

The original documents are located in Box C2, folder “Presidential Handwriting, 8/30/1974” of the Presidential Handwriting File at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Central File

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN day

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON
August 30, 1974

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: William E. Timmons WET

SUBJECT: Congressional Mail

For your information, I am attaching a list of the Congressional mail received for you on August 29.

This mail will be routinely processed by my office.

President's mail - August 29, 1974

House

Peter Rodino	Send copies of the Report of the Committee on the Judiciary regarding the impeachment proceedings.
Philip Ruppe	Suggests that James McSwiney be invited to participate in the economic summit conference.
Fortney Starke	Recommends that Guy R. Henshaw, Jim Lowry, Kay Pachtner and Neil Gendel be invited to the participate in the Economic Summit Conference.
Dominick Daniels Marvin Esch Lloyd Meeds	Urge the President's approval of S.1871, to make permanent the Youth Conservation Corps program.
George Brown John Conyers Thomas Rees Augustus Hawkins Edward Koch Robert Nix Benjamin Rosenthal	Want the President to know that they support his endeavor to find a compassionate means of allowing draft evaders and deserters who opposed the Vietnam War to return to the U. S. without requiring criminal prosecution or jail sentences.
Wright Patman	Encloses several letters from dairy farmers in East Texas who urge an embargo on grain exports and other steps to stabilize production costs and to get retail prices for dairy products more in line with farm prices; Congressman asks that their views be given consideration.
Bob Price	Endorses the recommendation of W. R. Terry that Dr. Reed M. Powell be invited to participate in the Economic Summit Conference.
Joe Skubitz	Recommends that Mrs. June Trombla be reappointed to the National Advisory Council on Adult Education.

House (continued)

William Ketchum	Is strongly opposed to the mandatory installation of the ignition interlock system on automobiles; considers this an invasion of American's privacy which should be immediately stopped.
James Abdnor	Is disappointed but understands the necessity for the President's cancellation of his previously planned trip to South Dakota. If there is any chance at all of an airport stop in his State, it would be greatly appreciated.
Les Arends	Encloses a "terrific" article regarding the problem of inflation. Says that this is a battle all of us have to face up to and if the only solution is "bite the bullet" that is what we should do.
Larry Hogan	Requests an autographed photograph for William Mann.
Teno Roncalio	Sends copy of his letter from the Rance Nix family who lost a son in Vietnam and are unhappy about the President's announcement regarding amnesty.
Robert McClory	Requests an autographed photograph for the President of the Court of Appeals in Jordan.
Brock Adams	Recommends that Dr. Max Rittenbury and Roddy Brandes be appointed to the National Emergency Medical Services Council.

President's mail - August 29, 1974

Senate

Daniel Inouye

Concerned about sugar shortages and the high price; urges the President not to lift quotas for balance of 1974; also suggests that the President confer with Congressional leaders on legislative action to extend present sugar act through 1975.

Gale McGee

He and his family recently stayed at the Manor Vail Lodge, and the desk clerk, Jan Moller who said that he and the President were neighbors in Vail, sent his greetings to the First Family.

Gale McGee

Commends the President on his expertise and gracious transition to the Ford Administration; offers every assistance possible.