WASHINGTON

MEETING WITH TIME MAGAZINE EXECUTIVES,
EDITORS AND WRITERS

Monday, January 12, 1976

11:00 A.M. (30 minutes)

Blue Room

From: Ron Nessen R RN

I. PURPOSE

To meet with, and answer questions from, approximately 40 Time Magazine executives, editors and reporters on the 1976 campaign.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS, PRESS PLAN

A. Background

Every four years, the Time Magazine executives, editors, and reporters who will be covering the campaign come to Washington to meet leading political personalities in order to map out the direction and mood of the campaign and plan Time's coverage.

This year Time people will meet, in addition to the President, Vice President Rockefeller, Bo Callaway, Democratic Chairman Robert Strauss, as many of the Democratic candidates as possible, pollsters, and others knowledgeable on the forthcoming campaign.

The Time group includes: Editor-in-Chief, Hedley Donovan; Managing Editor, Henry Grunwald; Washington Bureau Chief, Hugh Sidey; and all the others from New York, Washington, and around the country who will be involved in this year's political coverage. (Complete list of participants is attached at Tab A.)

The meeting will be completely off the record, so that nothing you say will be printed in the magazine. The primary purpose is to give the Time people a feel for you and your roles as President and candidate as well as an opportunity to gauge your character and personality. They will ask specific political questions which you will want to answer specifically. But more importantly from your point of view, this meeting will give you an opportunity to explain your views on the issues and how you plan to deal with them, your vision for the future of the country and how you plan to lead the country in that direction, your asset as the only candidate who has had experience as President making day in and day out decisions and living with their consequences, and your overall policy of spending most of the year doing your job in the Oval Office and letting the nation judge you by your record as President, while all the other candidates can be judged only on the basis of their rhetoric and promises. By doing this effectively, you can help shape Time Magazine's outlook and coverage of the campaign in a way that will be beneficial and sympathetic to your strategy.

Time Magazine has not been unfriendly to you, and this meeting can further cement an already good relationship and understanding treatment by this important molder of public opinion.

B. Participants

The President
Ron Nessen
Dick Cheney
Time Magazine representatives (see attached list)

C. Press Plan

No announcement of the meeting. All answers are off the record. A transcript will be made for the files. White House photographs will be taken, autographed by the President and sent to the participants later as a memento.

(More)

III. TALKING POINTS

A separate briefing book has been given to you and suggests specific answers to political questions and has been coordinated with the P.F.C. It also contains an overview of the points you want to get across and material for a brief opening statement you possibly will want to make.

INTERVIEW WITH NEW HAMPSHIRE EDITORS

Thursday, January 22, 1976

9:30 a.m. (60 minutes)

The Oval Office

From: Ron Nessen

RHN

I. PURPOSE

To be interviewed by a group of editors from newspapers in New Hampshire

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS, PRESS PLAN

A. Background

A number of newspapers in New Hampshire have requested an opportunity to interview you before the New Hampshire primary. It was decided to invite the editors of all 9 daily newspapers in New Hampshire, plus a representative of the 30 weekly newspapers in New Hampshire to come to the White House for a joint interview.

The Manchester Union Leader is the best known and largest of the New Hampshire newspapers. The publisher, William Loeb, turned down an invitation to attend this interview and, in fact, denounced the interview in a front page editorial. (Loeb is a big supporter of Reagan.) However, the other 8 daily newspapers in New Hampshire have a combined circulation 50 percent larger than the Union Leader and they generally support you.

We have made arrangements for the editors to have typewriters and telephones at the White House so they can immediately file their stories on the interview, thus making their afternoon editions the same day.

It was felt important to do this interview at this time and have the stories filed immediately because two public opinion polls will start sampling in New Hampshire on Friday.

In addition to the interview with you, the New Hampshire editors will receive a briefing from Jim Cannon and Jim Lynn on the State of the Union and Budget messages. The editors will also be given a special tour of the White House.

AP and UPI photographers will take pictures for use in the New Hampshire newspapers.

INTERVIEW WITH WALTER CRONKITE

Tuesday, February 3, 1976

11:00 a.m. (30 min.)

The Oval Office

From: Ron Nessen

I. PURPOSE

To be interviewed on film by Walter Cronkite as part of a series for the CBS Evening News giving all the candidates a chance to give their views on major issues.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS, PRESS PLAN

A. Background

Over the past month or so, Cronkite has been devoting 5 minutes or so periodically to each of the candidates for President and their views on a list of major issues.

Most of the other candidates have already appeared. Your appearance was put off until after the State of the Union and the Budget.

