Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced the appointment of three persons as Representatives of the United States, to participate as national correspondents in the United Nations Program for the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders for terms expiring December 31, 1980. They are:

Sylvia A. Bacon, of the District of Columbia, Associate Judge of the District of Columbia Superior Court, Washington, D.C.

Lee P. Brown, of Portland, Oregon, Sheriff and Director of Public Safety, Multnomah County.

Bernard Carey, of Chicago, Illinois, State's Attorney of Cook County.

The functions of the appointees is to inform the Secretary General on current developments in the prevention of crime and treatment of offenders. The range of information includes matters relating to legislation, public and private agency programs; trends in the incidence of crime; results of experimental and demonstration projects; and other related matters. In addition, the correspondents assist the Secretariat in the collection of data and information required for international surveys and studies in the field.
