MEMO FOR: JACK
FROM: Connie
SUBJECT: Leone State dinner

State Department has recommended that Richard Valeriani be invited to the after-dinner dancing for the Leone dinner on the 25th.

As you know, Richardo is a died in the wool son of Italy, and thus their recommendation.

Jerry's recommendations, which I assume will be automatically accepted for the dinner are:

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kempster

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Jones

Mr. and Mrs. James Deakin

Connie
I'd like to have Don Santorelli, head of LEAA at Justice and another son of Italy. Invited to the dinner. Can you arrange?

There are no other press being invited for after-dinner dancing.

No invitations have been sent out yet -- they are triple checking with us. I wonder if Valeriani might feel slighted that 3 regulars were invited to the dinner and him -- an Italian -- is only invited to the entertainment. The reason, of course, is that he covers State Department - the others cover the White House.

At any rate -- it is up to you to do as you please.

*Connie -
See if Valeriani can be added to the list for dinner.
If not, go with first option.*

____ Have Kempster, Jones, Deakin invited to dinner as terHorst requested, and Valeriani to after-dinner dancing

____ Have Valeriani substituted for one of the regular invitees.
Who? _____

____ Don't have Valeriani invited to dancing -- it might do more harm than good to have him see the others at dinner.

____ Other -- _____
