

The original documents are located in Box 119, folder “Longley, James” of the Ron Nessen Papers at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Ron Nessen donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

GOVERNOR LONGLEY

We will be posting an addition to the schedule Governor James B. Longley of Maine this afternoon in the Oval Office. The time for the meeting is 2:30. (It is scheduled for 15 minutes). The meeting was arranged at Governor Longley request.

Q. What is the topic of the meeting?

A. Governor Longley asked for the meeting. I do not know what he wants to discuss. He was in town for a reception, called Bill Nicholson and said he would like to see the President.

Q. Will he be available? Will there be a read out?

A. There are no plans for him to brief. I will see if there is a read out.

Q. Governor Longley yesterday said the President should consider an independent for vice president. What is the President's reaction?

A. I haven't asked the President about this.

(SEE PRESIDENT'S REMARKS ATTACHED FROM PRESS CONFERENCE.)