MR. CARY, MR. MORGENS, MR. BENJAMIN, MR. SEGEL, DISTINGUISHED OFFICERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS DAY COMMITTEE, OTHER DISTINGUISHED GUESTS, AND LADIES AND GENTLEMEN. IT IS A DISTINCT PLEASURE AND A HIGH PRIVILEGE TO APPEAR BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS
ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA--THE PRINCIPAL BIPARTISAN ORGANIZATION ENGAGED IN PROMOTING PEACE AND JUSTICE THROUGH INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION.

Apologize - tardiness

Lots of advise
Shouldn't -
come here
certainly shouldn't go to attack or to humiliate

YOUR ORGANIZATION WORKS 24 HOURS A DAY AT THE TASK OF
HELPING TO SOLVE THE UN'S PROBLEMS. THIS IS A MOST WORTHY MISSION, FOR I BELIEVE IT WOULD BE A CATASTROPHIC BLOW TO OUR HOPES FOR LASTING PEACE IN THE WORLD IF THE UNITED NATIONS WERE TO BREAK ASUNDER.

THE UN IS A VITAL ORGANIZATION IN THE OVERALL DRIVE BY MEN
OF GOODWILL EVERYWHERE TO MAKE THE DREAM OF WORLD PEACE A REALITY.
THE LEADERSHIP OF THE UNITED STATES AND SUCCESSES IN WORLD DIPLOMACY ARE OTHER PARTS OF THE PICTURE.

WE HAVE JUST SEEN SECRETARY OF STATE HENRY KISSINGER SHUTTLE BACK AND FORTH FROM ONE MIDEAST CAPITAL TO ANOTHER AND FINALLY BRING OFF WHAT MUST BE RATED AS THE GREATEST DIPLOMATIC TRIUMPH OF THIS CENTURY--AND PERHAPS ANY OTHER.

*g is Americans
We are*

PROUD of his accomplishments!

With pride 2 p
~~LET ME AT THIS POINT~~ PAY TRIBUTE TO THE INTELLIGENCE,

THE PERSISTENCE AND THE SHEER PHYSICAL ENDURANCE OF DR. KISSINGER.

However
n
WE OWE A TRIBUTE, TOO, TO THE MAN WHO SENT DR. KISSINGER ON THIS

JOURNEY FOR PEACE, WHO TOLD HIM TO "HANG IN THERE," WHO TOLD HIM

TO STAY THE EXTRA HOURS, DAYS AND WEEKS TO HELP THE PARTIES TAKE THE

FIRST STEPS TOWARD PEACE--THE MAN IN CHARGE OF U.S. FOREIGN POLICY,

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

In addition

I WOULD LIKE ALSO TO PRAISE THE UNITED STATES SENATE FOR

1

DECISIVELY REJECTING LAST THURSDAY PROPOSALS TO UNILATERALLY REDUCE

On the other hand

THE NUMBER OF AMERICAN TROOPS OVERSEAS. I STRONGLY FAVOR A MUTUAL

1

REDUCTION IN FORCES. UNILATERAL U.S. TROOP CUTS WOULD UNDERMINE OUR

NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE SOVIET UNION DIRECTED AT MUTUAL FORCE REDUCTIONS

IN CENTRAL EUROPE.

THE SENATE ACTION IS A HEALTHY REBUFF TO THOSE WHO WOULD PUSH US IN THE DIRECTION OF NEO-ISOLATIONISM. FOR THE UNITED STATES
TO WITHDRAW INTO A SHELL OF ISOLATIONISM IN THE SEVENTIES WOULD BE TRAGIC FOR AMERICA AND WOULD DASH EVERY HOPE FOR PEACE IN THE WORLD.

THE CURRENT WORLD VIEW OF THE UN IS BOUND UP VERY CLOSELY WITH THE MIDEAST SITUATION. SINCE LAST OCTOBER THERE HAS BEEN A DRAMATIC RESURGENCE IN THE PRESTIGE OF THE UN DUE TO THE UN'S ROLE IN COMPLEMENTING AMERICAN POLICY IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

NOT ONLY HAVE WE BEEN ABLE TO <sup>negotiate</sup> ~~ARRANGE~~ CEASE-FIRES BETWEEN EGYPTIAN AND ISRAELI TROOPS AND BETWEEN ISRAELI AND SYRIAN FORCES,
BUT WE HAVE SUCCESSFULLY CREATED THE UN PEACE FORCES NEEDED TO BRING ABOUT THESE DISENGAGEMENTS. THESE WERE KEY STEPS, ALMOST MIRACULOUS STEPS, TOWARD THE ENDURING PEACE WE SEEK IN THE MIDDLE EAST. THE UNITED STATES AND THE UNITED NATIONS ACHIEVED TOGETHER WHAT NEITHER OF THEM COULD HAVE ACCOMPLISHED ALONE--ONE OF THE GREAT BREAKTHROUGHS
FOR PEACE IN THIS GENERATION.

AS WE LOOK TOWARD THE CELEBRATION OF NATIONAL UN DAY
NEXT FALL, WE MUST ALL RECOGNIZE THAT THE WORLD WOULD BE A FAR MORE FEARFUL AND FEARSOME PLACE WITHOUT THE UNITED NATIONS. WE SHOULD BE AGREED, I THINK, THAT THE UN IS NOT ONLY DESIRABLE BUT NECESSARY.

