Dear Mr. Buchen:

This letter is in reference to a letter dated September 18, 1974, to J. Fred Buzhardt, Jr., Esquire, from Richard Ben-Veniste, Assistant Special Prosecutor, and a letter dated September 13, 1974, to yourself from Mr. Richard Ben-Veniste.

With reference to the letter of September 18, as the attorney for former President Richard Nixon I have no objection to your making available to Mr. Ben-Veniste the five dates specified from President Nixon's daily diary. I would object to an informal turning over of the tape recording of the conversation between President Nixon and John W. Dean, February 28, 1973. Since a copy of that tape has already been furnished to the Special Prosecutor it would seem that the proper way to proceed would be for a subpoena to be served on President Nixon to produce that tape at which time it could be produced pursuant to the procedures which have already been established pursuant to a prior subpoena issued by the Special Prosecutor.

With respect to the items requested in the September 13, 1974, letter, I have no objection to turning over and hereby designate Mr. Jerry Jones, Staff Secretary, White House, to obtain the documents in Item Nos. 1, 2, 3 if available, 5 and 6. Once they have been located and after I have examined them

Philip W. Buchen, Esquire
September 20, 1974

I believe I will have no objection to their being turned over.

With respect to Item No. 4, reflecting the manifest of Air Force One, if there are security problems involved in making such information available then I would, of course, object to turning over that information.

With respect to Item No. 7 which will require a substantial amount of work, I designate Mrs. Gertrude T. Fry, Librarian, White House, to examine the documents and obtain the information there requested. Again upon my examination it is believed that there will be no objection to it being turned over.

With respect to Item No. 8 which is the blanket request for the President's daily diary from June 17, 1972 through December 31, 1973, I would, of course, object to such a blanket request but would be available to discuss any specific requests for diaries as to specific meetings or dates.

If you have any questions concerning the above, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Chairman:

This is to reply to your letter of September 17. In your letter you request that this office take all necessary steps to ensure that the tapes and documents compiled by former-President Nixon relating to the Watergate matter remain in their present location until Congress has had an opportunity to consider various legislative proposals submitted to deal with these issues.

We have formally requested that the Administration take no steps to disturb the present location or custody of the tapes and documents produced during Mr. Nixon's Presidency and specifically have asked that no steps be taken to implement the letter agreement between the former President and the Administrator of General Services which would transfer the custody and location of these materials. We have been given assurances by the Counsel to the President that this request will be respected and that no further change in the status of these items will be made pending further discussions about our need to protect our interests.

We remain ready to cooperate with the Committee in any way appropriate.

We would like to be in a position to provide Congress, should it desire it, with any reference to Nelson Rockefeller made in a meeting which took place between former President Nixon and Richard Moore from 3:45 - 5:00 pm on April 19, 1973. The original tape is held by Judge Sirica. But there is apparently a copy among Mr. Nixon's tapes.

We understand that you are authorized by Mr. Nixon to listen to this tape and to provide the relevant material.

We further understand that the Special Prosecutor's office has no objection to this procedure in view of your undertaking to them to obtain a waiver from Richard Moore, to disclose the content of the conversation to Mr. Neal and, if desired by Mr. Neal, to authorize a copy of that conversation for the Special Prosecutor's office.

I would appreciate it if you would confirm this understanding. I am asking Mr. Neal of the Special Prosecutor's office to do the same.

SUBJECT : Nomination of Henry Ruth

Upon submitting his resignation, Mr. Jaworski recommended that his deputy, Henry Ruth, be appointed to the post. This note is to "second the nomination."

I am sure that you will have plenty of testimony as to Henry Ruth's professional excellence, and will not dwell on that, nor on the issues of succession. My comments go to Henry Ruth personally.

I first met Henry in 1967 when I was with the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee, and he was working with the "National Crime Commission." Thereafter, for a period of time when I was at LEAA, Henry was the Director of its Research Institute, and I had further opportunity to deal with him.

