

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MAY 2, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced the appointment of four persons as members of the Board of Foreign Scholarships for terms expiring September 22, 1977. They are:

Monroe D. Dnnsker, of Fort Lee, New Jersey, Professor of Mathematics, Courant Institute of Mathematical Sciences, New York University, New York. He succeeds Anne Pannell Taylor whose term has expired.

Lane Dwinell, of Lebanon, New Hampshire, Chairman, of the Board of the National Bank of Lebanon, Lebanon, New Hampshire. This is a reappointment.

Donald S. Lowitz, of Glencoe, Illinois, Associate, law firm of Aaron, Aaron, Schimberg & Hess, Chicago, Illinois. This is a reappointment.

Robert Endicott Osgood, of Chevy Chase, Maryland, Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies, Washington, D.C. He succeeds James R. Roach whose term has expired.

The Board elects its own chairman. The Board was created for the purpose of selecting students, scholars, teachers, trainees, and other persons to participate in the educational exchange programs created under the law.

#

#

#