April 27, 1976:

MEMORANDUM FOR: RON NESSEN
THROUGH: MAX FRIEDERSDORF M.F.
FROM: BOB WOLTHUIS

As I listened to the press conference this morning there was a great deal of comment on the Reagan charges about U.S. defense posture. The President's answers reflected his concern that the American people, our allies abroad, and our opponents not be deceived as to what the American military power really is. There is a classic case to back up this kind of answer and logic which might be helpful in any future questions.

In the 1960 campaign the Democratic candidate charged that the U.S. suffered from a missile gap. This became a wide-spread issue and there is some evidence that it did mislead both our allies and our opponents which led to some reckless Soviet policies in Cuba. After the election the missile gap charge proved to be blatantly false. The President could say that he will not and cannot tolerate a repetition of that kind of mistake.
