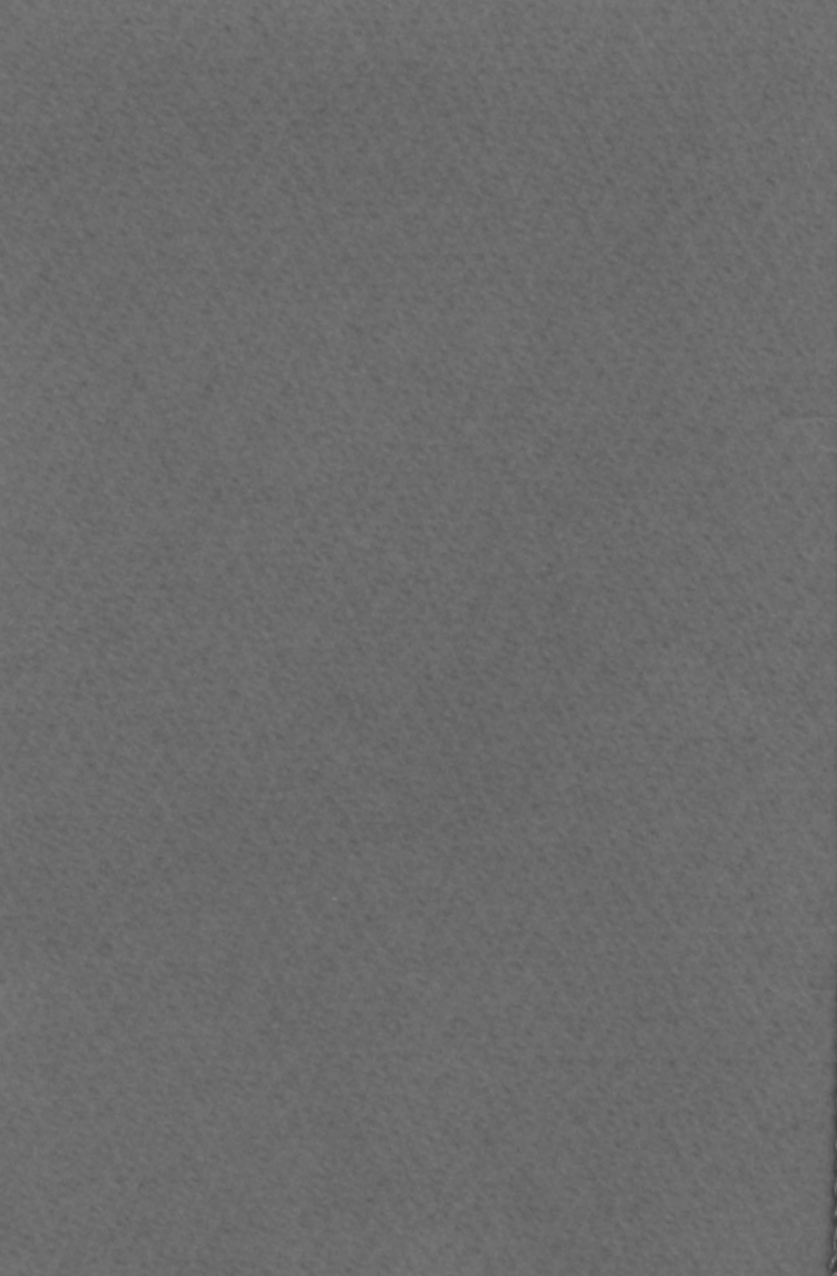

Born in Brooklyn, New York, Miss Sills gained recognition as a child performer on radio before launching into a full-time classical career. She is married and the mother of five.

Miss Sills' diversity as a performer—she includes more than fifty operatic roles in her repertoire—is complemented by frequent television talk show and public service appearances. Many of these appearances are in her capacity as Honorary National Chairman of the March of Dimes' Mothers' March on Birth Defects.

CHARLES WADSWORTH, pianist, is Artistic Director and founder of the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center. Mr. Wadsworth has also created the Noonday Chamber Concerts of the Spoleto Festival in Italy for fourteen seasons.