Vandenberg

THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION WAS BORN 29 YEARS AGO, FORMED
IN THE HOPE THAT IT COULD HELP SHIELD THE WORLD FROM THE TERRIBLE SCOURGE OF WAR. IT WAS DEVELOPED, TOO, BECAUSE THE TERRORS AND
OF WAR
WASTE ARE A DISEASE SPAWNED BY SOCIAL DISTURBANCE AND TURMOIL. IT
GREW FROM AN AWARENESS THAT WAR AND THE PROBLEMS OF LIVING TOGETHER
ON ONE EARTH ARE CLOSELY ENTWINED. THEY MUST BE APPROACHED AS ONE.
THIS THE UN DOES.

WE OF THE GENERATION THAT STORMED THE BEACHES AT NORMANDY
AND BRAVED BLAZING GUNS ON THE ATOLLS OF THE PACIFIC VIEWED THE BRAND NEW UN AS AN AUTOMATIC PEACE MACHINE OF MAGICAL PROMISE. WE HAVE LEARNED FROM GRIM EXPERIENCE THAT WHAT WE HAVE IS REALLY A DO-IT-YOURSELF KIT, A KIT WE HAVE TO WORK AT AND WITH IF WE ARE GOING TO MAKE THE UN WORK. WE HAVE LEARNED THAT TO MAKE IT WORK WE HAVE TO MASTER THE DIFFICULT ARTS OF COOPERATION AND COMPROMISE.

IS THAT ANY REASON TO TURN AWAY FROM THE UN IN FRUSTRATION AND DISILLUSIONMENT?

TO TURN AWAY FROM THE UN WOULD BE IRRATIONAL AND DANGEROUS. THE UNITED STATES NEEDS THE UN. WE NEED THE UN AS MUCH AS THE UN NEEDS US.

THE UN CAN BE MADE TO WORK. IT CAN BE MADE TO WORK TO THE EXTENT THAT ITS MEMBERS ARE WILLING TO MAKE IT WORK.

THE UN HAS ITS PROBLEMS, OF COURSE, MANY PROBLEMS.

CHIEF OF THESE IS THE PROBLEM OF CONFLICTING PRIORITIES. IT IS A PROBLEM WHICH FLOWS FROM THE FACT THAT ONE BILLION PEOPLE

FORMERLY IN COLONIAL STATUS HAVE BECOME 70 NEW NATIONS WITH NEW

VOICES AND NEW DEMANDS.

WHO IS TO DETERMINE THE PRIORITIES IN THE UN? IS IT MORE URGENT TO SLOW DOWN WORLD POPULATION GROWTH THAN TO FOSTER TRADE AND INVESTMENT FOR DEVELOPING COUNTRIES? WHO IS TO HAVE THE DOMINANT VOICE IN SUCH MATTERS? I SAY THE TERMS OF COOPERATION--FOR US AS FOR EVERY MEMBER--MUST BE WORKED OUT BY NEGOTIATION AND COMPROMISE. AS I SAID BEFORE, THE UN NEEDS US--BUT WE NEED IT, TOO.

LET'S LOOK AT THE TERMS OF OUR MUTUAL NEEDS.

THE UN MAJORITY NEEDS THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER

ADVANCED NATIONS

1) --TO HELP DEVELOP LOW-INCOME NATIONS THROUGH TRADE AND

INVESTMENT.

2) --TO COPE WITH DROUGHT, FAMINE AND NATURAL DISASTER

(drought)

3) --TO EXERT INFLUENCE AIMED AT COMPLETING THE DECOLONIZATION

MOVEMENT.

4) --AND TO EXERCISE RESTRAINT IN THE USE OF THEIR GREAT

MILITARY POWER.

WE, ON OUR SIDE, NEED THE UN MEMBERSHIP

1) --TO SUPPLY CONTINGENTS FOR UN PEACEKEEPING FORCES IN DANGER SPOTS WHERE GREAT-POWER TROOPS WOULD ONLY INFLAME THE SITUATION.

2) --TO HELP CLEAN UP THE OCEANS, CONSERVE NATURAL RESOURCES, AND GRADUALLY LEVEL OFF THE MENACING GROWTH IN WORLD POPULATION.

THESE ARE NOBLE OBJECTIVES AND THEY ARE POSSIBLE OF ATTAINMENT. PROGRESS TOWARD FULFILLMENT OF WORLD NEEDS THROUGH UN ACTION HAS BEEN NOT ONLY DISTINCT BUT MEASUREABLE.

SUCH PROGRESS IS THE ANSWER TO THOSE PEOPLE WHO REFER DEROGATORILY TO THE UN AS A WORLD DEBATING SOCIETY, SWAMPED IN MILLIONS OF WORDS AND COMPLETELY INEFFECTIVE.

THE UN, ~~IT~~ OF COURSE, <sup>HAS</sup> HAD ITS FAILURES. BUT IT HAS HAD

ITS SHARE OF SUCCESSES AS WELL. AND THE FAILURES HAVE BEEN DUE,

AS I MENTIONED EARLIER, TO THE FAILURE OF KEY UN MEMBERS TO LIVE UP

TO THE UN CHARTER AND NOT BECAUSE OF ANY INTRINSIC FLAW IN THE

UNITED NATIONS CONCEPT.

