

The original documents are located in Box 6, folder “3/19/75 - Talking Points, Boy of the Year” of the President’s Speeches and Statements: Reading Copies at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 18, 1975

TO: Bob Hartmann

FROM: PAUL THEIS PA

Attached are talking points for the President's use at the "Boy of the Year" award presentation tomorrow at noon, which you may want to take in to him at your morning meeting.

(Pullen) MF/PT

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN dy.
March 18, 1975
FINAL DRAFT

TALKING POINTS: BOY OF THE YEAR, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19, 1975

1. As honorary chairman of the Boys' Clubs of America, I am pleased to participate in this ceremony honoring Kenneth Ivory as the "Boy of the Year."

2. Kenneth, I congratulate you on being selected as the person to represent the over one million members of the Boys' Club. You have distinguished yourself in athletics and student leadership. And I know your home club in Milwaukee and your friends are proud of your accomplishments.

3. The Boys' Club record of helping communities as well as boys who have participated in club programs is outstanding. The ideals of these clubs of service to home, church and community are inspiring.

4. Kenneth, as the chosen representative of these standards of conduct, you are to be commended for the activities which won this award for you. I wish you and the Boys' Club continued success in your very important work.