Dear Mr. Ruth:

Attached is a list containing the names of people who hold or who are being considered for appointment to public positions of trust and confidence. In appraising their suitability for office, it would be helpful to have the benefit of any adverse knowledge held by the Watergate Special Prosecution Force. We would, therefore, be grateful for such information and advice as you think it appropriate to provide.

Out of an excess of caution, let me say that making this inquiry does not imply that any adverse material is known or expected.

We appreciate your cooperation.

MEMORANDUM FOR:

LAURENCE H. SILBERMAN
DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL

FROM:

PHILLIP AREEDA
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

P.A.

I would like to set down my understanding of the new procedures for clearing names of White House Staff and Presidential appointees through the Special Prosecutor's office.

Until now, as you know, we have submitted to the Special Prosecutor's Office over 700 names of persons holding or being considered for positions. We realize the burden that we have imposed on the Special Prosecutor's office and are very grateful for the cooperation they have provided. We also fully understand the desire of that office to simplify the clearance procedure and to reduce the number of names that have to be processed by them.

Under the new procedure, we will rely upon the FBI to communicate with the Special Prosecutor's office and to relay relevant matters to us as part of the normal FBI report.

It is my understanding that the FBI will query the Special Prosecutor's office in two situations: (1) Where the FBI's own files indicate that the Special Prosecutor's office has had an interest in the person in question or (2) Where the subject of the check is being considered for a Presidential appointment to a fulltime position subject to Senate confirmation or for a senior White House Staff position. Persons in category #2 will be so designated in our request for an investigation and in a manner to be worked out by our Security Office and the FBI liaison official.

We recognize that this new procedure may leave us without information from the Special Prosecutor's office on some appointees in part-time positions, those not requiring Senate confirmation, or junior White House

Staff, wherever the FBI file does not already contain an indication of interest by the Special Prosecutor's office. But this lacuna is a modest one that does not seem inappropriate in balancing our desire to know everything relevant with the need for the Special Prosecutor's office to conduct its primary work without undue burdens on our behalf.

Special Clearances

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 11, 1975

ADMINISTRATIVELY CONFIDENTIAL

MEMORANDUM FOR: JIM CONNOR
THROUGH: PHIL BUCHEN P.W.B.
FROM: KEN LAZARUS KL
SUBJECT: Special Prosecutor Clearances

During the course of the past year, this office has been requested to obtain clearances from the Office of Watergate Special Prosecution Force on a large number of people. With respect to 35 of these individuals, clearances were never obtained. In order to clarify any White House records pertaining to these people, we are in the process of updating earlier requests for clearances so that previous denials do not carry any unwarranted adverse inferences.

Recently, clearances were obtained from the Special Prosecutor on 11 of these people:

- Roy Ash
- William Baroody, Jr.
- Kenneth Cole
- Leonard Garment
- William Henkel
- Jana Hruska
- Jerry Jones
- Powell Moore
- Patrick O'Donnell
- Geoffrey Shepard
- William Timmons

Kindly arrange to have these clearances made a part of any relevant White House files. The remaining 24 names are currently being updated, and I expect that we will be able to report to you on them in the not too distant future.

Thank you.