WHAT ARE THE UN'S SUCCESSES? THEY ARE MANY, AND THEY ARE MOST IMPRESSIVE. FOR EXAMPLE:

1) --LAST OCTOBER THE SECURITY COUNCIL CREATED THE 7,000-MAN
PEACE FORCE SENT TO THE MIDDLE EAST TO SECURE THE ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN
CEASE-FIRE AND THE DISENGAGEMENT OF HOSTILE ARMIES. IT WAS THE FIRST SUCH UN FORCE THAT HAD POSITIVE SUPPORT FROM THE SOVIET UNION, AND THE FIRST THAT CANNOT BE DISMISSED BY THE SOLE DECISION OF THE HOST COUNTRY.

IT IS A VITAL PIECE IN THE SETTLEMENT WORKED OUT SO MASTERFULLY
BY PRESIDENT NIXON AND SECRETARY KISSINGER, WITH THE COOPERATION
OF THE SOVIET UNION, AND THE LEADERS OF EGYPT AND ISRAEL. NOW A SIMILAR DISENGAGEMENT HAS BEEN AGREED UPON BY ISRAEL AND SYRIA, AND A UN PEACE-KEEPING FORCE IS PART OF THAT ARRANGEMENT. ~~TOO.~~

2) --A FEW WEEKS AGO IRAN AND IRAQ WERE ABOUT TO ENGAGE IN HOSTILITIES OVER A BORDER DISPUTE. THROUGH THE QUIET WORK OF SECRETARY GENERAL WALDHEIM AND A SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE WHO WENT TO THE AREA ON A FACT-FINDING MISSION, IRAN AND IRAQ WERE ABLE TO DEFUSE THEIR QUARREL AND TO ENGAGE IN BONA-FIDE BILATERAL NEGOTIATIONS
TO RESOLVE THE ISSUES IN DISPUTE. IN MATTERS OF WAR, AS IN MEDICINE, PREVENTION IS BETTER THAN CURE.

--A YEAR AGO THE UN ENVIRONMENT PROGRAM CAME INTO EXISTENCE TO LAUNCH A GLOBAL ATTACK AGAINST POLLUTION OF THE SEAS AND SKIES AND ECOSYSTEMS OF THE WORLD. ITS NEW "EARTHWATCH" SYSTEM WILL ENABLE US FOR THE FIRST TIME TO KNOW WHAT ENVIRONMENTAL DANGERS WE ARE CREATING AND WHAT STEPS ARE NEEDED TO SAFEGUARD THE ENVIRONMENT FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS.

--UN DISASTER RELIEF PROGRAMS, WITH LARGE U.S. SUPPORT, HAVE DONE IMMENSE SERVICE IN THE HUMAN TRAGEDIES OF BANGLADESH AND THE
Drought
SAHELIAN DROUGHT IN AFRICA.

--THE UN IS HOLDING A WORLD CONFERENCE OF GOVERNMENTS THIS SUMMER ON THE PROBLEM OF THE POPULATION EXPLOSION. MEANWHILE, THE UN FUND FOR POPULATION ACTIVITIES IS NOW BUDGETING $54 MILLION A YEAR
TO ADVISE THOSE GOVERNMENTS WHICH REQUEST HELP ON POPULATION RESEARCH
AND FAMILY PLANNING. BY UN DECLARATION, THIS IS WORLD POPULATION YEAR.

WITH THE EMPHASIS BEING GIVEN TO THE POPULATION EXPLOSION, WE NATURALLY FOCUS ON THE RELATED PROBLEM OF WORLD POVERTY. THE WAR ON POVERTY
HAS MOVED TO THE FOREFRONT OF THE WORLD'S AGENDA. NO PROBLEM IS MORE IMPORTANT TO MANKIND. THE SOLUTION TO THE PROBLEM OF WORLD POVERTY IS IMMENSELY DIFFICULT, JUST AS A SIMILAR CHALLENGE IS HARD TO OVERCOME IN AMERICA. BUT WE MUST NEVER DESPAIR OF ACHIEVING THAT SOLUTION AT HOME OR WORLDWIDE--BECAUSE IT IS BASIC TO ACHIEVING WORLD PEACE.

THE UNITED NATIONS, WITH STRONG U.S. SUPPORT, HAS VIGOROUSLY ATTACKED THE PROBLEM OF WORLD POVERTY--THROUGH THE WORLD BANK, THE INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION AND THE UN DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM. RESULTS THUS FAR ARE SPOTTY, BUT WE MUST PERSIST IN OUR EFFORTS.

WE HAVE SEEN SOME DEVELOPING NATIONS, RICH IN PETROLEUM AND OTHER RAW MATERIALS, SEEK TO USE THEIR RESOURCES AS A BARGAINING WEAPON AGAINST THE INDUSTRIALIZED NATIONS. WE COULD, IN TURN, WITHHOLD FOOD SUPPLIES FROM THEM.
BUT NOBODY WINS AT THAT SORT OF GAME. IT IS DESTRUCTIVE OF NATIONS AND OF PEOPLES. ALL OF US MUST FIND CONSTRUCTIVE WAYS TO COMBAT POVERTY AND HUNGER.

INTERNATIONAL ACTION IS NECESSARY ON A BROAD SCALE TO ATTACK WORLD HUNGER--AND THOSE IN A KEY POSITION TO HELP ARE THE OIL-RICH MIDDLE EASTERN COUNTRIES. WE MUST ALL POINT NOW TOWARD THE WORLD FOOD CONFERENCE TO BE HELD IN OCTOBER IN ROME.

