This is your Personal Memorandum to help you organize the busy days of the coming year. With it, you can keep a record of each day's events and plan ahead, using the generous daily notation space and the monthly record space that appears on the back of each calendar page. Each month has its own index tab for quick location. You will also find complete yearly calendars for 1969 on the back of each page. At the rear of the calendar are yearlies for this year, the past year and the coming year. There is space to record notes for the coming year, a list of zip code numbers for major U.S. cities and a map of the United States showing time zones and telephone area codes. May this calendar be useful to you during 1969 and may your expectations for the coming year be fulfilled.
