The Honorable Gerald R. Ford
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Jerry:

Enclosed is the schedule for the Puerto Vallarta trip.

Shorty Charnock, with whom you have flown before, will be aboard the aircraft and will meet you at Page Saturday morning.

You will note the arrival time in Palm Springs at Pacific Airmotive Terminal on November 16. We can talk about your requirements in Palm Springs.

I don't know about you, but I can hardly wait to get down there in that Mexican sunshine.

With warm regard.

Sincerely,

Leon W. Parma

INFORMATION BULLETIN

1. Accommodations - Governors and their Staffs will stay at the Palm Springs Canyon Hotel - telephone (714) 327-1181 (to the extent that accommodations are available -- a few staff members may be housed at the Palm Springs Spa Hotel.) Most News media personnel and guests will stay at the Palm Springs Spa Hotel where all business sessions and news conferences will be held - telephone (714) 325-1461. Personnel traveling with Mr. Nixon will stay at the Holiday Riviera Hotel - telephone (714) 327-8311.
2. State Dinner - Because of limited facilities, new media personnel will have a reception and buffet at the Spa, but will be given transportation to the State Dinner in time for the remarks of Mr. Nixon and for the entertainment. Admission for newsmen will be by ticket only, after 8:30 p.m.
3. Attire - Attire for the State Dinner will be black tie. For Governor and Mrs. Winthrop Rockefeller's dinner, casual clothes - sport shirts and slacks - are suggested. The nights are quite cool, and coats or sweaters are recommended.
4. News Facilities - The facilities for the news media covering the whole conference will be at the Spa. Separate news facilities will be set up at the Riviera for members of the news media traveling with President-elect Nixon.
