:38	Intro Buckley			Applause and partisan clamor

:40
8:42		Intro Baker	Buckley	General Comments on goals and principles of Rep. party. Praise of Baker -- common sense, judgement, integrity, etc.
:44
8:46		Address	Baker	Party will "win together" in November. Watergate: stresses strength of Rep. party to go forward and spirit of humiliation of Watergate. Alleges abuses in Democratic party, invasions of privacy, accepting bribes -- Rep. party has faced their abuses whereas Demo. party has not.

:50				Issues are not love, patriotism -- those are common concerns -- issues are how much government, taxation, and concession is too much. Emphasizes programs of Republican administration in reducing inflation, increasing employment, restricting spending. America's common sense is expressed by Republican party in protecting individuals against encroachments of government. Attacks Carter's credibility and alleges that his program is more government, more taxes, more spending, more encroachments. Stresses physical irresponsibility of Democratic Congress -- FDR is a misor by comparison and Carter would increase spending by $10 B. Money is not the only concern -- Demo's words of comparison translate into words of coercion and usurpation of control, encroachments. Major differences between parties is how much power the government should have, how it should be exercised.

:30	con't.	Address	Barry Goldwater	Moving toward nationalized economy "socialism". Must fight this to protect freedom -- possibility that last chance to face their challenge. Alternative to Republican approach -- Carter has endorsed Democratic platform which would add $125 B to budget. Democratic Congress increased debts, opened loopholes for tax avoidance contrary to their stated goals. More government leads to concentration of powers in one man less power in people. Carter is the image of LBJ. "Radical left wing" politics. Criticizes his acquiescence to Nader for the creation of a new consumer protection agency. Carter knows 'no things' about foreign policy. Weak-kneed leader. People don't need to be told what is wrong as much as they need to be told what is right -- work out own problems. Democrats never once mentioned freedom at their convention. The Republican party stands for freedom and strength.
:40		Intro of		First woman as Chairman of major party implies the significant role in the Republican party. Price of rights cannot be loss of individual freedom. Can't afford Carter as President. Criticizes Carter's liberal voting record of running mate. Increased state spending in government employment in Georgia. Carter and Dem. platform stands for idea that government knows no more than people what is good for people. To keep Carter's promises every American would have to pay $1,000 in taxes. Expresses notion that American is at peace and economy is expanding for which Republicans are responsible and which Dem. Congress inherited. Republicans believe in free enterprise and individual government. Government should be routed in a basic respect for people. This includes quality of life, environmental protection, safety, help to needy, a sufficiency of fixed income, (i.e., noninflationary economy.) Equality is needed in the sense of equal opportunity and not equality of 'outcome' by MLS.
