MEMORANDUM FOR MARGE WICKLEIN

FROM: RON NESSEN

Ed Keiss, a cartoonist from Canada, sent these cartoons to the President.

I generally acknowledged them in a letter (attached) but perhaps the President would also want to thank him, if you think it appropriate.

MEMORANDUM FOR: MARGE WICKLEIN
FROM: RON NESSEN

This editorial cartoon was sent to the President by Draper Hill of the Memphis Tennessee Commercial Appeal. He is the incoming President of the Association of American Editorial Cartoonists.

I will write him a thank you note on behalf of the President.

I think the President would like to have this for his cartoon collection in the small den next to the Oval Office.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 9, 1975

Dear Draper:

The President has asked me to thank you for your editorial cartoon. As you may know, he has quite a collection of original cartoons hanging in a small den next to the Oval Office, and this will certainly be a memorable addition to his collection.

The President has also asked me to congratulate you -- and I join him in this -- on your election as the new President of the Association of American Editorial cartoonists.

I will be happy to hear from you as your convention approaches.

Sincerely,

Ron Nessen
Press Secretary
to the President

Mr. Draper Hill