SECRETARY KISSINGER, SPEAKING TO THE APRIL SESSION OF THE UN

GENERAL ASSEMBLY, SET FORTH AN IMAGINATIVE LIST OF PRINCIPLES AND PRIORITIES

WHICH HE HOPED MIGHT HELP THE NATIONS FIND A COMMON APPROACH TO THEIR PROBLEMS.

HIS PROPOSAL DEALT WITH ENERGY, RESOURCES, FOOD, FERTILIZER, POPULATION, TECHNOLOGY,

MONEY AND INVESTMENT. REGRETTABLY, NO ACTION HAS BEEN TAKEN ON THAT PROPOSAL

TO DATE. AND THE HUNGRY PEOPLES OF THE WORLD CONTINUE TO STARVE.

THE KISSINGER PROPOSAL WAS AN AMERICAN PROPOSAL. IT WAS SUBMITTED WITH EMPHASIS ON GOOD FAITH. IT IS NOT FOR LACK OF INITIATIVE ON THE PART OF THE UNITED STATES THAT THE WAR ON WORLD POVERTY IS FALTERING.

SPEAKING OF THE AMERICAN ROLE IN UN PROGRAMS, I FIRMLY BELIEVE THAT THE UNITED STATES WILL REMAIN A WILLING AND FAITHFUL PARTNER IN THE UN. AND
THE UN, I FEEL SURE, WILL RISE ABOVE ITS MASS OF PROBLEMS TO REACH NEW HEIGHTS
IN THE SEARCH FOR WORLD STABILITY, PROSPERITY AND PEACE.

IT WAS WRITTEN LONG AGO THAT WHERE THERE IS NO VISION THE PEOPLE

PERISH. THAT IS STILL TRUE. IT IS EQUALLY TRUE THAT BEAUTIFUL VISIONS WITHOUT

THE PRACTICAL MEANS TO TRANSLATE THEM INTO EVERYDAY FACT ARE NOT VERY USEFUL.

I THINK WE HAVE A CLEAR VISION OF THE KIND OF WORLD WE WANT:

PEACEFUL, SECURE, OPEN, PROGRESSIVE AND COOPERATIVE. IN THE UN WE HAVE MANY PRACTICAL WAYS TO MAKE THIS VISION MEANINGFUL FOR MEN AND WOMEN EVERYWHERE.

LET'S USE THEM. LET'S MAKE OUR VISION OF WORLD PEACE A REALITY. THE

UNA OF THE USA CAN HELP. THANK YOU.

FOR RELEASE ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ AT 8:30 P.M. MONDAY

Mr. Cary, ~~Mr. Segal~~, Mr. Morgens, ~~Mr. Benjamin~~ <sup>Mr. Benjamin</sup>, ~~Mr. Segal~~ <sup>Mr. Segal</sup>, distinguished officers of the United Nations Day Committee, other distinguished guests, and ladies and gentlemen.

It is a distinct pleasure and a high privilege to appear before the United Nations Association of the United States of America--the principal bipartisan organization engaged in ~~promoting~~ promoting peace and justice through international cooperation.

Your organization works 24 hours a day at the task of helping to solve the UN's problems. This ~~task~~ <sup>mission</sup> is a most worthy ~~task~~ for I believe it would be a catastrophic blow to our hopes for lasting peace in the world if the United Nations were to break asunder.

As we look toward the celebration of UN Day next fall, we must all recognize that the world would be a far more fearful and fearsome place without the United Nations. We should be agreed, I think, that the UN is not only desirable but necessary.

The United Nations Organization was born 29 years ago, formed in the hope that it could help shield the world from the terrible scourge of war. It was developed, too, ~~because~~ because the terrors and waste of war are a disease spawned by social disturbance and turmoil. INSERT ~~XXXX~~ A...

The UN is a vital organization in the overall drive by men of ~~good~~ goodwill everywhere to make the dream of world peace a reality. The leadership of the United States and successes in world ~~diplomacy~~ diplomacy are other ~~parts~~ parts of the picture.

We have just seen Secretary of State Henry Kissinger shuttle back and forth from one Mideast capital to another and ~~finally~~ finally bring off what must be rated as the ~~diplomatic triumph~~ greatest ~~diplomatic~~ diplomatic triumph of this century--and perhaps any other.

Let me at this point pay tribute to the intelligence, the persistence and the sheer physical endurance of Dr. Kissinger. We owe a tribute, too, to the man who ~~sent Dr. Kissinger on this Journey for peace,~~ sent Dr. Kissinger on this Journey for peace, who told him to "hang in there," who told him to stay the extra hours, days and weeks to help the parties take the first steps toward peace--the man in charge of U.S. foreign policy, the President of the United States.

The current world view of the UN is bound up very closely with the Mideast situation. Since last October there has been a dramatic resurgence in the prestige ~~of the UN~~ of the UN ~~due to the UN's role in~~ due to the UN's role in complementing American policy in the Middle East.

Not only have we been able to arrange cease-fires ~~between~~ <sup>Egyptian and</sup> ~~the~~ Israeli ~~troops~~ troops and between Israeli and Syrian forces, but we have successfully created the ~~UN~~ UN peace forces needed to bring about these disengagements. These were key ~~steps~~ steps, almost miraculous steps, toward the enduring ~~peace~~ peace we seek in the Middle East. The United States and the United Nations achieved together what neither of them could have ~~accomplished~~ accomplished alone--one of the great breakthroughs for peace in this ~~generation~~ generation.

