MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: RICHARD B. CHENEY
FROM: P.W.B. PHILIP W. BUCHEN and DOUGLAS P. BENNETT
SUBJECT: Associate Judge, Superior Court of the District of Columbia (PAS, Level V, 15-Year Term)

The purpose of this memorandum is to recommend the appointment of a well-qualified individual as Associate Judge, Superior Court of the District of Columbia vice George Draper II who is deceased.

We have received three candidates from the District of Columbia Judicial Nominating Commission for your nomination of one candidate to fill the current vacancy on the District of Columbia Superior Court. The District of Columbia Judicial Nominating Commission is a new body established in 1973 by the Home Rule Bill (P. L. 93-198) to fill judge-ship vacancies in the District of Columbia. Within 30 days of the occurrence of a vacancy on the District of Columbia bench, the Commission must submit three nominees to the President; if the President fails to nominate one of the three within 60 days, the Commission makes the appointment with the advice and consent of the Senate. The 60-day time limit expires on October 15, 1976.

Edwin Cicero Brown, Jr.
Partner, Brown and Brown

Arthur Louis Burnett
Assistant General Counsel,
Civil Service Commission

Dudley Ridault Williams
Executive Director,
District of Columbia Law Students and Court Programs

All three candidates were interviewed and we recommend the following candidate:

Edwin Cicero Brown, Jr. - 41 years old, B. A. and LL. B. Howard University. Since 1966 he has been in the private practice of law with the firm Brown and Brown (Washington, D. C. and Alexandria, Virginia); he was Staff Attorney, President's Commission on Crime in the District of Columbia (1965-66) and was Assistant United States Attorney, Office of the United States Attorney, District of Columbia (1964-65). He entered the practice of law for a brief period of time (October-December 1960) before serving for six months (January-June 1961) in the Army National Guard. He served three months (June-August 1961) with the Legal Aid Agency, District of Columbia before joining the Internal Security Division, U. S. Department of Justice (1961-64). He is a Democrat in the District of Columbia (Fauntroy).

Decision: Nominate Edwin Cicero Brown, Jr.
 Associate Judge, Superior Court of the District of Columbia

THROUGH: RICHARD B. CHENEY
FROM: ^{P.W.B.} PHILIP W. BUCHEN and DOUGLAS P. BENNETT
SUBJECT: Associate Judge, District of Columbia Court of Appeals (PAS, Level IV, 15-Year Term)

The purpose of this memorandum is to recommend the appointment of a well-qualified individual as Associate Judge, District of Columbia Court of Appeals vice Chief Judge Gerard Reilly who reached mandatory retirement age of seventy years old on September 27, 1976.

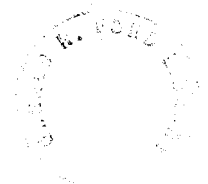

We have received three candidates for this position from the District of Columbia Judicial Nominating Commission, a new body established in 1973 by the Home Rule Bill (P. L. 93-198) to fill judgeship vacancies in the District of Columbia. Within 30 days of the occurrence of a vacancy on the District of Columbia bench, the Commission must submit three nominees to the President; if the President fails to nominate one of the three within 60 days, the Commission makes the appointment with the advice and consent of the Senate. The 60-day time limit expires on October 27, 1976.

The District of Columbia Judicial Nominating Commission submitted the following names for the Court of Appeals vacancy:

Vincent Hamilton Cohen
Partner, Hogan and Hartson

Theodore Roosevelt Newman, Jr.
Judge, Superior Court of the District of Columbia

John Clay Smith, Jr.
Associate General Counsel,
Federal Communications Commission

All three candidates were interviewed and we recommend the following candidates:

Theodore R. Newman, Jr. - 42 years old; A. B. Brown University, J. D. Harvard Law School. Since 1970 he has been Associate Judge, Superior Court of the District of Columbia. He began his legal career, as a First Lieutenant in the United States Air Force, when he was assigned to the Office of the Staff Judge Advocate (1958-61). After completing his military tour of duty he joined the Civil Rights Division, U. S. Department of Justice as an attorney in the General Litigation Section (1961-62); he then joined the law firm of Houston, Bryant and Gardner (Washington, D. C.) as an Associate (1962-68). In 1968 he joined the firm of Pratt, Bowers and Newman (Washington, D. C.) as an Associate remaining with this firm until his appointment to the Superior Court of the District of Columbia.