Cronkite indicates that because your views on the major issues already are well known, he may ask follow-up questions going behind your stated positions on the issues to ask why you came out for certain positions, how you justified them, how you answer specific criticisms of them, etc.

The seven issues Cronkite will ask your views on are: the economy; jobs and inflation; energy; crime; faith in government; military expenditures and foreign policy; busing and abortion.

This would be the first occasion for you to publicly state your position on abortion.

Cronkite will film 20 or 30 minutes with you. From this, 5 minutes or so will be extracted for use on the air Tuesday or Wednesday night on Cronkite's regular evening news show. Because the editing will be totally in the hands of CBS, you should keep your answers short, concise and quite specific and keep to a minimum philosophical and abstract concepts.

B. Participants

The President
Walter Cronkite
Ron Nessen
Bob Mead
CBS Film Crew

C. Press Plan

The interview will be acknowledged later. Transcripts will be made available to those who want them after the broadcast. White House photographs will be taken, autographed by the President, and sent to Cronkite as a memento of the occasion.

III. TALKING POINTS

A separate briefing book has been prepared giving an overview and specific Q & A guidance on each of the issues Cronkite will ask about.

INTERVIEW WITH THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

Thursday, February 5, 1976

11:00 a.m. (60 minutes)

The Oval Office

From: Ron Nessen RAN

I. PURPOSE

To be interviewed by three members of the staff of the Christian Science Monitor for publication in the Boston-based newspaper prior to the New Hampshire primary.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS, PRESS PLAN

A. Background

The Christian Science Monitor has had a request in for sometime for an interview. The decision was made to grant the interview at this time so that the story about it will appear in the Christian Science Monitor prior to the New Hampshire primary.

While this newspaper has a somewhat limited circulation compared to many big city daily newspapers, it does have a strong influence on the other journalists and opinion-makers in New England, Washington, and elsewhere in the country.

The Christian Science Monitor plans to publish the interview in its edition of Monday, February 9.

B. Participants

The President
John Hughes, Editor
Earl Foell, Managing Editor
Godfrey Sperling, Jr., Washington Bureau Chief
Ron Nessen

C. Press Plan

The interview will be acknowledged. A White House photographer will take pictures to be autographed and sent out to the participants as mementos.

No transcript will be distributed to other reporters.

III. TALKING POINTS

The Christian Science Monitor has indicated that a good part of the discussions will dwell on foreign policy. Other questions will concern politics (New Hampshire specifically) and your domestic programs.

A briefing book has been prepared containing Q & A guidance in these areas as well as an overview of what you wish to accomplish by the interview.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

INTERVIEW WITH WBZ-TV - BOSTON

Wednesday, February 11, 1976

10:30 a.m. (30 minutes)

The Oval Office

From: Ron Nessen

I. PURPOSE

To be interviewed by WBZ-TV - Boston to give your views on issues on a broadcast that will be shown before the New Hampshire primary.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS, PRESS PLAN

A. Background

You will be interviewed for a program entitled, "Woman '76," the highest rated talk show in New England. The program will be seen on Thursday, February 19, five days before the New Hampshire primary, in the following States: New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island and parts of Maine.

The interview will be done by Sharon King, an extremely able WBZ-TV correspondent, who was recently featured in a front-page article in the Wall Street Journal as one of the outstanding local journalists in America.

(We originally accepted an old and outdated invitation from WBZ for you to appear on a program called "Eyewitness News Conference." The program that WBZ now wants you to appear on is "Woman '76," which has more prestige and a larger audience, and it was decided to accept, even though we thought we were accepting the "Eyewitness News Conference" invitation.)

The polls show that you have unusually high popularity among women, and this program reaches a predominantly women's audience, which should help with that segment of the vote in New Hampshire.

B. Participants

The President
Sharon King
Ron Nessen
Bob Mead
Television Crew

C. Press Plan

Interview will be acknowledged. White House photographs will be taken and sent later to Sharon King and her television crew, autographed by the President, as a memento of the occasion. No transcripts will be distributed to the White House Press Corps.

III. TALKING POINTS

The interview will be concentrated on the following topics: The fight against inflation; your proposals for energy independence; your proposals for catastrophic insurance and other health programs; The Equal Rights Amendment; abortion; women in the Ford Administration; and the Ford family.

A briefing book containing guidance in each of these areas has been sent to you separately.