ADD TO INSERT "A"

I would like also to praise the United States Senate for decisively rejecting last Thursday proposals to unilaterally reduce the number of American troops overseas. I strongly favor a mutual reduction in forces. Unilateral ~~unilateral~~ U.S. troop cuts would undermine our negotiations with the Soviet Union directed at mutual ~~force~~ <sup>force</sup> reductions in Central Europe. The Senate action is a healthy rebuff to those <sup>who</sup> would push us in the direction of neo-isolationism. For the United States to withdraw into a shell of isolationism in the ~~Seventies~~ <sup>Seventies</sup> would be tragic for America <sup>would dash</sup> and every hope for peace in the world.

~~Handwritten scribble~~

cooperation and compromise. ~~It~~ Is that any reason to turn away from the UN in ~~frustration and~~ ~~large~~ ~~based~~ of disillusionment?

To turn away from the UN ~~is a mistake~~ would be irrational and dangerous. ~~We~~ The United States need the UN. We need the UN as much as the UN needs us.

The UN can be made to work. It can be made to work to the extent that its members are willing to make it work.

The UN has its problems, of course. Many problems. Chief ~~is~~ of these is the problem of conflicting priorities. It is a problem which flows from the fact that one billion people formerly in colonial status have become 70 new nations with new voices ~~and~~ and new demands.

Who is to determine the priorities in the UN? Is it more urgent to ~~slow~~ slow down world population growth than to foster trade and investment for developing countries? ~~Certainly the greatest current priority is to create a UN peace-keeping force in the Middle East.~~ Who is to have the dominant voice in such matters? I say the terms of cooperation--for us as for every member--must be worked out by negotiation and compromise. As I said before, the UN needs us--but we need it, too.

Let's look at the terms of our mutual needs.

The UN majority needs the United States <sup>and</sup> and other advanced nations

- To help develop low-income nations through trade and investment.
- To cope with drought, famine and natural disaster.
- To exert influence aimed at completing the decolonization movement.
- ~~And~~ to exercise restraint in the use of ~~their~~ their great military power.

We, on our side, need the UN <sup>membership</sup> ~~majority~~

- To supply contingents for UN peacekeeping forces in danger spots where great-power troops would only inflame the situation.
- To help clean up the oceans, conserve natural resources, and gradually level off the menacing growth in world population.

These are noble objectives and they are possible of attainment. Progress toward the ~~the~~ fulfillment of ~~the~~ world needs through UN action has been not only distinct but measureable.

Such progress ~~is the answer to~~ <sup>is the answer to</sup> those people who refer derogatorily to the UN as a world debating society, ~~swamp~~ <sup>swamp</sup> in millions of words and completely ineffective.

The UN has, of course, had its failures. But it has had its share of successes ~~as~~ as well. And the failures ~~are~~ have been due, as I mentioned earlier, to the ~~the~~ failure of key UN members to live up to the UN Charter and not because of any intrinsic ~~defect in the UN itself~~ flaw in the United Nations concept.

What are the UN's successes? They are many, and they are most impressive. For example:

--Last October the Security Council created ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> 7,000-man peace force ~~composed of troops from a dozen small countries and sent~~ to the Middle East to secure the Israeli-Egyptian cease-fire and the disengagement of hostile armies. It was the first such UN force that had positive support from the Soviet Union, and the first that cannot be dismissed by the sole decision of the host country. ~~It is a vital piece in the pattern of the settlement worked out so masterfully by President Nixon and Secretary Kissinger.~~ <sup>with the cooperation of the Soviet Union and the U.S.</sup> Now a similar ~~disengagement has been agreed upon by Israel and Syria, and a UN peace-keeping force~~ <sup>is</sup> part of that arrangement, too.

~~→~~ INSERT "B"

--A year ago the UN Environment Program came into existence to launch a global attack against pollution of the seas and skies and ecosystems of the world. Its new "Earthwatch" system will enable us for the first time to know what environmental dangers we are creating and what steps are needed to safeguard the environment for future generations.

INSERT "B"...

--A few weeks ago Iran and Iraq were about to engage in hostilities over a border dispute. Through the quiet work of ~~the~~ Secretary General Waldheim and a special representative who went to the area on a fact-finding mission, Iran and Iraq were able to defuse their quarrel and to engage in bona-fide ~~the~~ bilateral negotiations to resolve the issues in dispute. In matters of war, as in medicine, prevention is better than cure.

, with large U.S. support,
--UN disaster relief programs have done immense service in the human tragedies of Bangladesh and the Sahelian drought in Africa.

--The UN is holding a world conference of governments this summer on the problem of the population explosion. Meanwhile, the UN Fund for Population Activities is now budgeting $54 million a year to advise ~~governments~~ those governments which request help on population research and family planning. By UN declaration, this is World Population Year.

With the emphasis being given to

~~From the population explosion, the UN population explosion,~~ related we ~~must~~ naturally ~~focus~~ focus on the/problem of world poverty. The war has on poverty/moved to the forefront of the world's agenda. ~~axggnnznznzn~~ No problem is more important to mankind. The solution to the problem of world poverty is ~~immensely~~ just as the similar challenges we have to overcome in America, immensely difficult. at home or world-wide But we must never despair of achieving that ~~solution~~ solution--because it is basic to achieving world peace.

