

1976 budget meeting pool report

president, wielding a fat yellow ball pen, was chatting with ash and others. then he asked pool whether we going to n.y. with him. he looked sort of disappointed when we said we couldn't make it.

he turned to scowcroft and said: "did henry get off all right?"

scow: "yes, sir. a little late, but he always is."

pres: nothing going on tonight, is there?

scow: no sir.

(kissinger en route to brussels for nato meeting)

kohler/newhouse