MEETING WITH ARCTIC GAS CO.
TUESDAY, September 23, 1975
9:15 a.m.

Mr. Cannon's Office

James R. Lowe, Jr., Assistant General Counsel

September 2, 1975

Mr. Michael Duval
Associate Director
The Domestic Council
Room 216
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Duval:

I am writing to confirm our telephone conversation relative to our desire to meet with Messrs. Cannon and Dunham. We believe it would be productive to meet with them, together or separately, as you see fit, to personally brief them, as we have with you, on the facts, status and outlook for the Arctic Gas project. (We are also eager to update our information to you at that time or separately.)

The subjects include the likely schedule for approvals, the question of federal financial participation in large energy projects -- relative to which we have had discussions with officials at the Treasury Department, Federal Energy Administration and Interior Department representatives -- and the importance of timing to the receipt of gas from Alaska.

As I mentioned, we are scheduled to see Mr. Seidman on September 8. For meeting or meetings which are the subject of this letter, may I suggest September 3, 4 or 5, or September 8 (early morning or early afternoon). If these dates are not satisfactory, we would appreciate an opportunity to meet at their earliest convenience. ||

We would appreciate your assistance in this regard.

Very truly yours,

James Rowland Lowe, Jr.
Assistant General Counsel
