Dear Keith:

It was good to have your letter of June 11. The delegate results in Alaska are indeed encouraging, thanks in large part to the fine efforts of friends like you. I am deeply grateful for your support.

You and your family have my warmest good wishes.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Keith Specking
Minority Leader
House of Representatives of the State of Alaska

Dear Mr. President:

I am very pleased that 17 of 19 Alaska Republicans are committed to your nomination. Additionally, I feel that the two uncommitted will give you their support but not prior to the convention.

Vee joins me in sending a note of optimism and reassurance that you will continue to be our President!

Our best wishes to Steve.

With highest personal regard,

Cordially,

Keith Specking
