2. Prohibition Campaign Solicitations by Appointees
Confirmed by the Senate and by Executive Office Personnel
(Sec. 202).

The Proposal. Under Section 202 of S. 495, Section 7323 of title 5 of the United States Code would be amended, primarily by the addition of a new paragraph (b) under which any employee in an executive agency who is appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, or is paid from the appropriation for the Executive Office of the President, would be prohibited from requesting or receiving from anyone a thing of value for political purposes at any time while so employed and for one year immediately after each time he is no longer so employed. An employee violating 5 U.S.C. 9323 would be removed from the service. Also, under Section 202 of S. 495, Section 602 of title 18 of the United States Code would be amended so that its criminal penalties would be applicable to violations of the new paragraph (b) of 5 U.S.C. 7323.

Discussion. This seems to us in many respects a wise provision. When heads of departments approach individuals for contributions, the individuals never know whether rejection of the request will adversely affect them or their businesses or other interests. We see no reason, however, for preventing such persons from soliciting contributions for one year after leaving office. We think this part of the provision would have the undesirable and probably unconstitutional effect of preventing Presidential appointees from running for elective office for one year after leaving office. This would be particularly unfortunate, for example, in the case of those Executive branch officers who distinguished themselves precisely by exposing or prosecuting acts of political corruption.

3. Application of the Hatch Act to the Department of Justice (Sec. 203).

The Proposal. Under Section 203 of S. 495, Section 7324 of title 5 of the United States Code would be amended to remove an existing exception and thereby to make the restrictions of the Hatch Act upon political activity apply to the Attorney General, Deputy Attorney General, and Assistant Attorneys General.

Discussion. We have no quarrel with the thrust of and evident purpose underlying this proposed legislation. However, in our view more attention needs to be given to potential problems connected with the scope of the proposal. For example, if the restriction in the Hatch Act against active involvement in political campaigning is to be extended to apply to officials at the highest level of this Department, the Congress should at the same time, in some general way, exempt activities that may be deemed, in a broad sense, to be included in the concept of political campaigning but that should not be prevented, as, for example, defending in a public forum Departmental policies that have become major issues in a campaign.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

OUTLINE FOR BRIEFING OF CABINET
AND OF WHITE HOUSE STAFF
ON ELECTION CAMPAIGN LAWS

I. INTRODUCTION

- A. Purpose: To summarize the constraints we and our colleagues are under as Federal officials or employees in relation to the 1976 Presidential campaign.
- B. Not Covered: The impact of the Federal Election Campaign Act as amended in 1974 on persons whether or not they are Federal officials. This Act restricts candidates, political committees, and campaign contributors. The provisions in this regard are complex and to some extent so unclear as to be troublesome. Rather than my attempting to go into these problems, I recommend that you rely on advise^c from the RNC or the PFC whenever questions arise about legal sources and limits for campaign contributions or for expenditures to support the campaign.

II. GENERAL PROHIBITIONS

A. Campaign contributions

1. Two taboos: Other Federal employees; any Federal office or building.
2. Even unsolicited contributions which violate the taboos should be returned.
3. Do not act as a solicitor, a recipient, or even a conduit.

B. Governmental inducements or detrimental treatment for campaign or election purposes.

C. Turning a government operation into a campaign operation. (Use of gov't personnel or facilities for other than official purposes)

*Expenditures Appointments,
employment, or other benefits*

III. HATCH ACT

A. Coverage

1. Everyone on a Federal payroll is "Hatched" unless he or she is a Presidential appointee subject to Senate confirmation or is paid solely from WH or VP appropriations.
2. The rest of the vast Federal bureaucracy is by law made neutral or apolitical for election campaign purposes.

B. Proper behavior for the "Hatched" employee

1. He may express his opinions about a candidate and wear a candidate button, but he may not use his authority or position to influence the outcome of an election.

2. He can attend political functions but he cannot be active in the workings of political organizations or raise money for them.
3. He may act as an individual voter but not as a campaigner for votes or money in support of a particular candidate or party.

