MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

February 7, 1975

MEMO RANDUM FOR PHIL BUCHEN

I discussed the Rose Wood problem with the President. He agreed the way you and I talked.

I had another urgent call from Rose Woods. I called her back. She said she is leaving for California tonight and will be back Tuesday morning on the Red Eye. She said that she would be delighted to have you sit down and go over anything that you have any question on and resolve any remaining issue so that we can close the book on it.

I told her that you were thinking very positively -- that you understand how difficult it is and she, also of course, understands how difficult it is in view of the fact that you are the defendent in the suit. That she is not involved in it and if you do something with her belongings, you've got a problem. So she is cooperative and friendly. I think you will be able to get it sorted through but do try to do it Tuesday morning.

Thanks so much.

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT

FROM: PHILIP W. BUCHEN T.W.B

The attached letter to you from Miss Rose Mary Woods and the enclosures have been reviewed by me.

Even though Miss Woods characterizes all items as her own personal papers, no independent person has actually checked the contents of the files to verify this claim on her part. As a consequence, a release of these materials to her imposes a risk on us of violating existing court orders pertaining to Presidential papers or we may be charged with thwarting the interest of the Special Prosecutor in items of hers relevant to the investigations.

I am working on an expeditious way to solve these problems and expect to have solutions within 24 hours.

I will keep you informed as to developments.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 7, 1975

Dear Don:

You have very graciously told me to feel free to call if I had a problem. I have hesitated to do so before now because of your heavy work load, but I urgently need your assistance now.

I would greatly appreciate your reading the attached letter I have written to the President and then request that he issue an order today releasing my personal materials or instruct his Counsel to do so.

This has been a ridiculous run-around since I was never involved in this suit concerning the Presidential papers and the lists clearly show that none of my material is "presidential" material.

Sincerely,

Rose Mary Woods
Executive Assistant to
former President Nixon

The Honorable Donald Rumsfeld
Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 7, 1975

Dear Mr. President:

Apparently you are the only one who can order the release to me of my personal papers which are now stored in Room 175-1/2. I accordingly ask that you issue such an order today. I attach a list of the materials being held in Room 175-1/2 which has been verified by Mr. Wolf and archivists on his staff. There can be no question but that these are my personal papers.

In addition to the items listed on the attached exhibit I have also been advised that I am not to remove without an order from someone - apparently you - my own personal Christmas card list which dates back years before I ever came to the White House. This list has also been verified by the archivists as well as the materials in Room 175-1/2.

Most respectfully I ask that you issue such an order today so that this material can be removed today as I leave the White House.

Sincerely,

Rose Mary Woods
Executive Assistant to
former President Nixon

The President
The White House

RE: Corrections on List F

As per our conversation, most of the items that are listed as "gold" or "silver" are not even gold or silver plated but are campaign materials which are very inexpensive.

Special Assistant to the Administrator

SUBJECT: Inventory of Personal Materials of Rosemary Woods

Miss Woods has now had an opportunity to review the inventory of her personal materials, known as List F, which the archivists prepared. She has found some errors and her comments thereon are attached herewith.

Would you be good enough to correct your list or add Miss Woods' memorandum as an appendix so that there will be no misunderstanding at a future date.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.