Dear Mrs. Ford,

RE: The decoys at the President's and your tables

At the President's table, there will be one decoy called "Merganser." It was done by Haus Berry, and it is valued at $8000.

At your table, there will be three decoys. The one in a nesting position (the lowest of the three) is called "Dowitcher," and it is valued at $2000. The middle-highest decoy is a long-billed curlew, valued at $5000. And the tallest bird is a black-breasted plover, valued at $3000.

Thank you.

NAME OF COUNTRY: Great Britain

LANGUAGE: English

- RELIGION: The Prime Minister is a Congregationalist.
- DIET: There are no dietary restrictions; however, it should be noted that the Prime Minister does not care for oysters, chicken, veal, pate or icecream.
- BEVERAGES: The Prime Minister prefers bourbon and lager beer. He does not care for champagne.
- TAOSTS: The First Toast should be made by the host to HER MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH THE SECOND
-or- TO THE QUEEN.
Response will be made in a toast to THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.
Subsequent toasts, if any, may be made in declining order of precedence.
- NATIONAL ANTHEMS: It is not recommended that the National Anthems of the United States and the Visitor be played unless the sponsoring organization is confident that the orchestra is able to play the Anthems very well. It is not necessary to play the Anthems at strictly social functions or at formal luncheons and dinners, as awkward situations and inconveniences may result. It is not the custom in Washington to play National Anthems at State Dinners. When the Anthems are played, it is customary to play the Visitor's anthem first and then the Anthem of the United States second.
- FLAGS: When flags of the United States and the Visitor's Country are used, consider the area where the flags are to be placed as a stage. Place the flag of the United States on the left as viewed by the audience, the Visitor's on the right.

Dear Mrs. Ford,

RE: Entertainment for the Wilson State Dinner

Perhaps the President would be interested in the attached information about Beverly Sills that Nancy Hanks sent over to me this morning.

Thank you.

Memo for Nancy Lammerding

From: Nancy Hanks
Chairman, National Council on the Arts

Subject: Notes about Beverly Sills, January 30 Dinner

Facts: The Arts Council of Great Britain is 30 years old.
The National Council on the Arts (U.S.) is 10.
Ours is in great measure modeled on G.B.'s.

Beverly Sills is a member of U.S. Council.
Also, Van Cliburn, who will be a guest. (There are a total of 26 members, Presidential appointments.)

The President has strongly backed the Council, which is advisory, and the National Endowment for the Arts, which is the grant-making agency.

Mrs. Ford has expressed her interest in directing her energies to the arts.

Beverly Sills is an active member of the National Council; she also has been very active in New York in obtaining greatly increased monies ($34. million this year)

Rough Thoughts for President

We thought it particularly appropriate to honor you,
Mr. Prime Minister, by having Beverly Sills with us this evening. Of course, as every one knows, her voice brings joy to all who hear her. What many many not know is how instrumental she has been in working toward public support of the arts in this country.
In this endeavor, we are following the leadership of your great country in recognizing that our cultural life is a matter of government concern as well as private. Your Arts Council is 30 years old; ours only 10 and in many ways is modeled after your experience. (Your Council was established in the darkest days of World War II, which speaks to the value of the arts and your country's recognition of their importance.)

Miss Sills, along with other great artists in our country, including Van Cliburn, who is a guest this evening, serve with great distinction on our National Council.

I have been told by a great authority on this subject, our Vice President, that when he was Governor of the state of New York, that he would talk for hours to legislators about the arts. Admittedly there was some understanding of his views, but when Beverly swept into the halls of Albany with her persuasive arguments, there was immediate understanding -- and the vote was overwhelming. Hers is a voice of greatest beauty -- it is also a voice of great impact.

I think, perhaps, Beverly, that you might direct your attention to the Hill in Washington, as well as to the one in Albany. Both Nelson and I need your help. In the meantime, Betty and I are so grateful you would help us honor our wonderful friends.
