

The original documents are located in Box 1, folder “Junior Achievement Message, 1975” of the Eliska Hasek Files at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald R. Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

Junior Achievement exemplifies the sturdy principles of free enterprise and individual initiative cherished by all Americans. It plays a major role in strengthening these principles for future generations.

You who participate in its programs are learning the true values of the American way of life. You gain inspiration and incentive to build a better and stronger nation.

I have great faith in Junior Achievement and in the unique experience it provides for each of you. I am sure that it will make you feel better equipped to help meet and solve the problems you will face as you assume the challenges that are before you.

Gerald R. Ford