It is expected that if appointed to the Court of Appeals the District of Columbia Judicial Nominating Commission will designate Newman as Chief Judge.

Decision: Nominate Theodore R. Newman, Jr.,
 Associate Judge, District of Columbia
 Court of Appeals.

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate Eugene V. McAuliffe, of Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts, to be Assistant Secretary of Defense. His area of responsibility will be International Security Affairs. He will succeed Robert Ellsworth who became Under Secretary of Defense on December 22, 1975. Mr. McAuliffe has been Ambassador to Hungary since March, 1975.

Ambassador McAuliffe was born on November 25, 1918, in Boston, Massachusetts. He received his A. B. degree from Boston College in 1940. He attended the National War College from 1962 to 1963. He served with the United States Army from 1942 to 1947.

In 1948, Ambassador McAuliffe entered the Foreign Service and was assigned as Consular and Political Officer in Berlin. He became Executive Assistant in 1954 and later Chief of Reports and Operations Staff of the Executive Secretariat for the Department of State. From 1958 to 1962, he was assigned as Political Officer in Mexico City.

During the period from 1963 to 1966, Ambassador McAuliffe served as Director of the Office of Public Services and then Executive Secretary of the Policy Planning Staff for the Department of State. He was Director of Atlantic Political and Military Affairs for the Department of State from 1966 to 1968. He served as Deputy Chief of Mission with the personal rank of Minister in Madrid, Spain until 1970. From 1970 to 1972, he was a Political Officer, Supreme Headquarters, Allied Powers in Europe. He was Deputy Chief of Mission of the United States, North Atlantic Treaty Organization in Brussels beginning in 1972 until his appointment as Ambassador to Hungary.

Mr. McAuliffe is married to the former Winifred Gallivan and they have eight children.

MEMORANDUM FOR: DOUGLAS P. BENNETT
FROM: PHILIP W. BUCHEN P.W.B.
SUBJECT: Security Investigation of Benjamin Reifel

I am waiving the security investigation for Mr. Benjamin Reifel for the following reasons:

(1) Mr. Reifel was the subject of a full-field investigation by the FBI in November 1971. The results of that investigation were favorable and contained no problems.

(2) A name check was done by the FBI in September 1974 and no additional pertinent information on Mr. Reifel was found in the FBI files.

(3) A second name check was done by the FBI on November 30, 1976. The FBI reported that nothing pertinent was found.

(4) An FBI update investigation of Mr. Reifel will take a minimum of 2-3 weeks. It is already December 2 and our Administration ends on January 20. Given the favorable FBI report of 1971 and the name check updates of 1974 and December 1, 1976, an update investigation would not seem to be a wise allocation of FBI resources given its other investigative clearance responsibilities for President-elect Carter.

BEN REIFEL, Aberdeen, S. Dak., born Sept. 19, 1906, at Parmelee, South Dakota, to full-blood Sioux Indian mother and German-American father; enrolled member of the Rosebud Sioux Tribe. Married; one daughter, Mrs. Emery (Loyce) Anderson. B. S. degree, South Dakota State University, 1932; M. Army officer 1942-45; named Outstanding American Indian in 1956; Indian Council Fire Award, 1960; Boy Scout Silver Antelope Award for Leadership, 1960; member Board of Directors, The National Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults; member Executive Committee, North Central Region, Boy Scouts of America; member Board of Trustees, Freedom Foundation; Administrator in Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior for 22 years; elected to 87th Congress, Nov. 8, 1960, Republican, member Committee on Agriculture; re-elected to 88th, 89th, 90th and 91st Congresses, member Committee on Appropriations, Subcommittee on Interior and Related Agencies. Voluntarily retired from the Congress at the end of the 91st Congress (Jan. 2, 1971). Jan. 1971 - July 1974 served as Special Assistant (Consultant) for Indian Programs to the Director of the National Park Service, U. S. Department of the Interior. Appointed to the National Capital Planning Commission by the President in May of 1971 and designated to be Chairman of the Commission, for term expiring April 30, 1973.