C. The Pervasive Nature of Hatch-Imposed Restrictions

1. To employees of competitive + excepted service including Schedule C and NEA employees.
2. To part-time and full-time employees
3. During business hours or private time, including leave.

IV. SPECIFIC PROBLEMS

- A. Return directly to the sender any contribution sent to you, designating only where a check may be delivered in order to reach the intended political committee.
- B. "An employee shall not use Federal property of any kind for other than officially approved activities" -- including supplies and equipment.

- C. An exempt employee must not look to a Hatched employee to help in his political activities, except possibly for routine, non-discretionary support which is minimal and does not detract from the subordinate's performance of official duties. (Writing speech vs. typing speech)
- D. How much time can you fairly devote to campaigning?
Who's running the Department while you're out campaigning?
- E. Drawing the line between official and political travel Publicized political event - rally, fund-raiser, convention.
- F. However legal may be a particular activity on your part, it should not be undertaken if it could create even the appearance of being improper.

1 Senator Tunney. I understand. I will do my best
2 to convince you.

3 I have several additional questions which I would like
4 to submit to you to be answered in writing, relating to 5 governmental fragmentation with regard to materials needs,
6 with regard to materials policy, the importance of developing
7 a national materials policy, developing better information
8 systems, and the need for an increased role of the National 9 Bureau of Standards with respect to these matters, but they
10 are technical and I think they can be answered in writing
11 and we can just move ahead with the hearing.

12 So I will submit them to you in writing, and if 13 you would respond.

14 Mr. Richardson. I would be very glad to, Senator Tunney

15 Senator Tunney. Thank you very much, Mr. Richardson.

16 As I indicated before, it is a great pleasure having you 17 here. I have been one who has respected your service to 18 our government in many different capacities, and I happen
19 to be one who believes that it is not necessarily because 20 of a deficiency on the part of the Republican Party that 21 you have held so many positions, but because of your own 22 talents.

23 Mr. Richardson. That is very kind of you. Thank you.

24 Senator Ford. Mr. Richardson, I want to do something
25 that I am sure the press is sitting here waiting with baited

1 breath for the question, because it hasn't been asked you
2 yet.

3 Since you were practically endorsed for a position in 4 1976 by one of my colleagues, I am going to ask the expected 5 question.

6 What role do you expect to play in the forthcoming
7 Presidential campaign, and would you be involved in any way
8 in fund raising efforts?

9 Mr. Richardson. I would expect, with due appreciation
10 to the allusion to some other possible role by Senator
11 Stevens, I came back to be Secretary of Commerce, and I have 12 no other expectation.

13 As to the role I might play in the forthcoming political 14 campaign as secretary of Commerce, I would expect to appear
15 at political gatherings and to express in general my support
16 for the President's views.

17 I don't think that there is any reason why the 18 Secretary of Commerce should be inhibited from playing an 19 ordinary partisan role.

20 Indeed national elections in the United States are 21 one of the major opportunities whereby an Administration 22 can render an accounting for its policies and submit them to 23 the judgment of the electorate.

24 It seems to me people who had a part in them and share 25 responsibility for them ought to be willing to stand up and

1 claim it and justify them. So all that I would expect to 2 do.

3 The second part of the question on fund raising, I
4 would expect that I would be asked from time to time to speak
5 at fund raising events where people buy tickets and so on,
6 and I would expect to do that from time to time without 7 interfering with my responsibilities as the Department head.

8 I would not, however, engage in any solicitation of 9 campaign funds from individuals or corporations.

10 Senator Ford. I am glad I asked the question, because 11 I believe you were expecting it.

12 (Laughter)

13 Senator Ford. I have no further questions.

14 Mr. Richardson. I appreciate your not disappointing
15 me, Senator Ford.

16 Senator Ford. That is right, I didn't want to disappoint 17 you.

18 Senator Hart left some questions he wanted to ask you
19 verbally. We will let counsel ask them.

20 Mr. Merlis. Ambassador, the question arises from the 21 issue of the subpoena which has been issued in the House
22 Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, the Oversight
23 Subcommittee.