INTERVIEW WITH NEW HAMPSHIRE RADIO STATIONS

Thursday, February 12, 1976

3:00 p.m. (60 minutes)

The Roosevelt Room

From: Ron Nessen RAN

I. PURPOSE

To be interviewed by reporters from 17 New Hampshire radio stations for broadcast in their regular news programs and special programs over the next few days.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS, PRESS PLAN

A. Background

We have received a number of individual interview requests from New Hampshire radio stations for interviews with you prior to the New Hampshire primary. It was decided to invite all 33 radio stations in New Hampshire to send reporters to Washington for a group interview. Seventeen stations accepted the invitation.

Altogether, 20 representatives of New Hampshire radio stations will attend, including 3 technicians and one young man, William J. Candee IV, representing the campus station at Exeter prep school.

The interview will take place around the table in the Roosevelt Room. WHCA has helped with technical facilities so that the radio stations will have good quality tape recordings of the interview for broadcast.

Prior to the interview in the Roosevelt Room, the reporters will be brought into the Oval Office one at a time to shake hands briefly and have their photographs taken individually with you. During the picture-taking session, one reporter, Edward J. Lecius, Jr. of WSMN, Nashua, New Hampshire, will present you with two Bicentennial lapel pins from the Nashua Lions Club. Lecius helped the White House Advance team during last weekend's trip to New Hampshire. During the interview, the reporters will seek recognition from you and you will acknowledge the questioners.

B. Participants

The President

Ron Nessen

Bob Mead

New Hampshire Radio Reporters (see attached list)

C. Press Plan

Individual and group photographs will be taken by White House photographer, to be autographed by the President and mailed later to the participants as a memento of the occasion. A transcript will be made for the official files. The reporters will make their own tape recordings.

III. TALKING POINTS

You are well briefed on the issues of interest in New Hampshire because of your trip last weekend and the WBZ interview Wednesday. However, we have prepared a revised version of your New Hampshire briefing book which you may want to use to refresh your memory.

11:00 - 11:30 a. m.

Oval Office

From: Ron Nessen

RAN

I. PURPOSE

To film a 30-minute interview to be broadcast on the New Hampshire Television Network.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS, PRESS PLAN

A. Background

The New Hampshire Television Network has requested an interview prior to the State primary. They have broadcast interviews with other candidates in the primary race. The network is a State-wide public television network, the only television facility capable of reaching the entire New Hampshire population, with stations in Durham, Hanover, Berlin, Littleton, Keene, North Woodstock and North Conway.

The interview will be similar to last week's interview with the New Hampshire radio network, except there will only be one questioner, Tom Richman, the News Director of the network.

There will be two film cameras filming the interview. At one point during the interview there will be a short intermission in order to change the film magazines on each camera.

The interview will be broadcast Friday evening, February 20 at 7:30 p. m. throughout the State. You will be in New Hampshire at the time of the broadcast.

MEETING WITH PUBLISHERS AND EDITORS

HEARST NEWSPAPERS

Tuesday, February 24, 1976

11:00 a.m. (60 minutes)

Roosevelt Room

From: Ron Nessen RN

I. PURPOSE

To present the President's position and answer questions on key national issues to the senior officials of the Hearst Corporation and the publishers and editors of Hearst Newspapers.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS, AND PRESS PLAN

- A. Background: The Hearst publishers meet every three months in various cities around the country. The group will be holding its sessions at the Mayflower Hotel on February 23 and 24. The request for the Presidential briefing was sent by Joseph Kingsbury-Smith, National Editor of Hearst Newspapers; and Robert E. Thompson, Publisher, Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

You have not met before with these media representatives as a group. In April of 1974, as Vice President, you addressed the American Newspaper Publishers Association at the Waldorf Astoria in New York and most of the Hearst publishers were in the audience. Also, a few of the editors have attended regional media breakfasts with you in the past. Nine of their wives and one daughter were guests of the White House this morning for a special White House tour.

The interview will be published in Hearst papers in most major cities.

B. Participants:

William Randolph Hearst, Jr., Editor-in-Chief;
Frank Bennack, Jr., Executive Vice President of the Hearst Corporation and General Manager of Hearst Newspapers;
George Hearst, Jr., Publisher of the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner and Trustee of the Hearst Corporation;
Joseph Kingsbury-Smith, National Editor of the Hearst Newspapers and Trustee of the Hearst Corporation; and 18 other Hearst publishers and editors (22 total). A complete list is attached at Tab A.

Also sitting in on the meeting from the White House will be:

Alan Greenspan
Ron Nessen
Margita White
Randy Woods

- C. Press Plan: The meeting will be on-the-record. A transcript will be made available to the participants following the meeting and to members of the White House Press Corps a day or so later.

A White House photographer will take pictures and send them to the participants as a memento of the occasion.

III. TALKING POINTS

A briefing book on the substantive issues has been prepared and presented to you. You may wish to make a few brief opening remarks.
