

AUGUST 19, 1974

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

Ollie Atkins, formerly Personal Photographer to President Nixon, has been named Director of the White House Photographic Department.

Mr. Atkins, who has been on extended "leave" from the Curtis Publishing Co., Inc., had been named by Beurt SerVaas, President of the company, as a Vice President and senior editor of The Saturday Evening Post. His offices would have been in Washington. Mr. SerVaas has delayed Mr. Atkins' appointment until such time as he completes his assignment for President Ford.

#

#

#