THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN... dsl

JOHN DAVIS LODGE

February 15, 1975

His Excellency
The Honorable Gerald Ford
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

Your speech in honor of Vice-President Rockefeller was remarkably penetrating and constructive. I was glad that Francesca and I could be there. The whole occasion was balm for the souls of Republicans.

I particularly appreciated your reference to Senator Vandenberg. It so happens that he was on the train that I was on when I went to Grand Rapids to make a Lincoln's Birthday speech at your behest.

I am planning to be in Washington for the Chowder and Marching Club meeting on Wednesday, March 12th, which is in Congressman Devine's office.

Francesca joins me in sending you and Betty our fond and respectful regards,

Sincerely,

John Davis Lodge
