From: Max L. Friedersdorf

M.L.F.

I. PURPOSE

To host a reception in honor of approximately 144 former Members of Congress.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS AND PRESS PLAN

A. Background:

1. A White House reception attended by the President will highlight the Fifth Annual Alumni Days' activities of Former Members of Congress.
2. The White House event will be the last affair of the two day event, also featuring reunions and receptions in the House and Senate.
3. The annual event is sponsored by the "Former Members of Congress" organization, which is bipartisan.
4. The principle speaker at the House Floor ceremonies this afternoon was the Honorable Colgate Darden, a former Member of the House, Governor of Virginia and President of the University of Virginia. He is 78 years old and served in the Congress as a Democrat from 1933-37.
5. The group is sponsoring an oral history program, a speaker's bureau, and a document preservation program.
6. Officers are: George Meader, president; Jeffery Cohelan, vice president; J. Caleb Boggs, secretary, and Horace R. Kornegay, treasurer.

B. Participants: See Tab A

C. Press Plan: Announce to the press only. Kennerly photos

III. TALKING POINTS

1. Paul Theis is submitting remarks separately.

2. The President will speak briefly from a microphone in the East Room and then mingle as the guests proceed to the State Dining Room for refreshments.

ATTORNEY AT LAW

P. O. BOX 18505 • LENOX SQUARE
ATLANTA, GEORGIA 30326

TELEPHONE

Dear Colleague:

I was a member of the House during the 87th Congress, then residing in Kansas. As you can see, I now live in Atlanta.

Will you help me by answering the attached questionnaire? In addition to practicing law, I teach Political Science, part-time, at Georgia State University and other area colleges. This has motivated me to earn another college degree, thus I am gathering data to write a thesis.

If you will take just ten minutes of your time to answer these questions, not only will I be grateful, but you will contribute much to this study of what happens to members of Congress after they leave Congress, i.e., their career patterns. Further, when I have finished with these questionnaires, I intend to give the raw data to our organization, FORMER MEMBERS OF CONGRESS, INC.

If you like, you may remain anonymous by simply not placing your name on your questionnaire. What is important is to gain answers. In any event, I do not intend to identify any individual respondents.

Since I hope to finish this project quickly, will you please try to mail your answered questionnaire back to me within one week?

Sincerely,

Walter L. McVey

Dear Colleague:

We are pleased to advise you that plans for the Fifth Annual FMC Fall meeting are now nearly complete. We have some exciting additions to the schedule which will include a specially conducted preview of memorabilia for the Kennedy Library by former Presidential assistant Dave Powers; a Saturday morning visit to the Lexington-Concord area including Emerson's Home, the Lexington Green, the Concord Bridge, and luncheon at the Concord Colonial Inn.

Additionally, we will be visiting the Isabel Stuart Gardner Museum, one of the most extraordinary museums in the world, Faneuil Hall, the Old South Meeting Hall, as well as the previously announced visits to the 18th Century and 19th Century Boston Bicentennial Exhibits. We are also invited to Sunday morning worship services at the historic Old North Church.

On the basis of those already registered, we're going to have a splendid turnout honoring former Speaker McCormack.

If you have not yet sent in your registration fee, the cost to FMC members is $25.00, plus $12.50 for your spouse if accompanying you.

Enclosed is an FMC registration form which you should return to our office at your earliest convenience. If you have not yet sent in your hotel registration card to the Copley-Plaza Hotel, please do so at once.

A copy of the revised schedule is enclosed for your information. We hope to see you in Boston!

Sincerely,

President
