

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEPTEMBER 20, 1974

Office of the White House Press Secretary

-----

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate Daniel Minchew, of Baxley, Georgia, to be a Member of the United States Tariff Commission. He will succeed Jefferson Banks Young, who resigned effective June 24, 1974.

Since 1971, Mr. Minchew has been Administrative Assistant to Senator Herman E. Talmadge in charge of the Senator's Washington and Georgia offices. In 1969, he became the Legislative Director of the United States-Japan Trade Council after having served as Assistant Washington Representative of the National Cotton Council from 1966 to 1969. He had previously been an instructor at the University of Georgia in the Department of Political Science.

Mr. Minchew was born on September 9, 1939, in Savannah, Georgia. He received his A. B. degree from the University of Georgia in 1961 and his M. A. from Oxford University in 1963. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the U. S. Senate Administrative Assistants and Secretary's Club.

He is married to the former Shirley Coffield of Eagle Creek, Oregon. They reside in Washington, D. C.

###