~~The United Nations, with strong U.S. support,~~ has ~~vigorously~~ ~~attacked~~ attacked the problem of world poverty--through the World Bank, the International Development and Association, the UN Development Program. Results thus far are spotty, but we must persist in our efforts.

We have seen some ~~rich~~ developing nations, rich in petroleum and other raw materials, ~~not~~ seek to use their resources as a bargaining weapon against the industrialized nations. We could, in turn, withhold food supplies from them. But nobody wins ~~at~~ at that sort of game. It is destructive of nations and of peoples. ~~We must find constructive ways~~ All of us must find ~~constructive~~ constructive ways to combat poverty and hunger.

International ~~cooperation~~ action is necessary on a broad ~~x~~ scale to attack ~~combat~~ world hunger--and those ~~countries~~ in a ~~position~~ key ~~position~~ position to help are the oil-rich Middle Eastern countries. We must all point now toward the World Food Conference to be held in October in Rome.

Secretary Kissinger, speaking to the April session of the UN General Assembly, set forth an imaginative list of principles and priorities which he hoped might help the nations find a common approach to their problems. His proposal dealt with energy, resources, food, fertilizer, population, technology, money and investment. Regrettably, no action has been taken on that proposal to date. And the hungry peoples of the world continue to starve.

~~Today the main issues are drawn between the rich and the poor, the white and the black. This was not always the case and it need not always be the case in the future. But it is so today and has been for many years.~~

I most emphatically make the point that the Kissinger proposal was an American proposal. <sup>It was submitted with emphasis and good faith.</sup> It is not for lack of ~~initiative~~ initiative on the part of the United States that the war on world poverty is faltering.

~~At the same time we must recognize that there has been a drop in confidence between the UN and its strongest and most faithful supportive member, the United States.~~ <sup>which is reflected on the tapes</sup>

~~What is needed to restore that confidence and breathe new vigor into the UN is a spirit of understanding and compromise—a movement aimed at equitable sharing of overall UN costs and a reordering of UN member nation priorities.~~

~~If only that could be the spirit, the U.S. will remain a willing and faithful partner in the UN. And the UN will rise above this mass of problems to reach new heights of international accomplishment in the search for world stability and peace.~~

Speaking ~~of~~ of the American role in UN programs, I firmly believe that the United States will remain a willing and faithful partner in the UN. And the UN, I ~~will~~ feel sure, will rise above its mass of problems to reach new heights in the search for world stability, prosperity and peace.

It ~~was~~ was written long ago that where there is no vision the people perish. That is still true. It is equally true that ~~the~~ beautiful visions without the ~~practical~~ practical means to translate them into ~~reality~~ everyday fact are not very useful.

I think we have <sup>a clear</sup> ~~the~~ vision of the kind of world we want: Peaceful, secure, open, progressive and cooperative. In the ~~the~~ UN we have many ~~practical~~ practical ways to make this vision ~~the meaning of existence~~ meaningful for men and women everywhere. Let's use them. Let's make our vision of world peace a reality.

UNA of the USA
The ~~UN~~ can help. Thank you.

- To help clean up the oceans, conserve natural resources, and gradually level off the menacing growth in world population.

These are noble objectives and they are possible of attainment. Progress toward fulfillment of world needs through UN action has been not only distinct but measureable.

Such progress is the answer to those people who refer derogatorily to the UN as a world debating society, swamped in millions of words and completely ineffective.

The UN has, of course, had its failures. But it has had its share of successes as well. And the failures have been due, as I mentioned earlier, to the failure of key UN members to live up to the UN Charter and not because of any intrinsic flaw in the United Nations concept.

What are the UN's successes? They are many, and they are most impressive. For example:

-- Last October the Security Council created the 7,000-man peace force sent to the Middle East to secure the Israeli-Egyptian cease-fire and the disengagement of hostile armies. It was the first such UN force that had positive support from the Soviet Union, and the first that cannot be dismissed by the sole decision of the host country. It is a vital piece in the settlement worked out so masterfully by President Nixon and Secretary Kissinger, with the cooperation of the Soviet Union, and the leaders of Egypt and Israel. Now a similar disengagement has been agreed upon by Israel and Syria, and a UN peace-keeping force is part of that arrangement, too.

-- A few weeks ago Iran and Iraq were about to engage in hostilities over a border dispute. Through the quiet work of Secretary General Waldheim and a special representative who went to the area on a fact-finding mission, Iran and Iraq were able to defuse their quarrel and to engage in bona-fide bilateral negotiations to resolve the issues in dispute. In matters of war, as in medicine, prevention is better than cure.

-- A year ago the UN Environment Program came into existence to launch a global attack against pollution of the seas and skies and ecosystems of the world. Its new "Earthwatch" system will enable us for the first time to know what environmental dangers we are creating and what steps are needed to safeguard the environment for future generations.

-- UN disaster relief programs, with large U.S. support, have done immense service in the human tragedies of Bangladesh and the Sahelian drought in Africa.

-- The UN is holding a world conference of governments this summer on the problem of the population explosion. Meanwhile, the UN Fund for Population Activities is now budgeting $54 million a year to advise those governments which request help on population research and family planning. By UN declaration, this is World Population Year.

With the emphasis being given to the population explosion, we naturally focus on the related problem of world poverty. The war on poverty has moved to the forefront of the world's agenda. No problem is more important to mankind. The solution to the problem of world poverty is immensely difficult, just as a similar challenge is hard to overcome in America. But we must never despair of achieving that solution at home or world-wide -- because it is basic to achieving world peace.