24 Mr. Richardson. Excuse me. Do I understand these are 25 Senator Hart's questions?

MEMORANDUM FOR:

THE CABINET

The information set out below will be of assistance to yourselves and members of your staffs who will be participating in the President's election efforts.

Hatch Act

Employees paid from appropriations to the White House Office, the Office of the Vice President and Executive branch officials confirmed by the Senate are exempt from the provisions of the Hatch Act (5 U.S.C. § 7321, et seq.) which prohibit ~~the~~ participation ~~of~~ by Federal employees in political management or political campaign activities. NEA and Schedule C employees in the departments and agencies who do not fall into one of these categories are subject to the Act and, accordingly, you must be alert to avoid their support of you in a political role, e. g., advancing a political event, writing political speeches, as well as their direct participation in political events.

Presence of Government Employees
on Political Trips

To the extent you are authorized to use security personnel on travels outside the District of Columbia, they may accompany you to political events and their expenses can properly be paid with appropriated funds. On the other hand, agency advance personnel should not be used for political events. PFC personnel setting up the event will be available for this purpose. "Hatched" assistants traveling with you are barred from participating in a political event. To limit questions on the appearance of their activities, it is advisable that they do not attend the political event with you.

Fundraising

It is a Federal crime for any Federal officer, employee or consultant to directly or indirectly solicit or receive a political contribution from any other officer, employee or consultant (18 U.S.C. § 602). It is also a Federal crime to solicit or receive political contributions within any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties by any Federal employee (18 U.S.C. § 603). For your information, political contributions sent to the White House are returned to the donor, along with an explanation that it is illegal to receive such contributions in government office buildings.

The Department of Justice testified last week in support of legislation to make it illegal for any Executive branch employee confirmed by the Senate or any employee of the Executive Office of the President to request or receive anything of value for political purposes. Even though this provision is not law at the present time, it does represent a policy that should be followed. While it is proper for you to campaign and appear at fundraising events on behalf of the President, you should avoid requesting or receiving political contributions. Should someone at a fundraising or other event offer to give you a contribution, it is best to refer him to any President Ford Committee officials who are present or to the Finance Committee in Washington, rather than discussing the contribution with them. In relation to your participation at fundraisers, the President Ford Committee will take steps to prevent attempts to exploit ticket sales for fundraising events to those organizations which fall under the jurisdiction of your Department.

Travel Expenses

Under the new Federal election laws, it is increasingly important that you be aware of the distinction between an official speech and one which would be considered a "campaign" speech. Extemporaneous remarks calling for the President's election can alter the nature of an official appearance, and suggest that it be treated as a political appearance for which at least some portion of your expenses must be paid by the PFC. As a general rule, speeches before non-partisan organizations such as the Chamber of Commerce are official in nature. At such appearances, it is appropriate to discuss the work of your Department and to explain the Administration's accomplishments ^{and interest} of present programs on ^{matters} subjects which ^{are} ~~may be quite topical~~ ^{of interest to the audience}. However, should you relate these programs to the President's election or ^{begin to} initiate comparisons with the programs of other Presidential candidates, this would probably result in a political speech. The Federal Election Commission is about to transmit to Congress proposed regulations that would consider all or some portion of your expenses in ^{relation} ~~regard~~ to that appearance as subject to the expenditure limitations ~~that are~~ applicable to the President's campaign. ^{Because of these limitations,} ~~For this reason,~~ it is ^{vital} that there be ^{particularly important} ~~close coordination~~ ^{advance} ~~in advance~~ with the PFC ~~in~~ all campaign related speeches you ^{intend} ~~wish~~ to make, ^{and that you avoid remarks} ~~as well as to insure that your speeches~~ ^{which} ~~do not~~ inadvertently result in ~~unanticipated~~ expenditures for the PFC.

