- The Average Workweek for all production and nonsupervisory workers increased 0.1 hour in July to 36.2 hours.
- A decline of 0.5 hours in the Contract Construction Workweek was more than offset by an increase of 0.2 hours in Mining and by smaller increases in other industries.
- A decline of 0.1 hour in the overall Manufacturing Workweek was reflected by a decrease of 0.1 hour in Durable and in Nondurable Goods industries.
- Factory Overtime remained unchanged from last month's level of 3.1 hours.

According to advance data:

- Total Retail Sales declined for the second time in the last 3 months in July, down $642 million to $53.2 billion.
  - Sales Excluding the Automotive Group declined $300 million, compared with a $741 million increase in June.
- Sales of Nondurable Goods Stores decreased $320 million, erasing about half the June gain.
- Durable Goods Stores reported a $316 million decrease, returning to the May level of $17.4 billion.
  - The drop in Automotive Sales accounted for nearly all of the July decline.

A.4.6-Retail Sales Selected Durable Goods

Selected Nondurable Goods

Source: Bureau of the Census
16 August 1976

DURABLE GOODS:

- Sales of Automotive Dealers fell $342 million (3.3 percent) to $10.1 billion in July.
  - This represents a decline of 5.2 percent since the April peak of $10.7 billion; however, July sales are still 14.8 percent above July 1975.

NONDURABLE GOODS:

- Food Sales declined $216 million (1.8 percent) from the June peak of $11.7 billion.
- Following a $305 million increase in June, the first in 3 months, sales of the General Merchandise Group with Nonstores declined $225 million to $8.3 billion.
- Sales of Gasoline Service Stations posted the largest increase, up $78 million to $4.0 billion. Sales of Eating and Drinking places and Apparel and Accessory Stores also rose.

- Recovering from the 0.4 percent decrease posted in May, Total Manufacturing and Trade Sales rose $2.4 billion or 1.3 percent in June.
- Combined Sales rose about 1.8 percent during the second quarter, considerably narrower than the 4.7 percent gain posted in the first quarter of 1976.
- Sales of Nondurable Goods rose $1.0 billion (1.0 percent) to $104.5 billion.
- Sales of Durable Goods, which were virtually unchanged in May, advanced $1.3 billion to $84.2 billion.

BY INDUSTRY GROUP:

- More than half of the June gain in Sales was centered in the Wholesale sector. Sales of Merchant Wholesalers jumped $1.5 billion or 3.7 percent to a new high of $40.9 billion.
- Erasing the $828 million decline reported in May, Retail Sales rose $979 million to $53.8 billion.
- Manufacturers' Sales, which rose more slowly in April and May, edged down $59 million in June.

- Following a $1.9 billion rise in May, Total Manufacturing and Trade Inventories rose a further $3.3 billion (1.2 percent) in June. This was the largest gain since December 1974.
- Combined business Inventories rose 2.3 percent during the second quarter of 1976 following a 1.8 percent increase in the first quarter.
- Durable Inventories rose more in June, up $1.3 billion (0.8 percent) compared to $1.1 billion in May.
- Nondurable Inventories were expanded by $2.0 billion (1.8 percent), the largest gain since July 1974.
- The combined Stock-to-Sales Ratio was unchanged at 1.46 as the increase in Inventories kept pace with the gain in Sales.
- Durable Inventories rose slightly less than Sales, accounting for the decline in the Stock-to-Sales Ratio to 1.91.
- The Nondurable Ratio rose for the second month as inventory accumulation outpaced sales gains.

- The rise in Manufacturers' Inventories accounted for slightly more than half of the June rise in Combined Inventories.
- Up $1.7 billion, the largest gain since December 1974.
- Retail Inventories, which were little changed in May, rose $961 million (1.3 percent) in June to a new peak of $76.7 billion.
- Wholesalers reported a $618 million increase in Inventories compared to a $973 million rise in May.
- The Manufacturing Inventory-to-Sales Ratio rose for the first time since last November, reflecting the halt in Sales gains.
- The Retail Ratio edged down to 1.42; and the Wholesale ratio returned to the April level of 1.19.

