

Office of the White House Press Secretary
-----THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced the appointment of seven persons as members to the National Advisory Council on Vocational Education for terms of three years. They are:

JoAnn Cullen, of Bristol, Pennsylvania, student, Trenton State College, Trenton, New Jersey. This is a reappointment.

Marvin J. Feldman, of Montclair, New Jersey, President, Fashion Institute of Technology, New York, New York. This is a reappointment.

Russell H. Graham, of Coffeyville, Kansas, President, Coffeyville Community Junior College; also Adjunct Professor, Kansas State College of Pittsburg, Pittsburg, Kansas. He succeeds Luis M. Morton, Jr., whose term expired.

Thomas A. Jackson, of Great Falls, South Carolina, Director, Lancaster Vocational Center, Lancaster, South Carolina. He succeeds Martha G. Bachman, whose term expired.

Walter K. Kerr, of Tyler, Texas, President, National Youth Foundation; President, Texas Industry Council for Career Education; State Coordinator of Industry, Education and Labor, Tyler, Texas. He succeeds James A. Rhodes whose term expired.

Malcolm R. Lovell, Jr., of the District of Columbia, President, Rubber Manufacturers Association, Washington, D.C. He succeeds Sal B. Hoffman whose term expired.

Robert Boisseau Pamplin, of Lake Oswego, Oregon, President, R.B. Pamplin Corporation, Lake Oswego, Oregon. He succeeds David Van Alstyne, Jr., whose term expired.

The President today also designated John W. Thiele, of Fort Smith, Arkansas, presently a member serving a term expiring January 17, 1976, to serve as Chairman of the Council. He succeeds James A. Rhodes in this capacity.

The Council consists of 21 members serving staggered terms of three years. The purpose of the Council is to review the possible duplication of vocational education programs at the postsecondary and adult levels within geographic areas and make annual reports to the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

#