Should any questions arise on matters of either legality or propriety concerning official activities, please do not hesitate to call the Office of the Counsel to the President. Advice on the conduct of the campaign itself should be sought from counsel to the President Ford Committee.

I. Hatch Act

- (a) Employees of the White House Office, the Vice President's Office, members of the Cabinet and other Executive branch officials confirmed by the Senate are exempt from the Hatch Act's restrictions on participation in political management activities.
- (b) However, Schedule C employees and others are subject to the Act and you must be alert to avoid their support of you in a political role, e. g., advancing a political event, writing political speeches, etc., as well as their participation in political events.
- (c) My previous memorandum on restrictions on political activity by government employees is available to those who wish copies.

II. Participation in 100 Committee Program

- (a) Proper for officials not subject to the Hatch Act.
- (b) Federal law prohibits (1) the solicitation or receipt of political contributions on Federal property and (2) the solicitation or receipt of political contributions by a Federal official or employee from any other official of employee.

(c) Richardson testimony, which was favorably received by the Committee, that he:

(1) will campaign and appear at fundraising events

(2) will not solicit or receive contributions from individuals or corporations

(d) Justice testified last week in favor of legislation to make it illegal for an Executive branch employee confirmed by the Senate, or an employee of the Executive Office of the President, to request or receive anything of value for political purposes. While not law at this time, this does represent a policy that we all should follow.

(e) The PFC is taking steps to prevent attempts to exploit ticket sales for fundraising events to those organizations which fall under the jurisdiction of the Cabinet member speaking at the event, e. g. , will not coerce or pressure dairy industry to attend fundraiser where Earl Butz is to speak. If anyone comes up to you at a fundraiser to make a contribution, refer them to the PFC fundraising personnel who are present rather than discussing it with them.

III. Allocation of Expenses

- (a) Present practice is to pay only the incremental increase in costs due to the political role on a mixed purpose trip. This is subject to much criticism from the public and media, and FEC regulations are expected to change this practice.
- (b) Suggested we switch over to allocate the costs for a mixed appearance between the government and the PFC, based on the percentage of time spent on official versus political activities. Thus, if you spend two hours in official meetings and two hours in campaign meetings, transportation costs, e. g., airfare, accommodations, etc., would be divided equally between the government and PFC. This approach requires that there be a substantial and bona fide official event before appropriated funds are used.
- (c) Under the new law, it is important that you realize that extemporaneous remarks in support of the President's election can alter the nature of the appearance and suggest that it be considered a political appearance which should be paid by the PFC. With expenditure limitations, it is vital that there be close advance coordination with the PFC before you plan political appearances.

IV. Presence of Government Employees on Political Trips

- (a) To the extent security personnel are involved, their expenses can properly be paid from appropriated funds, regardless of the fact they attend the political event.
- (b) Agency advancements should not be used for political events. PFC personnel setting up the event will be available for this purpose.
- (c) "Hatched" assistants traveling with you are barred from participating in a political event. To limit any appearance problems, it would be preferable that they do not ^{even} attend the political event.
- (d) Be alert to the problem of use of governmental aircraft to attend only a political event. This presents problems of appearance that are not present on the mixed-purpose trip in justifying the use of governmental resources.

MEMORANDUM FOR: JIM CANNON

FROM: KEN LAZARUS KL

SUBJECT: Hatch Act

You are correct in your understanding that you are personally exempt from the provisions of the Hatch Act (5 U.S.C. 7321, et seq.) insofar as it relates to active participation in political management and political campaigns. The Act specifically exempts from its ban on partisan political activity by Executive Branch personnel any "employee paid from the appropriation for the office of the President." Thus, the sole test in determining the applicability of the Act is which appropriation is used to pay the employee's salary. While the Civil Service Commission has interpreted this provision to exempt persons paid from appropriations to the White House Office and Special Assistance to the President (Office of the Vice President), it has determined that employees paid from other appropriations for the Executive Office of the President, including those of the Domestic Council, OTP, OMB and NSC, are subject to the Act. Likewise, all detailed employees are fully subject to the Act. a b

