A CAMP FOR GIRLS

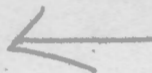

Counselors

The majority of Counselors at Bryn Afon are College Women, chosen as such because of their cultural background and perspective. The members of the Staff are mature enough to use sane judgment, and young enough to be able to share in the joys of the camp activities. Bryn Afon not only selects its Counselors because of their efficiency in a definite line of work, but because of their understanding of the demands of youthful enthusiasm. Full of enterprise and energy, with a love of the out-of-doors, and with a wholesome viewpoint toward people and things, the Bryn Afon Counselors are a source of helpfulness to girls of camp age.

LAUNCHING OF THE H. B. NORTH STAR

Not often in one's career may "launch" follow so closely on the heels of a hearty breakfast. However that may be, we considered it a distinctly pleasurable affair, with a bit of a thrill for good measure.

The ceremony of the North Star's transgression from earth to her own element took place one sunny Sunday morning. Amidst many sightseers the spirited hull, anxious to be afloat, parted her bindings and glided smoothly into the stream on whose banks she was created. True to maritime tradition, our head counselor, Katherine Kay, uttered the words, "I christen thee 'North Star'", and with admirable patience crashed the customary bottle of champagne on her bow.

Afloat and riding high, the North Star drew the applause of the crowd, cheers from her first crew, and we're sure, a sigh of satisfaction from her Commander in Chief.

GUESTS

Guests at Bryn Afon for dinner July 12th, were: Mr. and Mrs. Cavanagh of Chicago, Mr. Dancer and his daughter of Hinsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth of Sheboygan, grandparents of Connie DuBois, Mrs. Jacobsen and her sister from Racine, and Mr. and Mrs. Moroff from Kankakee.

HORSEBACK TRIP

Twenty-five miles on horseback! The following girls made the first overnight trip of the summer, July 16th; Pauline Woolard, Peggy Ellingwood, Sylvia Gladden, Eleanor Chapman, Paula Jones, Mary Menhinick, Peggy Miller, Barbara Dennis, Caroline Rankin, Joan Ulrich, Bernadine Ballagh, Louise Carder, Marion Green, Nancy Simms, Lillian Hawkins.

Leaving camp Wednesday afternoon, the Bryn Afon company reached Crystal Lake at seven thirty. Tall grass for the horses, sizzling steaks for the campers, and a good rest for all.

Early next morning, bacon and eggs, a swim, and games in the meadow. Then off again. The trip closed with a three course dinner at the Oneida Hotel in Rhineland-er. (N.B. Nothing wrong with THESE appetites.) A bus ride home and to bed, to rise with the bugle for riding class next morning.

FAVORITE EXPRESSIONS

Chow- "Toot! Toot!"
 Jean Stotzer- "How many parents are coming Saturday?"
 Nancy Strelinger- "Coming About"
 Kermit- "What is a halyard?"
 Lt. Lang- "Trot Ho!"
 Ling Lang- "Knit two, purl two"
 Kay Kay- "There will be a counselors' meeting today."
 Lois- "Junior Milk Line!"
 Betty Luhman- "Net ball!"
 Bob Hall- "Everybody out of the water!"
 Broady- "Will these girls please see me after assembly in my cabin?"

MOVIES

The first movies of the season! A triple bill, "Everything's on Ice", a Mickie Rooney "Our Gang Comedy", and a Walt Disney cartoon. Judging by the shouts of laughter and the enthusiastic applause, the program was enjoyed by all.

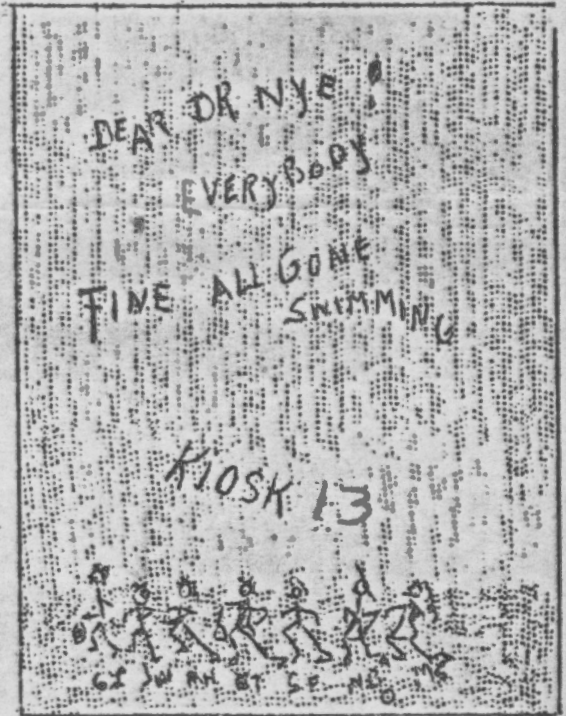

The entertainment was repeated last Wednesday night with a showing of "Daniel Boone", a most exciting adventure.

INSPECTION

In Junior Row, Kiosk 24 and Toadstool shared the banner for the first and second weeks. Last week 24 alone won the honor of hanging the prized award by the door.

Kiosk 7 held the banner the first week in Senior Row, shared it with Kiosk 3 and Paradise the second week, and with 3 the third.

Every morning after reveille, Dr. Nye makes the rounds, rouses the sleepyheads and takes the health report. One day last week she found the following note on the door of Kiosk 13:

TERPSICHOREAN TENDENCIES

"Put your little foot, put your little foot, put your little foot right there," and join the dance. With TWO 'Danceuses', Betty Bloomer and Nancy Keeler, to lead us in the light fantastic, this is a dancing summer at Bryn Afon. Pick your dance, square, folk, ballroom, tap, acrobatic, ballet, modern, or whatever. There's a step for everyone and not a wallflower in sight when the music starts to swing.

EX-DANCE PUPIL

'Gift to America,' That's Betty Ford

NEW YORK (NYT) — "A very great gift to us in America" is the way Martha Graham describes her former dance student Elizabeth Ford, the new First Lady. To prominent members of the dance world, the fact that the White House is occupied by someone ton, but was prevented from doing so by another commitment.

"I felt she made a very definite gesture to the dance and the arts," Miss Graham added.