Henry is discreet, sensitive and wise, and possesses personal courage and remarkable integrity. Also, he is a gentleman. I like him very much. His personal qualities and his professional competence lead me to this recommendation, without hesitation. It is unsolicited.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 16, 1974

Dear Mr. Brademas:

Your Subcommittee, I am advised, has pending before it S. 4016, a bill recently passed by the Senate which relates to the papers and other materials, including tape recordings, of former President Nixon.

Mr. William Sudow has been in contact with Mr. William Casselman of our staff regarding the status of these materials during the upcoming recess of the House and Senate.

As you may know, my office has been seeking to comply with existing court orders and the requirements of the Office of the Watergate Special Prosecution Force with respect to certain of these materials. We have agreed with the Prosecution Force that the White House will not move to implement the September 6 agreement between former President Nixon and GSA Administrator Sampson or otherwise cause to be removed any materials of the former President pending the outcome of discussions with the Prosecution Force.

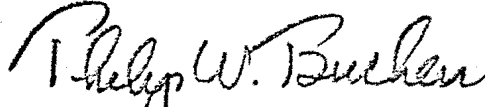

I am doubtful about when a plan can be developed for implementing the agreement that satisfies the interests of the Prosecution Force and those reflected in various outstanding subpoenas and Court orders. However, in view of the opinion of the Attorney General as to the ownership of the materials, unless a Court of appropriate jurisdiction should rule otherwise, we have no basis for not recognizing the former President's rights as well, except as the subpoena rights of the Special Prosecutor and of parties to Court proceedings could still delay a change of custody. Of course, even when the double-key custody arrangements called for by the agreement are carried out, physical safeguarding of the materials is assured by the agreement as it exists, and the safeguards would in all events continue for a minimum of three years. Thus, a valid enactment by Congress involving the materials, if it occurred before the end of three years, could not be thwarted by any possible prior destruction of the subject matter of the legislation.

I trust this information will be helpful.

Dear Mr. Casselman:

This is to confirm our telephone conversations last evening during which you informed me that Herbert J. Miller, Jr., counsel to former President Nixon, had indicated that he would file an action this morning seeking specific performance of the letter agreement between Mr. Nixon and Arthur G. Sampson, Administrator of the General Services Administration, dated September 7, 1974.

You assured me that the tapes and documents compiled during the administration of former President Nixon, now stored in various areas of the Executive Office Building and within the physical control of Mr. Buchen, would not be moved pending a determination of any court proceedings relating to ownership and custody of the materials. It is my understanding that this assurance merely carries forward the agreement between this office and the White House that the physical arrangements for the Nixon materials would not be changed, and the September 7 letter agreement would not be implemented pending discussions between this office and the White House concerning the Special Prosecutor's continuing interest in these materials for ongoing investigations and prosecutions.

Sincerely,

This is to confirm our telephone conversations last evening during which you informed me that Herbert J. Miller, Jr., counsel to former President Nixon, had indicated that he would file an action this morning seeking specific performance of the letter agreement between Mr. Nixon and Arthur G. Sampson, Administrator of the General Services Administration, dated September 7, 1974.

You assured me that the tapes and documents compiled during the administration of former President Nixon, now stored in various areas of the Executive Office Building and within the physical control of Mr. Buchen, would not be moved pending a determination of any court proceedings relating to ownership and custody of the materials. It is my understanding that this assurance merely carries forward the agreement between this office and the White House that the physical arrangements for the Nixon materials would not be changed, and the September 7 letter agreement would not be implemented pending discussions between this office and the White House concerning the Special Prosecutor's continuing interest in these materials for ongoing investigations and prosecutions.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Buchen:

We today have served upon you eight subpoenas requiring production of various materials before the grand jury. While in recent weeks you and your office have been most cooperative in dealing with the various issues relating to these documents, as well as in producing materials for the Watergate trial, we feel that the service of these subpoenas is now the most effective way to assure the grand jury's access to those materials necessary for their inquiries. We understand, of course, that these subpoenas call for the production of a number of documents and tapes and, if any problems develop in meeting the various return dates, we assure you that we will be reasonable in consenting to any necessary extensions to allow a thorough search for all the materials. Additionally, we will, of course, be happy to provide any desired assistance to you and Mr. Miller to enable compliance.

Your cooperation in this matter is appreciated.

Sincerely,