While you are paid from funds appropriated to the White House Office, I understand that the remainder of the Domestic Council staff is paid from its own appropriation and is, therefore, subject to the Act. In addition, all Executive Branch employees, regardless of how they are paid, are expressly prohibited from using their "official authority or influence for the purpose of interfering with or affecting the result of an election" b

The attached materials from the Commission should be of some assistance in determining what conduct is permissible by employees subject to the Act.

I understand that all members of the Domestic Council staff, with the exception of myself, come under the Hatch Act.

Can you give me your opinion of this? If the staff members do come under the Hatch Act, could you have someone on your staff give me a memorandum telling what they can and cannot do in a political way.

Many thanks.

The Civil Aeronautics Board, the Federal Communications Commission, and the Interstate Commerce Commission have each promulgated regulations with respect to the extension of credit, without security, by any person regulated by these agencies to any candidate for Federal office or to any person on behalf of such a candidate, for goods furnished or services rendered in connection with the campaign of such candidate for nomination for election, or election, to such office. Participation by Presidential

Activities

Frank Zarb, Administrator, FEA, has suggested that our office prepare a memo covering the above subject so that persons concerned may know what restrictions, if any, they should abide by in undertaking political activities.

Attached are pages from the Republican National Committee's recent publication of the Federal Election Law Manual but I think we have to go beyond identifying the employees who are not subject to the restrictions against taking part in political campaigns. We should also go into the question of whether such activities may be conducted through use of Federal facilities or in connection with an employee's official duty or on time when he might ordinarily be expected to perform official duties. Another possible issue is whether certain appointees should avoid political activities because of the nature of their positions such as the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Defense.

After you have some ideas of how to prepare a memo on the subject, please discuss them with me.

Attached also is a copy of a memo dated March 11 prepared by Ken Lazarus for Jim Cannon.

Another issue which ought to be considered is whether there are certain appointees who, as a matter of policy, should abstain from active political involvement even though the law would allow it. DRAFT

MEMORANDUM FOR WHITE HOUSE AND OTHER
PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTEES

FROM: PHILIP W. BUCHEN

SUBJECT: Participation by Presidential Appointees in Political Activities

The participation by Federal officers and employees in political both campaigns must be carefully circumscribed to avoid/criminal violations and questions of impropriety. In particular, you should be aware that:

1. The only Federal employees exempt from the Hatch Act prohibition on active participation in political campaigns are those who are (a) appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate, ^{or} ~~and~~ (b) paid by the White House office. Even political appointees under Schedule C and NEA's in the Departments and Agencies are subject to the Act.

2. It is a criminal offense to solicit or receive contributions of political funds from Federal employees under any circumstances, or to receive ^{or} ~~and~~ spend contributions of political funds on Federal premises. Special care should be taken to avoid inviting employees subject to the Hatch Act to political fund-raising events, or to any political events that may be interpreted as helpful to their employment situation. Contributions from corporations and labor unions may not be acceptable

3. All use of Federal resources for political activities should be avoided: You should not use your office or its facilities for political meetings, writing political speeches or other campaign activities, and no official travel money should be used for political purposes. You should arrange with the RNC, one of the President's campaign committees or an appropriate local organization for facilities, services, supplies and expenses. You should also avoid political activities during normal working hours.

4. While there is no impropriety involved in political campaigning by ~~any~~ Presidential appointees who have ~~been~~ confirmed by the Senate, certain officials, by the nature of their duties, should abstain from active political involvement. Examples are the Attorney General and other Justice Department officials, the Secretaries of State and Defense, the members of the CEA, NSC, and officials at ERDA^{FEA} and similar non-politically oriented organizations.

5. No attempt should be made to involve ~~the~~ officials of the independent regulatory agencies or from the Judicial Branch in political campaign activities.