- The Wholesale Price Index for All Commodities rose 0.3 percent in July, comparable to increases of 0.3 percent and 0.4 percent posted in May and June.
- A larger rise in Industrial Commodities was limited by declines in Farm Products and Processed Foods and Feeds.
- Following 3 months of increase, Farm Products fell 1.0 percent to 193.4; and Processed Foods and Feeds declined for the first time since February--down 0.9 percent.
- Industrial Commodities advanced 0.7 percent in July following a 0.5 percent gain in June and an average monthly rise of 0.2 percent in the first 5 months of 1976.

BY STAGE OF PROCESSING:

- Crude Materials Excluding food rose 3.8 percent, the largest increase since July 1974.
- The rise in Intermediate Materials slowed somewhat from 0.7 percent in June to 0.5 percent in July.
- Consumer Finished Goods Excluding Food, which was little changed during the first part of 1976, rose 0.6 percent in June and 0.7 percent in July.

Selected Processed Foods and Feeds

- Contributing to the decrease in Farm Products were steep declines in Livestock and Live Poultry:
  - Livestock prices fell for the third month, down 7.6 percent to the lowest level since March 1975.
  - Live Poultry dropped 6.7 percent, reaching a 16-month low of 165.0.
- A 7.5 percent rise in Fresh and Dried Fruits and Vegetables, contrary to the sharp decline posted in May and June, was partially offsetting.
- Among Processed Foods and Feeds:
  - Meats, Poultry, and Fish declined 6.2 percent in July, more than the declines reported in the previous 2 months combined.
  - A steep 13.5 percent increase in Crude Vegetable Oils, was partially offsetting.

- Approximately four-fifths of the July advance in Industrial Commodities was attributable to increases in the Fuels, Metals, and Wood Products groups.
- The Metals and Metal Products group rose 1.2 percent following a similar gain in June.
- The Fuels and Related Products group, which had declined in the first 4 months of 1976, accelerated in July, up 2.0 percent compared to increases of 0.2 percent and 1.0 percent in May and June, respectively.
- Following 3 months of decline, the Lumber and Wood Products Index jumped 4.0 percent in July to a new high of 201.3.

- Housing Units Completed declined in June 0.6 percent to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 1,343,000 units.
  - The 10.9 percent (101,000 unit) increase in Single Family Housing Units was not strong enough to offset the 25.7 percent (109,000 unit) decline in Units in Multiunit Structures.
- Units under Construction rose 1.2 percent to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 1,069,000 units, the highest since April 1975.
  - The 13,000 unit increase was primarily due to Single Family Housing Units.

By Race of Head

Source: Bureau of the Census

- Among the most dramatic and important changes observed during recent years in household and family characteristics has been the growth in the proportion of "nonfamily" households, increasing from 15 percent to 23 percent of all households between 1960 and 1976.
  - A nonfamily household consists of a household head who either lives alone or with nonrelatives only.
- The increase in nonfamily households is attributable to several factors including the increasing number of young adults who leave their parental homes and establish nonfamily households of their own, and the increasing number of older persons continuing to maintain homes apart from any relatives.
- Recent high rates of marriage dissolution have resulted in an increase in the proportion of families headed by women with no husband present and in a simultaneous decrease in the proportion of families with both a husband and wife present.
- Between 1970 and 1976 the proportion of families headed by a woman increased for both whites and blacks from 9 to 11 percent among white families, and from 28 to 36 percent among black families.

By Race

B . 2 . 1—Average Size of Households and Families: 1960, 1970, and 1976

 18 Years and Over
 Under 18 Years

- One of the results of the proportional decline in husband-wife families has been the concurrent decline in the proportion of children who live with both parents.
  - Between 1970 and 1976 the proportion of all children under 18 living with both parents declined from 85 to 80 percent.
- While the proportion of both black and white children living with both parents has declined, the difference between the races remains considerable: 85 percent of white children living with both parents in 1976 compared with about half of black children.
- Changes in the component types of households and families and recent declines in the birth rate have combined to effect a reduction in the estimated average number of persons per household and per family.
  - The impact of the declining birth rate is seen in the decrease in the average number of persons under age 18 per household and per family: to 0.89 and 1.15 persons, respectively in 1976.