The United Nations, with strong U.S. support, has vigorously attacked the problem of world poverty--through the World Bank, the International Development Association and the UN Development Program. Results thus far are spotty, but we must persist in our efforts.

We have seen some developing nations, rich in petroleum and other raw materials, seek to use their resources as a bargaining weapon against the industrialized nations. We could, in turn, withhold food supplies from them. But nobody wins at that sort of game. It is destructive of nations and of peoples. All of us must find constructive ways to combat poverty and hunger.

International action is necessary on a broad scale to attack world hunger -- and those in a key position to help are the oil-rich Middle Eastern countries. We must all point now toward the World Food Conference to be held in October in Rome.

Secretary Kissinger, speaking to the April session of the UN General Assembly, set forth an imaginative list of principles and priorities which he hoped might help the nations find a common approach to their problems. His proposal dealt with energy, resources, food, fertilizer, population, technology, money and investment. Regrettably, no action has been taken on that proposal to date. And the hungry peoples of the world continue to starve.

The Kissinger proposal was an American proposal. It was submitted with emphasis on good faith. It is not for lack of initiative on the part of the United States that the war on world poverty is faltering.

Speaking of the American role in UN programs, I firmly believe that the United States will remain a willing and faithful partner in the UN. And the UN, I feel sure, will rise above its mass of problems to reach new heights in the search for world stability, prosperity and peace.

It was written long ago that where there is no vision the people perish. That is still true. It is equally true that beautiful visions without the practical means to translate them into everyday fact are not very useful.

I think we have a clear vision of the kind of world we want: Peaceful, secure, open, progressive and cooperative. In the UN we have many practical ways to make this vision meaningful for men and women everywhere. Let's use them. Let's make our vision of world peace a reality. The UNA of the USA can help.

Thank you.

AMERICAN BUSINESS AND LABOR VISIT THE UN — JUNE 10, 1974

UNA

UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

NINTH ANNUAL DINNER INAUGURATING THE NATIONAL UN DAY PROGRAM

THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE GRAND BALLROOM, THE NEW YORK HILTON

There is a new climate that exists in the world, and more specifically, within the United Nations. Our enemies are not other nations or groups of humanity different from ourselves. Our enemies are hunger, disease, poverty, ignorance, hopelessness, fear, and hatred. Our great challenge is not in military confrontation but in harnessing the natural resources and industrial genius of humanity to assure better lives for all Americans and the entire family of man.

UN Day

Expressing our support for peace keeping
and peace building

UN Day is an International observance marking the anniversary of the United Nations, October 24, 1945. The UN General Assembly in 1947 adopted a US-sponsored resolution stating that October 24 "shall henceforth be officially called 'United Nations Day' and shall be devoted to making known to the peoples of the world the aims and achievements of the United Nations and to gaining their support for the work of the United Nations".

It is a national event proclaimed every year since 1947 by the President of the United States under the leadership of a National UN Day Chairman and a National UN Day Committee formed with the assistance of the United Nations Association of the United States

It is a community observance throughout the United States. Governors and Mayors appoint state and local UN Day chairmen to organize programs and issue UN Day proclamations. National and voluntary associations, through their chapters and individual members, sponsor and take part in these local observances, as do millions of elementary, high school and college students.

UN Day provides a rallying point to focus attention on the UN and its work. The American press rarely covers the day-to-day work of the United Nations except in times of crisis; thus, a serious information gap exists. Lack of information and understanding of the UN and its far-reaching activities have contributed to an erosion of support for the UN by the public and its elected officials.

The events of the past year, however, have put global interdependence on the front pages and have rekindled interest in international affairs. Effective observances of UN Day could lead to greater public awareness of the UN as the major global mechanism at work on many of today's problems. Evidence of solid grass roots support for the UN communicated to Washington will encourage more effective participation by the United States in the United Nations.

I think we can all agree that UN achievements have sometimes not met our expectations. But we can also agree that despite any shortcomings, it remains one of our best avenues for preserving peace in the world, and for tackling such great global problems as food, maritime resources, and population — the three problems our UN Day will focus on this year.

Frank T. Cary
National UN Day Chairman

I believe deeply that an effective worldwide organization must be developed if mankind is to build and maintain a satisfactory life on this planet.

It is clear that the United Nations represents man's best effort so far to develop such a world wide organization. We must build on what we have to develop it into an ever more effective institution. We dare not do otherwise in this world where communications and travel are becoming more rapid and where instruments of destruction are becoming more deadly.

Howard Morgens
Dinner Chairman

The Honorable Henry A. Kissinger
*Secretary of State,
before the Sixth Special Session of the United Nations General Assembly
April 15, 1974*

"As members of this Organization we are pledged not only to free the world from the scourge of war, but to free mankind from the fear of hunger, poverty and disease. The quest for justice and dignity — which finds expression in the economic and social articles of the United Nations Charter — has global meaning in an age of instantaneous communication. Improving the quality of human life has become a universal political demand, a technical possibility and a moral imperative."

... "The great issues of development can no longer realistically be perceived in terms of confrontation between the haves and have nots or as a struggle over the distribution of static wealth. Whatever our ideological belief or social structure, we are part of a single international economic system on which all of our national economic objectives depend. No nation or bloc of nations can unilaterally determine the shape of the future."