6. No promise of employment ^{with the Federal Government} should be made as a reward for political activity of any kind.

For some time I have felt it desirable to put out a comprehensive memorandum to the Presidential appointees in the Executive Branch who are likely to become involved in political activities in behalf of the President which would guide them in their own conduct and in controlling the conduct of their subordinates.

Attached is a draft proposal on which I would like your comments.

Another issue which ought to be considered is whether there are certain appointees who, as a matter of policy, should abstain from active political involvement even though the law would allow it. The Attorney General, other Justice Department officials, the Secretaries of State and Defense are examples, but consideration should also be given to officials of ERDA and FEA and members of the CEA.

MEMORANDUM FOR: PHIL BUCHEN

FROM: DUDLEY CHAPMAN DC

SUBJECT: Memorandum on Political Activities

As a result of our discussion, and on further reflection, the attached memorandum does not address such subjects as the conduct of political activities on "official" time, or campaign activities carried on within Federal premises, other use of Federal resources, or the desirability of certain officials abstaining from campaign activity. We should be able to rely on people's common sense to avoid using Government funds for political expenses, and precise rules on these subjects do not appear possible to formulate.

I have left the covering memorandum undated, for you to insert.

MEMORANDUM

Restrictions on Political Participation
by Executive Branch Officials and Employees

All Federal officials and employees of the Executive Branch of the Government are subject to the criminal sanctions set forth in Title 18, U.S.C., Chapter 29 -- "Elections and Political Activities"(Appendix A). With relatively few exceptions, these employees are also subject to the political activity restrictions contained in relevant civil provisions (5 U.S.C. 7321, et. seq., Appendix B) and implementing regulations (5 CFR Part 333, Appendix C).

The following outline should serve as a checklist of the principal restrictions on political campaign activities of concern to government officers and employees. The attachments supply further details.

These are the bare legal requirements of which you should be aware. We have not attempted to prescribe the good judgment and sense of propriety that must be expected of all persons who participate in the President's election campaign. Should any questions arise on matters of either legality or propriety, concerning your official actions, please contact Mr. Kenneth Lazarus (Ext. 6297) or Mr. Dudley Chapman (Ext. 6725) in the Office of the Counsel to the President. Advice on the conduct of the campaign itself should be sought from counsel to the Republican National Committee or to the President's principal political committee, as appropriate.

Philip W. Buchen
Counsel to the President

1. Restrictions on who may participate (Civil Restrictions):

The Provisions of Title 5, U.S.C. Sec. 7321, et. seq. and implementing regulations (5 CFR Part 733) may be summarized as follows:

- (a) General. Generally, Government employees are prohibited from taking "an active part in political management or political campaigns", or from using their official authority or influence "for the purpose of interfering with or affecting the result of an election" (5 U.S.C. 7324; See also 5 U.S.C. 7322, and Executive Order 11222).

- (b) Types of Employees Covered. With very few exceptions, all Federal employees in the Executive Branch of the Government (including employees of the Postal Service) are subject to the political activity provisions of Federal law. These provisions apply to full-time and part-time employees in both the competitive and excepted service. Those who are employed on an intermittent or occasional basis, such as experts or consultants, are only covered by the restrictions for the entire twenty-four hours of any day of actual employment.

Title 5, U.S.C. Sec. 7324 exempts certain specified officers and employees from the prohibition on taking an active part in political management or in political campaigns. These are:

- (i) An employee paid from the appropriation for the office of the President;

- (ii) The head or assistant head of an Executive department or military department; and

- (iii) An employee appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, who determines policies to be pursued by the United States in its relations with foreign powers or in the nationwide administration of Federal laws.

As to White House personnel, the test is which appropriation is used to pay the employee's salary. While the Civil Service Commission has interpreted this provision to exempt persons paid from appropriations to the White House Office and Special Assistance to the President (Office of the Vice President), it has determined that employees paid from other appropriations for the Executive Office of the President, including those of the Domestic Council, OTP, OMB, and NSC, are subject to the Act. The Executive Director of the Domestic Council is paid from the White House Office appropriations and is exempt; the remainder of the Council's employees are paid from a separate appropriation and are covered. All detailed employees are fully subject to the Act.

