Memorandum

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20036

Your new Personal Memorandum

is presented with pleasure, pride and the hope you will find it useful in planning the days and events of the coming year. Its features are manifold. There are indexed pages for each month of the year with generous notation space for each day. As the Personal Memorandum lays open on your desk, you will also see a full yearly calendar, space for general memos, and space to record birthdays and anniversaries — on each page.

There are three big yearly calendars — one for this year, one for last year and one for next year. There's a whole page to record notes for next year. There's a zip code list for all the major cities in the country. There's a map of the United States showing area code numbers and time zones, as well as the standard time differences throughout the world. There's a page to list frequently-used addresses and phone numbers. And there are several sheets of man-size note paper in the back. Best of all, it's all in an orderly, compact, prestige package that will decorate any desk.

Use it and you will find the Personal Memorandum a constant aid in your daily, monthly and yearly planning. That's the way it was designed. Let us know how you like it .