John Scali

Dr. Kurt Waldheim

It is now a commonplace that the nations of the world are interdependent and that their interdependence will inevitably and rapidly increase.

There is a natural human tendency to look to the past in times of crisis. But today we are facing a world of accelerating change and an entirely new range of interlocking problems — political, economic and social. We cannot return to the conditions of the past. We have no option but to concentrate on the realities of the present and on the prospects for the future. And the problems now confronting national Governments and international organizations are so vast and so complex that we have to deal with them in co-operation and as a community of nations.

If this is a sobering thought, it is also an inspiring one, for the very seriousness of the situation may bring about those developments in international relations which all appeals to reason and goodwill have so far been unable to achieve. The pursuit of short-term national interests by any nation or group of nations can no longer provide even a brief reprieve from the inevitable results of the present trends.

Dr. Kurt Waldheim
Secretary-General of the United Nations

There is, I trust, a mounting realization by rich and poor alike that the United Nations cannot reshape the world instantly to rid it of injustices no matter how just the cause — how deep the hurt and how bitter the frustration.

We can move, however, if responsible men and women of decent impulse join hands realistically to help our fellow human beings — by stages, by evolution, not in a pell-mell rush or by fiery speeches demanding retributions for past wrongs, real or imagined.

We cannot move faster than our public opinion will allow us, but we can move if we educate skeptics to the need to share and persuade more of the interdependence of us all.

My ability to do my job is in the end dependent on the efforts of people like you members of the National UN Day Committee. I value these efforts highly, and I want to thank you sincerely for them.

Joseph M. Segel
Chairman of the

The United Nations Association is action-oriented. It deals with specific problems and practical solutions. It finds answers by bringing together leaders in business, labor, government, and academic life . . . by communicating with large segments of the public and by inter-acting with other influential groups.

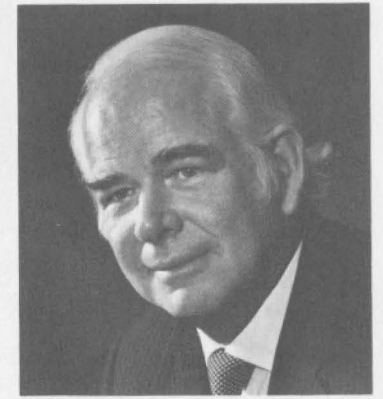

The United Nations Association involves scholars, bureaucrats and leaders from many fields. It involves household names and outstanding public figures, but it stretches far beyond them to encompass the principal 150 voluntary and service organizations throughout the US: organizations of professionals, labor unions, and charitable, educational, consumer, religious and health service groups. It includes hundreds of chapters and tens of thousands of members throughout America. And it works through many communications channels to bring the message of interdependence to Americans.

UNA is not an apologist and propagandist for the United Nations. If UNA has a partisan position, it is to encourage clear thinking about major problems in terms of global interdependence. The UN, as the most important international forum, symbolizes this approach and provides the means for carrying out many programs. But, as this booklet explains, UNA is concerned with a variety of other institutions and channels as well.

The United Nations Association of the United States of America is geared to this new perception of interdependence. UNA proceeds from the assumption that every American is indeed "caught up in the tides of world events," that each of us is shaped by the pull and push of human needs: for food and shelter, for peace and security, for technology and trade, for freedom and dignity. We believe that these shared needs compel nations to make more effective use of their common institutions. We believe that the United States, which is as much an idea as a nation, should be both influential and active in this endeavor.

UNA'S National Policy Panels

Cyrus Vance
Chairman UNA
Policy Studies Committee

Nicholas de B. Katzenbach
Chairman, UNA's Policy Panel
on the United Nations in the 1970's

Many groups examine international affairs; but UNA's Policy Study Panels have an added dimension. They are set apart by their track record of stimulating public response and influencing government and UN action. Legislators and agency officials pay attention. Media give wide coverage. Community groups throughout the country use the reports as the basis for discussion and recommendations to their Congressmen. The panels are not formed only of experts in the subject under discussion. Rather, the members bring to their panel open minds and the kind of stature in their own fields that will lend weight to the panel's findings.

Subjects for panels are first chosen by UNA's Policy Studies Committee, whose Chairman is Cyrus Vance. The Committee then invites a chairman and some 15 participants to work on that topic. Their deliberations may take anywhere from six to 18 months and they produce a series of practical recommendations for action by our government, and frequently other nations and the UN.

Among the measurable results achieved by recent Policy Study Panels are:

UNA's environmental panel with the Soviets was so successful it became the basis for formal, government agreements and exchanges between the two countries. Similarly, discussions of disarmament and disengagement provided valuable pathbreaking for the official conferences on those same subjects in Vienna and Geneva. UNA's panel report on halting the spread of nuclear weapons contributed significantly to the climate that made the Non-Proliferation Treaty a reality, after years of US-Soviet deadlock.

Another newly-formed UNA panel has begun meeting with leaders of the Japanese business, government and academic communities to consider problems of mutual interest. The recommendations that emerged drew a favorable reaction from Secretary of State Kissinger and have been given serious attention by several top policymakers in Japan.

A practical demonstration of the impact of these reports is the fact that UNA's Policy Panel on the United Nations in the 1970's, chaired by Nicholas de B. Katzenbach, and the President's Commission for the Observance of the 25th Anniversary of the United Nations, chaired by Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, were jointly the basis for a recent State Department report to Congress at the request of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs.