Schedule C employees and NEA's, in the departments and agencies and in the Executive Office of the President who are not paid from the appropriations for the Office of the President, are also subject to this prohibition, despite the policy-making nature of their duties.

- (c) Employees on Leave. A Federal employee subject to the political activity laws and regulations continues to be covered while on annual leave, sick leave, leave without pay, administrative leave, or furlough.
- (d) Exemptions. The law exempts all officers and employees from the prohibition on taking an active part in political management or in political campaigns in connection with a non-partisan election. This is an election (and the preceding campaign) in which none of the candidates is to be nominated or elected as representing a political party whose candidates for presidential elector received votes at the last preceding election. Also exempted is activity relating to a question which is not specifically identified with a National or State political party, such as constitutional amendments, referendums, and approval of municipal ordinances (5 U. S. C. 7326).

- (e) Political Management. Membership in a political party, organization, or club is permitted, but the employee may not hold office in the party, organization, or club, or be a member of any of its committees. He may attend meetings open to the general membership and vote on candidates and issues, but he may not take an active part in the management of the club, organization, or party.

Attendance as a spectator at a political convention is permitted. However, the employee is not allowed to take part in the deliberations or proceedings of the convention or any of its committees. He may not be a candidate for, or serve as, a delegate, alternate, or proxy at such a convention.

Volunteer work for a partisan candidate, campaign committee, political party, or nominating convention of a political party is prohibited, whether the work involves contact with the public or not. If, however, an employee engages in a profession or business, such as a musician in a band or orchestra which participates in parades, public events and similar functions, he may perform in that capacity even though the particular event is politically sponsored.

- (f) Political Campaigns; Candidacy. An employee may not be a candidate in a partisan election for any public office.

Primary and run-off elections to nominate candidates of political parties are partisan even though no party designation appears on the ballot.

- (g) Political Campaigns; Campaigning. As noted above, an employee may express his individual opinion on political subjects and candidates (5 U.S.C. 7324). This is frequently done by the employee wearing a badge or button on his person, or displaying a sticker or poster on his car or house.

An employee may not campaign for a candidate in a partisan election by making speeches, writing on behalf of the candidate, or soliciting voters to support or oppose a candidate.

An employee may attend a political meeting or rally which is open to the general membership of an organization or the public, including committee meetings of political organizations. However, he may not serve on a committee that organizes or directs activities at a partisan campaign meeting or rally.

An employee may sign nominating petitions for candidates in a partisan election for public office, but may not originate or circulate such petitions.

- (h) Contributions. An employee may make a financial contribution to a political party or organization. However, he may not solicit or collect political contributions (5 U.S.C. 7323).

2. Improper use of Government office (Criminal):

It is a Federal crime for a candidate in a Federal election to procure support in his candidacy by directly or indirectly promising to support the appointment of any person to public or private position (18 U.S.C. 599); to directly or indirectly promise any employment, position, compensation, contract, appointment or other benefit made possible in whole or in part by Act of Congress to any person as consideration, favor, or reward for any political activity or for the support of or opposition to any candidate or any political party in connection with a primary or general election (18 U.S.C. 600); or to directly or indirectly deprive or threaten to deprive any person of any employment, position or other benefit made possible by Act of Congress on account of any political activity, support of, or opposition to any candidate or any political party in any election (18 U.S.C. 601).

