Dear Mr. Roudebush:

Thank you for your letter of March 29 forwarding your 1975 Annual Report. I appreciate your courtesy in seeing that I received an early copy.

The Veterans Administration Report has detailed with typical thoroughness the continuing obligations of our Nation to our veterans and their families. Its wealth of information will be a valuable planning tool as we endeavor to fulfill these obligations in the years ahead. I hope you will extend to all who worked with you in its preparation a special word of thanks.

With warmest personal regards,

The Honorable Richard L. Roudebush
Administrator of Veterans Affairs