3. Interference and Intimidation (Criminal):

It is a Federal crime:

- (a) to interfere with the right of any other person to vote as he may choose for or against any candidate for Federal elective office by intimidation, threats, coercion or attempts to intimidate, threaten or coerce

(18 U.S.C. 594), or to use any part of an appropriation for relief or public works projects or to exercise or administer any authority under any appropriation act for the purpose of interfering with any individual's right to vote in a Federal election (18 U.S.C. 598);

- (b) for a person employed in any administrative position by the United States, or by any department or agency thereof, in connection with any activity which is financed in whole or in part by loans or grants made by the United States, or any department or agency thereof, to use his official authority for the purpose of interfering with, or affecting, the nomination or the election of any candidate for Federal elective office (18 U.S.C. 595);
- (c) for any member of Congress, officer, employee or consultant of the Federal government to discharge or promote or degrade or in any manner change the official rank or compensation of any other member of Congress, officer, employee or consultant for giving or withholding any contribution of money or other thing of value for any political purposes (18 U.S.C. 606).

4. Proper identification of campaign literature and political agents (Criminal):

It is a Federal crime to distribute written or printed campaign material relating to a candidate which does not identify its source (18 U.S.C. 612); or for a candidate for Federal elective office or an employee or agent of such candidate to participate in any plan to misrepresent an individual as acting on behalf of another candidate which representation is damaging to that candidate (18 U.S.C. 617).

5. Political contributions and Expenditures (Criminal and Civil):

(a) Use of Federal Premises

It is a Federal crime to solicit or receive any contribution of money or other thing of value for any political purpose in any room or building occupied officially by a member of Congress, officer, employee or consultant of the Federal government (18 U.S.C. 603).

(b) Contributions among Government employees

It is a Federal crime for any member of Congress, officer, employee or consultant of the United States or department or agency thereof, to directly or indirectly solicit or receive any political contributions from any other Federal officer, employee, consultant or member of Congress (18 U.S.C. 602) or for any person in the service of the United States or any department or agency thereof, to directly or indirectly give or hand over to any other person in the service of the United States, any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the promotion of any political object (18 U.S.C. 607).

(c) Proscribed classes of contributors

(1) Corporations and Unions

It is a Federal crime for national banks, corporations and labor organizations (18 U.S.C. 610), Government contractors (18 U.S.C. 611), and for foreign nationals (18 U.S.C. 613) to contribute to the campaigns of candidates for Federal elective office. However, provision is made for corporations, unions and contractors to establish funds to which members and employees may contribute voluntarily.

(2) Government Contractors

It is a crime for individuals as well as corporations having government contracts to make or solicit political contributions (18 U.S.C. 611).

(3) Persons on Relief

It is a Federal crime to solicit or receive any payment for any political purpose from any person who is receiving any work relief funded by an Act of Congress (18 U.S.C. 604); or to furnish or disclose for political purposes any list or names of persons receiving such relief funded by an Act of Congress (18 U.S.C. 605).

(d) Contributions in name of another

It is a Federal crime to make a campaign contribution in the name of another or to permit one's name to be used to effect such a contribution (18 U.S.C. 614).

(e) Limitations on contributions

With certain exceptions, it is a Federal crime for any individual to contribute more than $1,000 to any single candidate for Federal elective office or more than $25,000 in aggregate political contributions in any calendar year (18 U.S.C. 608); or to make a contribution in currency (as opposed to check) in excess of $100 (18 U.S.C. 615).

(f) Mandatory channeling of funds through political committees

Under the new Federal election campaign laws, all contributions must be deposited with an authorized political committee which is obliged to keep records of both contributions and expenditures.

(g) The meaning of "contribution"

The term "contribution" is defined differently for purposes of the various statutes referred to in this memorandum. An original donation of funds for a political purpose is always a contribution; and in some cases a transfer between different political committees may be a contribution by statutory definition. Special care should be taken to avoid any physical handling of political funds in a Federal building or premises. Counsel for the relevant political committee should be consulted before engaging in receipt or solicitation of political funds.

(h) Expenses paid by the Republican National Committee (RNC) •

RNC funds may be used for political activities of the Presidency which are of benefit to the party. Until the President is formally nominated, political expenses uniquely on his behalf as distinct from the party should be paid from his own campaign funds.
